THE LIBERAL CATHOLIC CHURCH

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Liberal Catholic Church exists to forward the work of her Master Christ in the world, and to feed His flock. It draws the central inspiration of its work from an intense faith in the Living Christ, believing that the vitality of a Church gains in proportion as its members cease to think only of a Christ Who lived two thousand years ago, and strive rather to serve as a vehicle for the Eternal Christ, Who ever lives as a mighty spiritual Presence in the world, guiding and sustaining His people. "Lo, I am with you alway even unto the consummation of the age." "Before Abraham was, I am."

to proselytize, in the aggressive sense, from among the adherents of any other Church, and as an earnest of this welcomes people to regular and full participation in its services without asking or expecting them to leave their original Church

The Liberal Catholic Church is a living Christian Church—"modernist," in that it maintains that the form of religion should keep pace with human growth and enlightenment, "historic," in that it holds that the Church has handed down a very precious heritage from the Christ Himself

PREFACE

A some brief explanation of the principles which have guided the writing of this Liturgy of the Liberal Catholic Church may help the reader to understand its spirit and aim.

It will be seen that the word Liturgy, as applied to this book, is not restricted to the Order of the celebration of the Holy Eucharist as in the Eastern Church. It is applied, rather, to the entire order of public worship and administration of the Sacraments, officially authorized—such, indeed as would usually be described by the adjective "liturgical"—as distinct from public or private devotions, services of preaching and praise extempore worship and so forth, which may be permitted but are not prescribed.

selves are ashamed. The Roman Liturgy is the worst offender in these respects, but the Anglican Liturgy also, though much less crude, is far from blameless. The Greek Liturgies are very much less overcast with this mass of fear and gloom, they dwell more on the love of God.

In this Liberal Catholic Church these disfiguring elements have been eliminated, as derogatory alike to the idea of a loving Father and to the men whom He has created in His own image. If Christians had been content to take what Christ taught of the Father in ship"—that is, praise and honour—to Almighty God. Secondly, * is intended to help the worshippers. And thirdly—most important of all—it is intended to help the surrounding world at large, through the instrumentality of the worshippers, by pouring out upon it a great flood of spiritual power. We may safely say that God Himself does not need our praise, and certainly would not appreciate anything in the nature of adulation from those who might be expected to know better. We feel and know, on the other hand, that it is good for us to lift up our hearts in praise and aspiration, and to strive to unify ourselves more completely with the divine will. But we may go further and say with of the richness of the older rites, so much so that it has been described as "the baldest Eucharistic rite in Christendom," and numbers of earnest Anglican Priests find it desirable to re-introduce thereinto a considerable portion of the Roman rite. The "authorized version" of the Scriptures has for the most part been used, for although the "revised version" is certainly a more faithful rendering of the original, it still leaves so much to be desired as not to compensate, in our opinion, for the loss of the majestic English of the King James' version. We have followed Roman precedent in omitting from their context verses not germane to the main purpose of the Epistles and Gospels. Finally, we are indebted to the beautiful Liturgy of the "Catholic Apostolic" or so called "Irvingite" Church for a few stately sentences incorporated in our rites of Ordination, and for one prayer in our Consecration of a Church. Two sentences in the Holy Eucharist beginning "Under the veil of earthly things" come from a source that we are unable to trace.

RULES

GOVERNING THE PRECEDENCE OF FEASTS AND HOLY DAYS

I Whenever two Holy Days fall upon the same day, the Collect, Epistle and Gospel used shall be those of the Day which holds the higher rank, but the Collect of the other shall be recited after that of the Day

II Whenever two Holy Days of equal rank fall upon the same day, the priest shall decide which Day he will celebrate, but the Collect of the other shall be recited after that of the Day preferred.

III Whenever a Holy Day (with the exceptions noted in Rule IV) falls within the octave of another Festival the Collect, Epistle and Gospel of the former shall be used but the Collect of the latter shall be recited after that of the Day, except that on the actual Day of a Festival of Class A there shall be no commemoration, only the Collect of the Festival itself being used—save that on All Souls' Day the Collect for All Saints shall be recited, as hereinafter directed.

IV Whenever a Sunday of Class C or D falls within the octave of a Festival, the Collect, Epistle and Gospel of the Festival shall be used but the Collect of the Sunday shall be recited after that of the Day without impairing the reality of our belief in the communion of saints. The Roman Calendar is overlaid with saints of whom few excite any real devotion at this distance of time while others undoubtedly are mythical or transformed pagan deities. One may well contrast with these the many genuine saints—men and women of to-day—living in our midst. Our clergy however are free to observe the various commemorations if they prefer to do so.

In regard to commemorations we follow the ordinary custom of the Church. When two festivals concur we use the service of the more important of the two and in addition recite the Collect of the other in order that our people may not overlook it.

Ecclesiastical Colours

The colour of certain of the vestments and of the Altar frontal varies according to the season of the year or festival being observed.

White is the colour of joy and is used on great festivals on those of our Lady of Angels and of Saints who are not martyrs. It synthesizes all the colours.

Red is used on festivals of the Holy Ghost, of apostles and of martyrs. Its influence is that of exultation and glowing power.

Violet is used in Lent and Advent at times of self-examination and preparation at exorcisms and the visitation of the sick and at funerals. Lying at the opposite end of the spectrum to red its influence is cleansing, active, piercing.

The Altar and its Appointments

The Altar, and not the pulpit, is the central feature of the Church, since it is the celebration of the Divine Mysteries, and not preaching, that is of the essence of our worship. At the back of the Altar stands the tabernacle wherein the Blessed Sacrament of Christ's Body is reserved, giving to the Church the unspeakable privilege of His abiding Presence. Six large candles are lighted at the more important services, these with the lamp which burns before the Altar, as a visible token of Christ's perpetual Presence, represent the "seven Spirits before the throne of God" (Revelation 1:4).

The Vestments

The vestments worn by the Priest date from the earliest times of Christianity and are in point of fact, an adaptation in various respects of the prevailing civil dress of that day. They are part of the general scheme by which spiritual power is spread out upon the congregation; they also have their æsthetic value and symbolical significance. It is not without due and careful consideration that they have been retained in the Liberal Catholic Church.

The Collect

ALMIGHTY everliving God we pray Thee to inspire continually Thy universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity and concord, that all they who do confess Thy holy Name may agree in the truth of Thy holy Word and live in unity and godly love through Christ our Lord R Amen

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the twelfth chapter of the First Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians: beginning at the twelfth verse

AS the body is one and hath many members and all the members of that body being many are one body so also is Christ For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body whether we be Jews or Gentiles whether we be bond or free and have been all made to drink into one Spirit For the body is not one member but many and the eye cannot say unto the hand I have no need of thee nor again the head to the feet I have no need of you There should be no schism in the body but the members should have the same care one for another And where one member suffers all the members suffer with it or one member be honoured all the members rejoice with it Now ye are the body of Christ and members in particular

God, and went to God, riseth from supper, and laid aside His garments; and took a towel, and girded Himself. After that He poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith He was girded. So after He had washed their feet, and had taken His garments, and was set down again, He said unto them: Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call Me Master and Lord; and ye say well, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Amen, Amen, I say unto you: The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. Amen, Amen, I say unto you: He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth Me; and he that receiveth Me receiveth Him that sent Me. A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another. .

is taken from the seventh chapter of the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, beginning at the fourteenth verse

THE Lord Himself shall give you a sign Behold a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call His Name Emmanuel And it shall be said The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light, they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death upon them hath the light shined. They joy before Thee according to the joy in harvest and so men rejoice when they divide the spoil. For unto us a Child is born unto us a Son is given and the government shall be upon His shoulder, and His Name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor The Mighty God The Everlasting Father The Prince of Peace Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom to order it and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the second chapter of that according to St Luke beginning at the first verse

IT came to pass in those days that there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. And all went to be enrolled everyone into his own city And Joseph also went up from Galilee out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, into the city of David, which is called Bethlehem (because he was of the house and lineage of David) to be enrolled with Mary his espoused wife being great with child. And so it was that while they were there the days were accomplished that she should be delivered And she brought forth her first born son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come; and let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come, and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. Surely I come quickly. Amen; even so, come, Lord Jesus.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the second chapter of that according to St. Matthew, beginning at the first verse.

WHEN Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa, in the days of Herod the King, behold, there came Wise Men from the East to Jerusalem, saying, Where is He that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East, and are come to worship Him. When Herod the King heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him, and when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa; for thus it is written by the prophet: And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda, for out of thee shall come a governor, that shall rule My people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privily called the Wise Men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem and said: Go and search diligently for the young Child; and when ye have found Him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship Him also. When they had heard the King, they departed, and the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the

For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one: Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come,* and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard these things, He marvelled at him, and turned Him about, and said unto the people that followed Him: I say unto you, I have not found so great faith; no, not in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

Intent: Sincerity and Control of Speech

The Collect

O LORD, Who didst unsparingly rebuke injustice and hypocrisy, we pray that we may be just and true of heart in all our dealings with ourselves and with our brethren, that we may live openly and without guile before Thee, O Thou great, King of Righteousness, to Whom be praise for ever and ever.
R. Amen.

Admonish a friend, it may be he hath not done it, and if he have done it that he do it no more. Admonish thy friend, it may be he hath not said it and if he have, that he speak it not again. Admonish a friend, for many times it is a slander, and believe not every tale. There is one that slippeth in his speech, but not from his heart, and who is he that hath not offended with his tongue? The knowledge of the commandments of the Lord is the doctrine of life, and they that do things that please Him shall receive the fruit of the tree of immortality, for to know Him is perfect righteousness yea, to know His power is the root of immortality.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty third chapter of that according to St Matthew, beginning at the twenty third verse.

WOE unto you, Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law judgment, mercy and faith, these ought ye to have done and not to leave the other undone. Ye blind guides which strain at a gnat and swallow a camel, ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter but within they are full of extortion and excess. Cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter that the outside of them may be clean also. Ye are like unto whited sepulchres which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but within are full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness. Even so ye outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. And He said unto His disciples. Do not ye after their works, for they say and do not. All their works they do for to be seen of men; but whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the sixth chapter of, that of St. Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews beginning at the tenth verse

GOD is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have showed toward His Name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end, that ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Wherefore, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race which is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith. By Him, therefore, let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually the fruit of our lips giving thanks to His name. But, to do good and to communicate forget not for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees, and make straight the paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way but let it be rather healed. Follow peace with all men, and holiness (without which no man shall see the Lord) looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God. Now the God of peace make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to Whom be glory for ever and ever

THE kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country who called his servants and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents to another two and to another one to every man according to his several ability, and straightway took his journey. Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same and made them other five talents. And likewise he that had received two he also gained other two. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them. And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold I have gained beside them five talents more. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold I have gained two other talents beside them. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Then he which had received one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, and I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo there thou hast that is thine. But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou oughtest to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury. Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance; but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

The Collect

O GOD forasmuch as in the changes and chances of this mortal life it must needs be that we meet with many and great temptations, grant that we may be wary to discern and strong to resist them, through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the first chapter of the General Epistle of St James, beginning at the second verse

MY brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations know this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing Blessed is the man that endureth temptation for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord hath promised to them that love Him Let no man say when he is tempted I am tempted of God for God cannot be tempted by evil, neither tempteth He any man but every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Do not err my beloved brethren every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of Lights, with Whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty fourth chapter of that according to St Matthew beginning at the thirty seventh verse

AS the days of Noah were, so shall the coming of the Son of Man be; for as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and knew not until the flood came and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be. But of that day and that hour knoweth no man; no, not the Angels of heaven, but My Father only. Take ye heed, watch and pray, lest ye enter into temptation, for ye know not when the time is. The Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore, lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping. What I say unto you, I say unto all; Watch.

Isaiah: The Gift of Wisdom

only manifold subtle lively clear undefiled, plain, not subject to hurt, loving the thing that is good, quick which cannot be letted, ready to do good kind to man, steadfast sure free from care having all power overseeing all things, and going through all spirits, understanding pure and most subtle. For Wisdom is more moving than any motion she passeth and goeth through all things by reason of her pureness. For she is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the Almighty therefore can no defiled thing flow into her. For she is the brightness of the everlasting light, the unspotted mirror of the power of God, and the image of His goodness. And, being but one, she can do all things remaining in herself she maketh all things new and in all ages entering into holy souls, she maketh them friends of God, and prophets. For, God loveth him that dwelleth with Wisdom. For she is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the order of the stars. Being compared with the light she is found before it. He that loveth her loveth life, and they that seek her early shall be filled with joy. He that holdeth her fast shall inherit glory and wheresoever she entereth the Lord will bless. They that serve her shall minister to the Holy One and them that love her the Lord doth love.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty fifth chapter of that according to St Matthew beginning at the first verse

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried they all slumbered and slept And at midnight there was a cry made He hold the bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps And the foolish said unto the wise Give us of your oil, for our lamps are gone out But the wise answer ed saying Not so lest there be not enough for us and you but go ye rather to them that sell and buy for yourselves And while they went to buy the bridegroom came and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage and the door was shut Afterwards came also the other virgins saying Lord, Lord open to us But he answered and said Amen,

 I say unto you, I know you not Watch therefore for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh.

only manifold subtle lively clear undefiled, plain, not subject to hurt, loving the thing that is good, quick which cannot be letted ready to do good kind to man, steadfast, sure free from care having all power overseeing all things and going through all spirits, understanding pure and most subtle For Wisdom is more moving than any motion she passeth and goeth through all things by reason of her pureness For she is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the Almighty therefore can no defiled thing flow into her For she is the brightness of the everlasting light the unspotted mirror of the power of God, and the image of His goodness And, being but one, she can do all things remaining in herself she maketh all things new and in all ages entering into holy souls she maketh them friends of God and prophets For, God loveth him that dwelleth with Wisdom. For she is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the order of the stars Being compared with the light she is found before it He that loveth her loveth life and they that seek her early shall be filled with joy He that holdeth her fast shall inherit glory and whosoever she entereth, the Lord will bless They that serve her shall minister to the Holy One and them that love her the Lord doth love

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty fifth chapter of that according to St Matthew beginning at the first verse

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept And at midnight there was a cry made Be hold, the bridegroom cometh go ye out to meet him Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps And the foolish said unto the wise Give us of your oil for our lamps are gone out But the wise answered saying Not so lest there be not enough for us and you but go ye rather to them that sell and buy for yourselves And while they went to buy the bridegroom came and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage and the door was shut Afterwards came also the other virgins saying Lord, Lord open to us But he answered and said Amen, I say unto you, I know you not Watch therefore for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh of administrations, by the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit to another faith by the same Spirit to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit to another the working of miracles to another prophecy to another discerning of spirits to another divers kinds of tongues to another the interpretation of tongues but all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as He will.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twelfth chapter of that record, to St. Mark beginning at the twenty-eighth verse.

ONE of the scribes came and asked Jesus 'Which is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him The first of all the commandments is Hear O Israel the Lord our God is one Lord and then shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength this is the first commandment, and the second is like unto it, namely this Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself There is none other commandment greater than these And the scribe said unto Him Well, Master Thou hast said the truth for there is one God, and there is none other but He and to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly He said unto him Thou art not far from the kingdom of God.

Intent The HOLY SPIRIT as the Fire of Love

The Collect

O HOLY Spirit Who hast taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth, pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love the very bond of peace and of all virtues without which who soever liveth is counted dead before Thee Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Son, one God for evermore R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the thirteenth chapter of the first Epistle of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians beginning at the first verse

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of Angels and have not love I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge and though I have all faith so that I could remove mountains, and have not love I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love it profiteth me nothing. Love suffereth long and is kind love envieth not love vaunteth not itself is not puffed up doth not be have itself unseemly seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil rejoiceth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth beareth all things believeth all things hopeth all things endureth all things. Love never faileth but whether there be prophecies they shall fail whether there be tongues, they shall cease whether there be knowledge it shall vanish away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child, but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass, darkly, but then face to face, now I know in part, but then shall I know even as I am known. And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three, but the greatest of these is love.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twentieth chapter of that according to St. Matthew, beginning at the first verse

THE kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour they received every man a penny. But when the first came they supposed that they should have received more, and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, saying, These last have

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the third chapter of the Acts of the Apostles beginning at the nineteenth verse

REPENT ye therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. And He shall send Jesus Christ which before was preached unto you. Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began. For Moses truly said unto the fathers A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me. Him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever He shall say unto you. Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first, God, having raised up His Son Jesus, sent Him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

The holy Gospel is taken from the third chapter of that according to St. John, beginning at the third verse

JESUS said unto Nicodemus Amen, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus said unto Him How can a man be born when he is old? And Jesus answered Amen, Amen, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof but canst not tell whence it cometh and whither it goeth, so is everyone that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus said How can these things be? Jesus answered Amen, Amen, I say unto thee, we speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen, and ye receive not our witness. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man hath ascended up to heaven but He that came down from heaven, even the Son of Man which is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness even so must the Son of Man be lifted up that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have eternal life

O LORD Who for our solace hast appointed divers seasons unto Thy Church, grant us so justly to examine ourselves that discerning clearly our faults, we may truly amend them, and thus prepare our selves fitly to celebrate Thy holy Feast of Easter O risen Lord unto Whom be praise and adoration for evermore R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the fifth chapter of the Second Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians beginning at the ninth verse

WE labour that we may be accepted of Him for we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. The love of Christ constraineth us therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature old things are passed away behold, all things are become new Give no offence in anything in all things approving yourselves by pureness, by knowledge by long suffering by kindness by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left. Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith, prove your own selves. He perfect be of good comfort be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the third chapter of that according to St John beginning at the sixteenth verse

GOD so loved the world that He gave His alone-born Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved. He that believeth on Him is not condemned, but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the alone born Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the third chapter of the Epistle General of St James, beginning at the second verse

IF any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able to bridle the whole body For every kind of beasts and of birds and of serpents and of things in the sea hath been tamed of man kind, but the tongue can no man tame, it is an unruly evil full of deadly poison The tongue is a little member, but it boasteth great things Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire a world of iniquity, so is the tongue among our members that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell Therewith bless we God even the Father, and therewith curse we men, who are made after the similitude of God Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing My brethren, these things ought not so to be If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the sixth chapter of that according to St Luke, beginning at the forty first verse

WHY beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? How canst thou say to thy brother Brother let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite cast out first the beam out of thine own eye and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit For every tree is known by his own fruit for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the third chapter of the First Epistle General of St Peter beginning at the eighth verse

BE ye all of one mind, having compassion one on another love as brethren be pitiful, be courteous not rendering evil for evil, nor railing for railing but contrariwise blessing knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing For he that will love life and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile Let him eschew evil and do good let him seek peace and ensue it. The Gospel

The Holy Gospel is taken from the eighth chapter of that according to St John, beginning at the third verse

THE Pharisees brought unto Jesus a woman who had been unfaithful to her husband, and when they had set her in the midst, they said unto Him Master, this woman was taken in impurity in the very act now Moses in the Law commanded us that such should be stoned, but what sayest Thou ? This they said, tempting Him, that they might have wherewith to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground, as though He heard them not. So when they continued asking Him, He lifted Himself up, and said unto them He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground And they who heard it being convicted by their own conscience went out one by one beginning at the eldest, even unto the last and Jesus was left alone and the woman standing in the midst When Jesus had lifted Himself up and saw none but the woman, He said unto her Woman where ere those thine accusers ? Hath no man condemned thee ? She said No man, Lord And Jesus said unto her Neither do I condemn thee, go and sin no more

The Epistle is taken from the fourth chapter of that of St Paul the Apostle to the Philippians, beginning at the eleventh verse

I HAVE learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound, everywhere and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ Who strengtheneth me Brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just whatsoever things are pure whatsoever things are lovely whatsoever things are of good report if there be any virtue and if there be any praise think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learnt of, and received, and heard and seen in me do, and the God of peace shall be with you. Rejoice in the Lord alway and again I say Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand, and the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus worth of Bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter a brother saith unto Him: There is a lad here which hath five barley loaves and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? Jesus said: Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves and when He had given thanks, He distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto His disciples: Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then Jesus said: When they had seen this miracle which Jesus did, said: This is of a truth that prophet which should come into the world.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the twelfth chapter of that of St. Paul the Apostle to the Romans, beginning at the second verse.

BE not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. For I say to every man that is among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching, or he that exhorteth, on exhortation. He that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, for it is written: Vengeance is Mine, I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; in so doing, thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven but smote upon his breast, saying God be merciful to me a sinner I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other, for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted And they brought unto Him also infants, that He should touch them, but when His disciples saw it, they rebuked them But Jesus called them unto Him and said Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God Amen, I say unto you Who soever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

The Blessing of the Palms

O God, Who gatherest the things that are dispersed, and preservest what is gathered, Thou that didst bless the people, who bearing branches, went out to meet Jesus do Thou also + purify and + bless these boughs of palm which Thy servants faithfully take up in honour of Thy Name, that unto what place soever these branches be brought, the dwellers therein may obtain Thy blessing and, every adversity being chased therefrom, Thy right Hand may protect those whom Thy Son Christ doth watch over and love Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The people are seated.

*The Priest blesses incense and censers the palms thrice
He then turns to the people and says*

Receive a branch of palm, ye who desire to greet the Lord with joy and gladness.

The branches are now distributed to the clergy and the people a branch is fastened to the top of the processional cross The procession forms in the chancel and the Priest sings

The Collect

O LORD Christ, before Whom in Thy one earthly triumph the children of the Hebrews did cast their votive palms, grant unto Thy faithful servants that in Thine own good time we too may bear the palm of victory and may be found worthy to stand in Thy holy Presence Thou Who dwellest ever in the unity of the Father and the Holy Spirit throughout all ages of ages. R. Amen

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the nineteenth chapter of the Revelation of St John the Divine beginning at the first verse

I HEARD a great voice of much people in heaven saying Alleluia salvation and glory and honour and power unto the Lord our God, for true and righteous are His judgments. And again they said Alleluia. And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the Throne, saying Amen, Alleluia and a voice came out of the Throne saying Praise our God, all ye His servants and ye that love Him both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude and as the voice of many waters and as the voice of mighty thunderings saying Alleluia for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth let us be glad and rejoice and give honour to Him. And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True. His eyes were as a flame of fire and on His Head were many crowns and His name is called The Word of God and He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written King of Kings and Lord of Lords life. This is the Bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. I am the living^e Bread which came down from heaven; if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever; and the Bread that I will give is My Flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying: How can this man give us his flesh to eat? Then Jesus said unto them: Amen, Amen, I say unto you, except ye eat the Flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His Blood, ye have no life in you; whose eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For My Flesh is meat indeed, and My Blood is drink indeed. He that eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, dwelleth in Me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father; so he that eateth Me even he shall live by Me. This is that Bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this Bread shall live for ever. •

The First Lesson

The First Lesson is taken from the fifty eighth Chapter of the Book of the Prophet Isaiah beginning at the third verse.

Wherefore have we fasted, men say and Thou seest not? Wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and Thou takest no knowledge? Is it such a fast that I have chosen? saith the Lord. A day for a man to afflict his soul, to bow down his head as a bulrush and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I have chosen—to loose the bands of wickedness to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thine house, and when thou seest the naked that thou cover him? Then shall thy light break forth as the morning and thy health shall spring forth speedily, and thy righteousness shall go before thee, and the glory of the Lord shall be thy reward.

Here endeth the First Lesson.

The Second Lesson

The Second Lesson is taken from the twelfth Chapter of the Gospel according to St John, beginning at the twenty third verse

Jesus said The hour is come that the Son of Man should be glorified Amen, Amen, I say unto you, except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die it abideth alone, but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit He that loveth his life shall lose it, and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. Good Friday

The Altar is covered with a plain linen cloth and violet frontal, but otherwise unadorned. No candles are lighted. If convenient Prime may be sung before the special service of the Day. If that be done the lessons which follow shall be used, as the First and Second Lessons at Prime in place of the Epistle and Gospel.

The First Lesson

Wherefore have we fasted, men say, and Thou seest not? Wherefore have we afflicted our soul and Thou takest no knowledge? Is it such a fast that I have chosen? saith the Lord. A day for a man to afflict his soul, to bow down his head as a bulrush and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Wilt thou call this a fast and an acceptable day to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I have chosen—to loose the bands of wickedness to undo the heavy burdens and to let the oppressed go free and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thine house, and when thou seest the naked

Celebration on Easter Day, or on Saturday Evening if the first Vespers of Easter and Benediction be celebrated

After the evening service the Altars are stripped of flowers, cloths and frontals, the tabernacle door left open, and the cross again veiled in violet

The Office of Blessing the Oils on Maundy Thursday will be found later in this Book

The Priest (or deacon) now places the cross upon the centre of the Altar, and as it is unveiled the people kneel. The officiant, other clergy and ministers approach the Altar from the farther end of the sanctuary or chancel by three stages, at the end of each stage they genuflect. During the first genuflection the following versicle and response are sung*

P Holy art Thou, O God.

C Holy art Thou, O God.

During the second genuflection

P Holy art Thou O Mighty One

C Holy art thou, O Mighty One

During the third genuflection

P Holy art Thou, O Immortal One, pour out Thy love upon us.

C, Holy art Thou, O Immortal One pour out Thy love upon us

This last genuflection having taken place, the following hymn is sung

*These phrases are a translation of the ancient Trisagion ("thrice-holy") of the Greek Liturgy. In the traditional Latin rite these Greek and Latin phrases are sung antiphonally, as follows

Hagios O Theos

Sanctus Deus

Hagios Ischyros.

Sanctus Fortis

Hagios Athanatos eleison homas

• Sanctus Immortalis miserere nobis

Apart from the Agnus eleison, this is the only instance of the use of Greek in the Roman rite. Greek was the original liturgical language at Rome, and Greek and Latin are the two ancient liturgical languages of the Church.

BLESSED be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer or whether we be comforted, that also is for your consolation and salvation. And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the ninth chaple of that according to St Luke beginning at the eighth verse

AND Jesus asked His disciples Whom say the people that I am? They answering said John the Baptist but some say Elias and others say that one of the old prophets is risen again. He said unto them But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said The Christ of God. And He straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell to no man that thing saying The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes and be slain, and be raised the third day. And He said to them all If any man will come after Me let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me. For whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after Me, cannot be My disciple. Likewise whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be My disciple. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it but whosoever will lose his life for My sake the same shall save it.

TAKE up thy cross our Master said,
 If thou would'st My disciple be,
 Deny thyself, the world forsake,
 And humbly follow after Me

Take up thy cross, let not its weight
 Fill thy weak spirit with alarm,
 His strength shall bear thy spirit up
 And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

Take up thy cross nor heed the shame,
 Nor let thy foolish pride rebel,
 Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
 To save thy soul from death's dark spell.

Take up thy cross and follow Christ,
 Nor think till death to lay it down,
 For only he who bears the cross
 May hope to wear the glorious crown.

To Thee, great Lord, the One in Three,
 All praise for evermore ascend
 O grant us in our Home to see
 The heavenly life that knows no end. Amen.

Towards the end of the hymn the candles are lighted on the Altar and lastly the cross is moved back to its accustomed place. A procession is formed and returns with lights and incense to the high Altar the celebrant bearing a ciborium containing a Host consecrated on the previous day. The Host is placed on the corporal wine and water are poured into the chalice, but without the usual prayers. The Priest cense the offerings and the Altar in the usual way. Then, washed his fingers in silence he says:

ORATE FRATRES

C. May the Lord receive the sacrifice at thy hands, and sanctify our lives in His service.

Hē continues.

O Lord, we offer and present unto Thee ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a holy and continual sacrifice unto Thee. May our strength be spent in Thy service and our love poured forth upon Thy people.
R. Amen.

The Priest proceeds immediately to the following prayers:

P. We praise and thank Thee, holy Lord, for the glory of Thy saints, and we (here he makes the sign of the holy cross with the paten from his forehead to his breast) join with them in worship before Thy great white throne, whence flow all love and light and blessing through all the worlds which Thou hast made

TAKE up thy cross our Master said,
If thou wouldst at My disciple be,
Deny thyself, the world forsake,
And humbly follow after Me

Take up thy cross let not its weight
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm,
His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

Take up thy cross nor heed the shame,
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel,
Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
To save thy soul from death's dark spell.

Take up thy cross and follow Christ,
Nor tarry till death to lay it down
May hope to wear the glorious crown.

To Thee great Lord, the One in Three,
All praise for evermore accord,
The heavenly life that knows no end.

pare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto Myself, that where I am there ye may be also. Now, I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass ye might believe. Peace I leave with you. My peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

Here endeth the Second Lesson

THE BLESSING OF THE FIRE

At a convenient time before the service fire is kindled outside the Church. It is desirable that the tinder from which this fire is ignited should be lighted from the sun by means of a lens, but if that be not possible, flint and steel should be used.

The service begins with the Asperges. Then a procession is formed which moves to the door of the Church. The glowing embers are placed in an appropriate vessel, such as an open thurible. The Priest blesses the new fire in this wise.

Let this fire be + purified and + blessed by Him in Whose honour it is kindled.

tinually be made manifest in our lives. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Altar cloth is removed

At evening Complin may be said.

Holy Saturday

The Altar is covered with a plain linen cloth and violet frontal but otherwise unadorned. No candles are yet lighted. The colour is violet.

If convenient Prime may be sung before the special service of the Day. If that be done the lessons which follow shall be used as the First and Second Lessons at Prime in place of the Epistle and Gospel.

The First Lesson is taken from the thirty-seventh Psalm of King David, beginning at the third verse.

Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and be doing good: delight thou in the Lord, and He shall give thee thy heart's desire. Commit thy way unto the Lord, and put thy trust in Him: and He shall bring it to pass. He shall make thy righteousness as clear as the light, and thy just dealing as the noonday. O rest in the Lord, wait patiently for Him: for the meek shall inherit the earth, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

pare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto Myself, that where I am there ye may be also Now, I have told you before it come to pass, that *when it is come to pass ye might believe Peace I leave with you My peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled neither let it be afraid

At a convenient time before the service fire is kindled outside the Church It is desirable that the tinder from which this fire is ignited should be lighted from the sun by means of a lens but if that be not possible, flint and steel should be used

7 The service begins with the Asperges Then a procession is formed which moves to the door of the Church The glowing embers are placed in an appropriate vessel, such as an open thurible The Priest blesses the new fire in this wise

the new fire Otherwise an attendant bears the incense and the Priest takes the candle During the procession four genuflections are made by all who take part therein. At each the deacon raises the triple candle and sings

Deacon Christ is our Light.

C May His Light shine in our hearts

The procession having arrived at the Altar, the deacon says

Cleanse my heart and my lips, O God, Who by the hand of Thy Seraph didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaiah with a burning coal from Thine Altar and in Thy lovingkindness so purify me that I may worthily proclaim Thy holy gospel Through Christ our Lord E. Amen.

The Priest blesses him in the usual manner

May the Lord be in thy + heart and on thy, + lips, that through thy heart the love of God may shine forth, and through thy lips His power be made manifest E. Amen.

D The Lord be with you.

C And with thy spirit.

D In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God All things were made by Him and without Him was not anything made that was made In Him was life, and the life was, the light of men, and the light shineth in darkness and the darkness comprehended it not .

He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name, which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. (All now genuflect) And the Word was made Flesh (all rise again), and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the alone born Son of the Father, full of grace and truth

The Deacon now fixes into the paschal candle the six grains of incense, and the Priest blesses the candle, saying

Let this candle be + purified and + blessed by Him in Whose honour it shall be burned.

The Deacon lights the paschal candle and Altar candles from the triple candle, and also any other lamps of the church, (save that which burns before the Blessed Sacrament)

P. Let us pray

Blessed Lord, may our hearts be so stirred by Thy power during this Easter Festival that, arising from the darkness of sin and ignorance we may shine with the splendour of Thy light, O Thou Who art our Sun of Righteousness R Amen.

The baptism being ended, the Eucharist of the 1re sanctified follows. It begins with four Collects, the first from the ordinary Eucharistic service, the second as given below, the third that of Ash Wednesday, and the fourth the customary Prayer for Peace, after which the Epistle and Gospel are read as usual.

The Collect

LORD CHRIST, Whose Life Thy Church doth lay before us as a perfect ensample for our imitation, grant that we may follow Thee through mystic burial into newness of life, Who livest and reignest in eternal glory R Amen.

The Epistle is taken from the third chapter of the First Epistle General of St Peter, beginning at the fourteenth verse

BUT and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye, and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled, but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, having a good conscience, that whereas they speak evil of you as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. It is better if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing. For Christ also hath once suffered, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit. By which also He went and preached to the spirits in prison, but now is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, Angels and Authorities and Powers being made subject unto Him.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty-seventh chapter of that according to St. Matthew, beginning at the fifty-seventh verse

WHEN the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. Now the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, saying Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command, therefore, that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal commemorated and symbolized, Thou hast given us the sure and certain witness that good shall finally triumph over ill, and that death is but a gateway to the ineffable splendour of eternal life in Thee, O never setting Sun of Righteousness, Who livest and reignest God for ever and ever R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the fifteenth chapter of the First Epistle of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians, beginning at the twelfth verse.

NOW if Christ be preached that He rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen, and if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain. But some man will say How are the dead raised up and with what body do they come? That which thou sowest is not quickened except it die, and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body which shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain. But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased Him, and to every seed his own body. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption. It is sown in dishonour it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. For there is a natural body and there is a spiritual body. So this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? Thanks be to God, Who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

AS it began to dawn towards the first day of the week came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And, behold, there was a great earthquake, for the Angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow, and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. And the Angel said unto the women Fear not ye, for I know that ye seek Jesus Who was crucified. Why seek ye the living amidst the dead? He is not here, He has risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead. And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy, and did run to bring His disciples word. And as they went to tell His disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying All hail. And they came and took Him by the feet, and worshipped Him.

The First Sunday after Easter, or Easter Sunday

O LORD Christ by Whose eternal Sacrifice we exist, and in Whose victory we triumph, grant that, in joy or in sorrow we may never lose our grateful memory of Thine unchanging love Who livest and reignest God throughout all ages R Amen.

Then shall be read the Collect for Easter Day

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the tenth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, beginning at the thirty fourth verse

PETER opened his mouth, and said Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons, but in every nation he that feareth Him, and worketh righteousness is accepted with Him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ (He is Lord of all) that word [I say] ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee after the baptism which John preached how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost, and with power Who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil for God was with Him. And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem Whom they slew and hanged on a tree Him God raised up the third day and showed Him openly not to all the people but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us who did eat and drink with Him after He rose from the dead. And He commanded us to preach unto the people and to testify that it is He Who was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

Here endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty fourth chapter of that according to St Luke beginning at the thirteenth verse

BEHOLD two of His disciples went that same day to a village called Emmaus which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. But their eyes were holden, that they should not know Him. And He said unto them What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another as ye walk, and are sad? And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto Him Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

And He said unto them: What things? And they said unto Him: Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, Who was a prophet mighty in deed and word, before God and all the people; and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and have crucified Him. But we trusted that it had been He which should have redeemed Israel, and, besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done. Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre; and when they found not His body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of Angels, which said that He was alive. And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but Him they saw not. Then He said unto them: O fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken; ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into His glory? And, beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, He expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself. And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went, and He made as though He would have gone further; but they constrained Him, saying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And He went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass, as He sat at meat with them, He took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave it to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him, and He vanished out of their sight. And they said one to another Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us by the way, and while He opened to us the Scriptures? And they rose up the same hour with them, turned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying The Lord is risen indeed and hath appeared to Simon. And they told what things were done in the way, and how He was known of them in breaking of bread.

The Second Sunday after Easter

O LORD Christ the Sun of Righteousness, Who as at holy Eastertide didst rise from the darkness of death to shine with exceeding glory upon Thy people hasten Thou Thy Coming we pray Thee that once more that brightness may rise upon our longing eyes and that all the earth may be filled with Thy glory even as the waters cover the sea, Thou Who dwellest ever in the unity of the Father and the Holy Ghost throughout all ages of ages. R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the fifth chapter of the First Epistle General of St. John beginning at the fourth verse WHATSOEVER is born of God overcometh the world and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is He that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ not by water only but by water and blood and it is the Spirit that beareth witness because the Spirit is truth. For there are Three that bear record in heaven the Father the Word, and the Holy Ghost and these Three are One And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life and this life is in His Son. He that hath the Son hath life and he that hath not the Son hath not life.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twentieth chapter of that according to St. John beginning at the nineteenth verse

THE same day at evening being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came

Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them Peace be unto you. And when He had so said, He showed unto them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again Peace be unto you; as My Father hath sent Me even so send I you. And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and saith unto them Receive ye the Holy Ghost Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them, and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

The Third Sunday after Easter

The Collect

O LORD Christ, as Thou didst at this season rise^o from death into the wondrous power of an endless^a life, so may we by Thy most gracious help rise from the darkness of sin into the ineffable splendour of conscious life in Thee O Light of Light, Who livest and reignest for evermore R. Amen

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the second and third chapters of the Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Colossians, beginning at the sixth verse

AS ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him, rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, and ye are complete in Him Who is the Head of all principality and power, buried with Him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with Him through the faith of the operation of God, Who hath raised Him from the dead. If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above not on things on the earth for ye are dead to earth, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

Here endeth the Epistle

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty fourth chapter of that according to St Luke, beginning at the thirty sixth verse.

JESUS Himself stood in the midst of them and saith unto them Peace be unto you. And He said These are the words which I spake unto you while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms concerning Me. Then opened He their understanding that they might understand the Scriptures, and said unto them Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things

The Fourth Sunday after Easter

The Collect

O CHRIST our Lord and Master grant that as Thou hast risen from the dead, Thy people may rise from ignorance to the firm ground of true knowledge, and thence press onwards towards the mount of heavenly wisdom, where fair peace forever dwells Thou Who livest and reignest throughout the Ages of ages. R. Amen.

THEY that dwell in Jerusalem, though they found no cause of death in Him, yet desired they Pilate that He should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all that was written of Him they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a sepulchre. But God raised Him from the dead, and He was seen many days of them which came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses unto the people. And we declare unto you glad tidings how that the promise which was made unto the fathers God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that He hath raised up Jesus again as it is written in the Psalm, Thou shalt not suffer Thine Holy One to see corruption.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the sixteenth chapter of Mat according to St. Mark beginning at the first verse.

WHEN the Sabbath was past Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint Him. And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. And they said among themselves: Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And when they looked they saw that the stone was rolled away for it was very great. And, entering into the sepulchre they saw a young man sitting on the right side clothed in a long white garment and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them: Be not affrighted: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth Which was crucified. He is risen: He is not here: behold the place where they laid Him. But go your way tell His disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee: there shall ye see Him, as He said unto you.

The Fifth Sunday after Easter

The Collect

LORD Christ, Whose wondrous triumph Thy faithful people year by year do celebrate we pray Thee that as the years roll on we also may triumph over sin, and, following Thy glorious ensample, may rise unto the fullness of our spiritual heritage O Thou Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit God throughout all ages of ages E
Amen

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, beginning at the twenty second verse

YE men of Israel hear these words Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs which God did by Him in the midst of you as ye yourselves also know Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain. Whom God hath raised up having loosed the pains of death because it was not possible that He should be holden of it For David speaketh concerning Him, being a prophet and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his loins He would raise up Christ to sit on his throne he seeing this before spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that His soul was not left in hell neither His flesh did see corruption. This Jesus hath God raised up wherof we all are witnesses

NOW when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven devils. And she went and told them that had been with Him as they mourned and wept. And they, when they heard that He was alive and had been seen of her believed not. After that He appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country. And they went and told it unto the residue neither believed they them. Afterward He appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen Him after He was risen. And He said unto them Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature these things, while they beheld, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as He went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel, which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven.

Here end th the Epistle.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty fourth chapter of that according to St. Luke beginning at the forty ninth verse

BEHOLD I send the promise of My Father upon you but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high. And He led them out as far as to Bethany and He lifted up His hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass while He blessed them He was parted from them and carried up into heaven. And they worshipped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy and were continually in the temple praising and blessing God. Amen.

The same Collect Epistle and Gospel shall serve for nine days after

After the Gospel on Ascension Day when the deacon has censured the celebrant the latter shall reverently extinguish the Paschal Candle saying

The great forty days are over the Lord hath ascended into heaven and so in His Name I extinguish this Paschal Candle, which for forty days has symbolized among us His risen body for a token that its light, leaving this lower world, passes to higher realms so may we in heart and mind thither ascend and with Him continually dwell

WHITSUNDAY

Whitsunday

The Collect

GOD Who as at this time didst teach the hearts of Thy faithful people by the sending to them the light of Thy Holy Spirit, grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort, through the love of Christ our Master, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, throughout all ages of ages R. Amen.

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, beginning at the first verse

WHEN the day of Pentecost was fully come they were all with one accord in one place And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them, and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak with other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews devout men out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad the multitude came together and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and Proselytes Grekes and Arabians we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fourteenth chapter of that according to St. John beginning at the sixteenth verse

JESUS said unto His disciples I will pray the Father and He shall give you another Comforter that He may abide with you for ever even the Spirit of Truth Whom the world cannot receive because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him but ye know Him for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth Me no more but ye see Me because I live ye shall live also The Comforter Which is the Holy Ghost Whom the Father will send in My Name He shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you not as the world giveth give I unto you Let not your heart be troubled neither let it be afraid

Trinity Sunday

The Collect

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who hast given unto us Thy servants by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity we pray Thee that Thou wouldest keep us steadfast in this knowledge and evermore defend us from all error Who livest and reignest, one God, throughout all ages of ages R Amen

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the fourth chapter of the Book of the Revelation of St. John the Divine, beginning at the second verse

IMMEDIATELY I was in the Spirit and behold a throne was set in heaven and One sat on the throne And He that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like unto an emerald And round about the throne were four and twenty seats and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting clothed in white raiment and they had on their heads crowns of gold And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne which are the seven Spirits of God And before the throne there was a sea, of glass like unto crystal and in the midst of the throne and round about the throne were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf and the third beast had a face as a man and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him and they were full of eyes with in and they rest not day and night saying Holy holy holy Lord God Almighty which was and is and is to come And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to Him that sat on the throne, Who liveth for ever and ever the four and twenty elders fall down before Him that sat on the throne and worship Him that liveth for ever and ever and cast their crowns before the throne saying Thou art worthy O Lord to receive glory and honour and power for Thou hast created all things and for Thy pleasure they are and were created

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fourteenth chapter of that according to St. John, beginning at the sixth verse

JESUS said I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father, for I am in the Father, and the Father in Me I and My Father are one, as the Father hath loved Me so have I loved you, and this is My commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you. When the Comforter is come, Whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of Truth, which proceedeth from the Father, He shall testify of Me And ye also shall hear witness, because ye have been with Me from the beginning By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another

Corpus Christi

The Collect

O CHRIST our holy Lord, Who in this wonderful Sacrament of the Altar hast given unto us the grace of Thy perpetual Presence and an abiding memorial of Thy surpassing love, grant us so to receive this Thy most precious gift that our hearts may be pure in Thy sight and our lives ever dedicated to Thy service, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit one God throughout all ages E. Amen

He had given thanks, He brake it and said Take eat, this is My Body, which is broken for you, this do in remembrance of Me After the same manner also He took the cup when He had supped, saying This cup is the new testament in My Blood, this do ye as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me For as often as ye eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, ye do show the Lord's death till He come

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the sixth chapter of that according to St John beginning at the forty seventh verse

AMEN, Amen, I say unto you He that believeth on Me hath everlasting life I am that Bread of life This is the Bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof and not die I am the living Bread which came down from heaven, if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever and the Bread that I will give is My Flesh which I will give for the life of the world The Jews therefore strove among themselves saying How can this man give us his flesh to eat? Then Jesus said unto them Amen Amen, I say unto you Except ye eat the Flesh of the Son of Man and drink His Blood ye have no life in you Whoso eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood hath eternal life and I will raise him up at the last day For My Flesh is meat indeed, and My Blood is drink indeed. He that eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood, dwelleth in Me and I in him As the living Father hath sent Me and I live by the Father so he that eateth Me even he shall live by Me This is that Bread which came down from Heaven not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead, he that eateth of this Bread shall live for ever

*At the chief celebration of the Holy Eucharist the Blessed Sacrament is carried round the Church in procession in the monstrance during the singing of the Adeste Fideles. If this hymn be not long enough it should be supplemented by some other Eucharistic hymn. At the evening services there should be Solemn Benediction and procession of the Sacred Host.*

The same Collect Epistle and Gospel shall serve for the following Sunday and until the Second Sunday after Trinity

The Second Sunday after Trinity

Intent GOD as Light

The Collect

O FATHER of Light, in Whom is no darkness at all may our hearts be so irradiated by the glory of Thy divine Love that we may ever shine as beacons amid the stormy sea of life that through us weary and tempest-driven souls may be guided to the haven where they would be and may rest in the eternal sunlight of Thy holy Presence through Christ our Lord R Amen

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the first chapter of the First Epistle General of St John beginning at the third verse

THAT which we have seen and heard declare we unto you that ye also may have fellowship with us and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. These things write we unto you that your joy may be full. This then is the message which we have heard of Him and declare unto you that God is Light and in Him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with Him and walk in darkness we lie, and do not love.

truth But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another He that saith he is in the light and hateth his brother is in darkness even until now He that loveth his brother abideth in the light and there is none occasion of stumbling in him

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twelfth chapter of that according to St John, beginning at the thirty second verse

I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me Yet a little while is the light with you Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you, for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. He that believeth on Me believeth not on Me only, but on Him that sent Me and he that seeth Me, seeth Him that sent Me I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on Me should not abide in darkness

AND the Angel said unto them Bless God, praise Him and magnify Him, and praise Him for the things which He hath done unto you in the sight of all that live. It is good to praise God and exalt His Name and honourably to show forth the works of God therefore be not slack to praise Him. Do that which is good, and no evil shall touch you. A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold for those that exercise alms and righteousness shall be filled with life, but they that sin are enemies to their own life. God hath sent me to heal thee and thy daughter for I am Raphael one of the seven holy Angels which present the prayers of the saints, and go in and out before the glory of the Holy One.

Then they were troubled and fell upon their faces for they feared. But the Angel said unto them Fear not it shall go well with you. Not of any favour of mine but of the will of our God I came therefore praise Him for ever and give Him thanks, for I go up to Him that sent me.

Then they confessed the great and wonderful works of God and how the Angel of the Lord had appeared unto them and they said Blessed art Thou, O God and blessed is Thy name for ever and blessed are all Thy holy Angels.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The 101st Gospel is taken from the first chapter of that according to St Luke beginning at the eighth verse.

WHILE Zacharias executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course according to the custom of the priest's office his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense And there appeared unto him an Angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him; but the Angel said unto him Fear not, Zacharias; thy prayer is heard, and thou shalt have joy and gladness I am Gabriel, that stand in the Presence of God; and I am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings

The Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Intent GOD as Love

The Collect

O CHRIST, the Lord of Love we lay our hearts upon Thy shrine, praying that Thou wilt accept, purify and enkindle them, so that they may forever glow, with the undying fire of Thine infinite compassion, Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God throughout all ages of ages R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the fourth chapter of the First Epistle General of St John, beginning at the seventh verse

BELOVED let us love one another, for love is of God, and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God He that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is Love Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and His love is perfected in us Hereby know we that we dwell in Him, and He in us, because He hath given us His Spirit God is Love, and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love Him, because He first loved us. If a man say I love God, and hateth his brother he is a liar for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God, Whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from Him, that he who loveth God love his brother also

Here endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fifteenth chapter of that according to St John beginning at the first verse

I AM the true vine and My Father is the Husbandman. I am the Vine ye are the branches. Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself except it abide in the vine no more can ye except ye abide in Me. He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit for without Me ye can do nothing. Herein is My Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit: so shall ye be My disciples. As the Father hath loved Me, so have I loved you: continue ye in My love. If ye keep My commandments, ye shall abide in My love even as I have kept My Father's commandments, and abide in His love. These things have I spoken unto you, that My joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. These things I command you, that ye love one another

The Fifth Sunday after Trinity

Intent GOD as Peace

The Collect

ORANT O Lord, that the course of this world may soon be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance that Thy Church may joyfully serve Thee in all god, ly quietness through Christ our Lord Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost ever One God throughout all ages of ages R Amen

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the fifth chapter of that of St Paul the Apostle to the Galatians beginning at the thirteenth verse

BRETHREN ye have been called unto liberty only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh but by love serve one another For all the law is fulfilled in one word even in this Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself This I say then Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit and the Spirit against the flesh and these are contrary the one to the other so that ye cannot do the things that ye would The fruit of the spirit is love joy peace long suffering gentleness goodness faith meekness temperance, against such there is no law If we live in the Spirit let us also walk in the Spirit

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fourteenth chapter of that according to St John beginning at the eighteenth verse

JESUS said I will not leave you comfortless I will come to you Because I live ye shall live also At that day ye shall know that I am in My Father and ye in Me and I in you He that hath My commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth Me and he that loveth Me shall be loved of My Father and I will love him and will manifest Myself to him If a man love Me he will keep My words and My Father will love him and We will come unto him and make Our abode with him He that keepeth not My sayings loveth Me not Peace

I leave with you, My peace I give unto you not as the world giveth, give I unto you Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

The Sixth Sunday after Trinity

Intent Steadfast Service

The Collect

O GOD Who hast prepared for Thy faithful servants such good things as pass man's understanding may our hearts be so filled with love towards Thee that we loving Thee above all things, may show forth that love in continual service to our brethren, through Christ our Lord. R Amen. e

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the twelfth chapter of the Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Romans beginning at the first verse

I BESEECH you, therefore brethren, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Let love be without dissimulation Abhor that which is evil cleave to that which is good Be kindly affectioned one to another in brotherly love in honour preferring one another not slothful in business fervent in spirit, serving the Lord rejoicing in hope patient in tribulation distributing to the necessity of saints given to hospitality Bless them which persecute you bless and curse not Rejoice with them that do rejoice and weep with them that weep Be of the same mind one towards another Mind not high things but condescend to men of low estate Be not wise in your own conceit Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men Owe no man anything, but to love one another, for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law Love worketh no ill to his neighbour, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twenty fifth chapter of that according to St Matthew, beginning at the thirty first verse

When the Son of Man shall come in His glory, and all the holy Angels with Him, then shall He sit upon the throne of His glory Before Him shall be gathered all nations and He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats, and He shall set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left Then shall the King say unto them on His right hand Come ye blessed of My Father inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world For I was an hungred and ye gave Me meat I was thirsty and ye gave Me drink, I was a stranger, and ye took Me in, naked and ye clothed Me, I was sick, and ye visited Me, I was in prison, and ye came unto Me Then shall the righteous answer Him saying Lord, when saw we Thee an hungred, and fed Thee? or thirsty and gave Thee drink? When saw we Thee a stranger and took Thee in? Or naked, and clothed Thee? Or when saw we Thee sick or in prison, and came unto Thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them Amen, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me Then shall He say also unto them on the left hand Depart from Me For I was an hungred and ye gave Me no meat I was thirsty, and ye gave Me no drink, I was a stranger, and ye took Me not in, naked, and ye clothed Me not, sick, and in prison, and ye visited Me not. Then shall they also answer Him saying Lord, when saw we Thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger or naked, or sick or in prison, and did not minister unto Thee? Then shall He answer them, saying Amen, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these ye did it not to Me.

The Seventh Sunday after Trinity

Intent Purity a day of devotion to the Holy Spirit

The Collect

O SPIRIT of all perfect Purity before Whose light an Angel veils his face we Thy humble servants, sin stained and weary though we be, do now most earnestly desire to keep our hearts unspotted from the world To reach this purity we ask for strength from Thee Who with the Father and the Son livest and reignest one God throughout all ages of ages. R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the second chapter of the First Epistle General of St John, beginning at the fifteenth verse

LOVE not the world, neither the things that are in the world for all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life is not of the Father but is of the world. And the world passeth away and the lust thereof but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever Let that therefore abide in you which ye have heard from the beginning for this is the promise that He hath promised us, even eternal life Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet ap.

pear what we shall be, but we know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him for we shall see Him as He is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the seventeenth chapter of that according to St John, beginning at the eleventh verse

AND Jesus said Holy Father, keep through Thine own Name those whom Thou hast given Me that they may be one, as We are. I pray not that Thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through Thy truth, Thy word is truth. Neither pray I for these alone but for them also which shall believe on Me through their word that they all may be one, as Thou Father, art in Me and I in Thee that they also may be one in Us. The glory which Thou gavest Me I have given them, that they may be one, even as We are one. I in them and Thou in Me that they may be made perfect in one and that the world may know that Thou hast loved them, as Thou hast loved Me. Father I will that they also, whom Thou hast given Me be with Me where I am. I have declared unto them Thy Name that the love wherewith Thou hast loved Me may be in them and I in them.

The Eighth Sunday after Trinity

f. Intent Wisdom

The Collect

O GOD Who art the Wisdom of the wise and the Strength of the strong Whoso Beauty shines through the whole universe, may we so open our hearts to the Spirit of wisdom and understanding that we may ever be strong in Thee our Rock of Ages and may show forth in our lives the beauty of holiness, through Christ our Lord. R. Amen. c

The Epistle is taken from the third chapter of the General Epistle of St James beginning at the thirteenth verse

WHO is a wise man, and endued with knowledge among you? Let him show out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts glory not, and lie not against the truth. Such wisdom descendeth not from above but is earthly sensual, devilish. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure then peaceable gentle and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits without partiality and without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the second chapter of that according to St Luke beginning at the fortieth verse

THE child Jesus grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom and the grace of God was upon Him. Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast. And when they had fulfilled the days as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem and Joseph and His mother knew not of it. But they supposing Him to have been in the company went a day's journey and they, sought Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance And when they found Him not they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking Him And it came to pass, that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors both hearing them and asking them questions And all that heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers And when they saw Him they were amazed and His mother said unto Him Son, why hast Thou thus dealt with us? Behold, Thy father and I have sought Thee sorrowing And He said unto them, How is it that ye sought Me? Wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? And they understood not the saying which He spake unto them But His mother kept all these sayings in her heart And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favour with God and man.

The Ninth Sunday After Trinity

Intent Confidence

The Collect

*O LORD, Who never failest to help and govern them whom Thou dost bring up in Thy steadfast joy and love, may we abide for ever under the protection of Thy good providence and be filled with perpetual reverence and love for Thy holy Name through Christ our Lord R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the second chapter of that of St Paul the Apostle to the Philippians, beginning at the second verse

FULFIL ye my joy, be ye likeminded having the same love being of one accord, of one mind Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory, but in lowliness of heart let each esteem other better than himself Look not every man on his 'own things, but every man also on the things of others Let this mind be in you, which was 'also in Christ Jesus, Who, being in the form of God, made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men, and became obedient unto death. Wherefore God hath highly exalted Him and given Him a Name which is above every name that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things in earth, and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twelfth chapter of that according to St John, beginning at the twenty third verse

JESUS said The hour is come that the Son of Man should be glorified. Amen, Amen, I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die it shideth alone, but if it die it bringeth forth much frutt He that loveth his life shall lose it, and he that careth not for his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve Me, let him follow Me and where I am there shall also My servant be Father glorify Thy Name Then came there a voice from heaven saying I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.

The Tenth Sunday after Trinity

Intent Doration

The Collect

LORD and Master we Thy servants continually do worship Thee with heartfelt praise and thanks giving, may our fervent adoration rise ever before,

Thee like incense, until the light of our love becomes one with Thine infinite Light, Thou Who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, One God throughout all ages of ages R Amen.

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the fifteenth chapter of the Revelation of St John the Divine, beginning at the second verse

I SAW as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire, and they that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying Great and marvellous are Thy Works, Lord God Almighty, just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of saints Thou only art holy, for all nations shall come and worship before Thee, for Thy judgments are made manifest Amen, blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever Amen

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fourth chapter of that according to St John, beginning at the nineteenth verse

THE woman of Samaria saith unto Him Sir I perceive that Thou art a prophet Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and ye say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship Jesus said unto her Believe Me, the hour cometh when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father Ye worship ye know not what, we know what we worship But the hour cometh, and now is when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth, for the Father seeketh such to worship Him. God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth. The woman saith unto Him I know that Messias cometh, which is called the Christ, when He is come He will tell us all things Jesus said unto her I that speak unto thee am He

The Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

Intent Discernment

The Collect

O GOD, Whose never failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth, grant that we may unfold within ourselves such discernment, that we may avoid those things that be hurtful to the soul, and seek only those things that give us strength to serve Thee better, through Christ our Lord. R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the second chapter of the First Epistle of St. Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians, beginning at the sixth verse

WE speak wisdom among them that are perfect yet not the wisdom of this world. But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the world unto our glory Eye hath not seen nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him But God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit for the Spirit searcheth all things yea, the deep things of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually dis cerned. But he that is spiritual discerneth all things yet he himself is discerned of no man.

*Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the twelfth chapter of that according to St. Luke beginning at the fifty fourth verse.

JESUS said unto the people: When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say: There cometh a shower; and so it is. And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say: There will be heat; and it cometh to pass. Ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time? Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? Seek not ye what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink, for all these things do the nations of the world seek after. Rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

The Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

Intent Self Denial

The Collect

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, grant that we may ever increase in faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may quickly attain that for which Thou hast destined us: may we love the path which Thou hast ordained, through Christ our holy Lord. R. Amen.

WE then that are strong ought to bear^c the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let everyone of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased not Himself. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus that ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

Here endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fifth chapter of that according to St. Matthew beginning at the seven teenth verse

THINK not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets I am not come to destroy but to fulfil. Amen, I say unto you Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven but whosoever shall do and teach them the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it hath been said Thou shalt love thy neighbour and hate thine enemy But I say unto you Love your enemies bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them^c that despitefully use you and persecute you that ye may be the children of your Father Which is in heaven. For He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

The Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

Intent Good works

The Collect

GRANT us O Lord, to hold fast within our hearts Thy love which doth always prevent and follow us that so loving Thee above all things we may continually be given to all good works through Christ our Lord R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the fourth chapter of that of St Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians beginning at the first verse

I THEREFORE the prisoner of the Lord beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness with longsuffering forbearing one another in love endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace There is one body and one Spirit even as ye are called in one hope of your calling one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, Who is above all, and through all and in you all

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the seventh chapter of that according to St Matthew beginning at the sixteenth verse

YE shall know them by their fruits Do men gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto Me Lord, Lord shall enter into the kingdom of heaven but he that doeth the will of My Father Which is in heaven. Many will say to Me, Lord Lord have we not prophesied in Thy Name? and in Thy Name have cast out devils? and in Thy Name done many wonderful works? Then will I profess unto them I never knew you depart from Me ye that work iniquity Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of Mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house and it fell not for it was founded upon a rock But everyone that heareth these sayings of Mine and doeth them not shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the sand, and the rain descended, and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that house and it fell and great was the fall of it

The Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

The Collect

O GOD Who in Thy lovingkindness hast appointed for us a ministry of reconciliation, that by it our feet may be restored to the path wherein we should walk grant us that firmly resisting all temptation, we may follow that path unto its glorious end in Thee through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the first chapter of the First Epistle General of St John beginning at the first verse

THAT which was from the beginning which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of Life (for the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us); that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us, and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. These things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. This then is the message which we have heard of Him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the ninth chapter of that according to St Matthew, beginning at the second verse

* THEY brought to Him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed, and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee. But certain of the scribes said within themselves This man blasphemeth. And Jesus knowing their thoughts, said Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier, to say Thy sins be forgiven thee or to say Arise and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins (then saith He to the sick of the palsy) Arise, take up thy bed, and go into thy house. And he rose and departed to his house. And when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven but he that doeth the will of My Father Which is in heaven Many will say to Me, Lord Lord have we not prophesied in Thy Name? and in Thy Name have cast out devils? and in Thy Name done many wonderful works? Then will I profess unto them I never knew you depart from Me ye that work iniquity Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of Mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock But everyone that heareth these sayings of Mine and doeth them not shall be likened unto a foolish man which built his house upon the sand, and the rain descended, and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that house and it fell and great was the fall of it

The Collect

O GOD Who in Thy lovingkindness hast appointed for us a ministry of reconciliation, that by it our feet may be restored to the path wherein we should walk grant us that, firmly resisting all temptation, we may follow that path unto its glorious end in Thee through Christ our Lord. R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the first chapter of the First Epistle General of St. John beginning at the first verse.

THAT which was from the beginning which we have heard which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of Life (for the Life was manifested and we have seen it and bear witness, and show unto you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested unto us) that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you that ye also may have fellowship with us and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. These things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. This then is the message which we have heard of Him and declare unto you that God is Light and in Him is no darkness at all.

Intent The Reality of Things Eternal * a day of devotion to the Holy Spirit *

The Collect

O HOLY Spirit, the Comforter of all that trust in Thee without Whom nothing is strong nothing is holy, increase and multiply within us Thy heavenly wisdom that, Thou being our Ruler and Guide, we may so pass through things temporal as never to lose sight of the things eternal, and may ever live in the service of Christ our holy Lord, Who with Thee and the Almighty Father liveth and reigneth One God for evermore E. Amen.

him What is written in the law? How readest thou? And he answering said Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind and thy neighbour as thyself Jesus said unto him Thou hast answered right this do and thou shalt live But he willing to justify himself said unto Jesus And who is my neighbour? And Jesus answering said A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves which stripped him of his raiment and wounded him and departed, leaving him half dead And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side Like wise a Levite, when he was at the place came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was when he saw him he had compassion on him and went to him and bound up his wounds pouring in oil and wine and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence and gave them to the host and said unto him Take care of him and whatever thou spendest more when I come again I will repay thee Which now of these three thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And the lawyer said He that showed mercy on him Then said Jesus unto him Go and do thou likewise

Intent Justice

The Collect

O GOD in Whom is no variableness neither shadow of turning we lean upon Thy justice as upon a pillar of Thy throne we thank and bless Thee for Thy holy Law that changeth not, and pray for wisdom that under it we may live according to Thy will, Who livest and reignest Father Son and Spirit, one God for evermore R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the sixth chapter of the Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Galatians beginning at the fourth verse

LET every man prove his own work, for every man shall bear his own burden. Be not deceived God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. He that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption but he that soweth to the spirit shall of the spirit reap life everlasting. Let us not be weary in well-doing for in due season we shall reap if we faint not. As we have opportunity let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. As many as walk according to this rule peace be on them and mercy and upon the Israel of God.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fifth chapter of that according to St John beginning at the twenty fifth verse

AMEN Amen, I say unto you, the hour is coming and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in Himself so hath He given to the Son to have life in Himself and hath given Him authority to execute judgment also because He is the Son of Man. Marvel not at this for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice and shall come forth they that have done good unto the resurrection of life and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of condemnation. As I hear I judge, and My judgment is just for the

The Collect

ALMIGHTY God and loving Father of Whose only gift it cometh that Thy faithful people do unto Thee true and laudable service grant we pray Thee that we may so loyally serve Thee in this life that we may be numbered among Thy leal and trusty soldiers in all lives to come through Christ our Lord R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the sixth chapter of the First Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to Timothy beginning at the sixth verse

GODLINESS with contentment is great gain for we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain that we can carry nothing out so having food and raiment let us be therewith content For they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare and into many foolish and hurtful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition For the love of money is the root of all evil, which some having coveted, they have erred from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows But thou, O man of God, flee these things and follow after righteousness godliness faith love patience meekness Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called. I give thee charge in the sight of God, that thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ Who is the blessed and only Potentate King of Kings and Lord of Lords to Whom be honour and power everlasting

Here endeth the Epistle

UNTO every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ till we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine but speaking the truth in love may grow up into Him in all things which is the head even Christ from Whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth according to the effectual working in the measure of every part maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love Wherefore putting away lying speak every man truth with his neighbour, for we are members one of another

Inter: Trust and Tolerance

The Collect

O GOD, Who meetest every man upon that path by which he draweth nigh unto Thee, grant us such a measure of Thy wisdom that by our love and gentleness the wandering sheep be guided to Thy fold, through Christ our holy Lord. R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the ninth chapter of the First Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians, beginning at the nineteenth verse

THOUGH I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. Unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews, to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law to them that are without law, as without law (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ), that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak, I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. And this I do for the gospel's sake that I might be partaker thereof with you. Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but see receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly, so fight I, not as one that beateth the air. But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection, lest that by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Intent Serenity

GIVING all diligence add to your faith virtue and to virtue knowledge and to knowledge temperance and to temperance patience and to patience godliness and to godliness brotherly kindness and to brotherly kindness charity For if these things be in you and abound they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing that one day is with the Lord as is a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day What manner of persons then ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God? Therefore beloved, beware lest, being led away with the error of the wicked, ye fall from your own steadfastness But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to Whom be glory now and for ever

The Collect

LORD of all power and might, Who art the author and giver of all good things, may our hearts be so filled with gratitude to Thee that we may continually increase in true religion, and from Thine omnipotence may we draw strength to persevere, through Christ our Lord R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the sixth chapter of the Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians, beginning at the tenth verse

. MY brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might Put on the whole armour of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the adversary For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities against powers against the rulers of the darkness of this world against spiritual wickedness in high places Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand Stand therefore having your loins girt about with truth and having on the breastplate of righteousness, and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace above all, taking the shield of faith wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God watching thereunto with all

128 TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

WHEN Jesus had called unto Him His twelve disciples He gave them power over unclean spirits to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. And He said unto them Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. The disciple is not above his Master nor the servant above his lord. He that receiveth you receiveth Me and he that receiveth Me receiveth Him that sent Me. Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple Amen I say unto you he shall by no means lose his reward. He that loveth father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me and he that loveth son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he that taketh not his cross and followeth after Me is not worthy of Me. He that endureth his life shall lose it and he that loseth his life for My sake shall end it. But he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

The Collect

ALMIGHTY God, the fountain of all wisdom, we pray Thee that the words which we hear this day with our outward ears may through Thy grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living to the honour and praise of Thy Name through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the first chapter of the General Epistle of St James beginning at the ninth verse

MY beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear slow to speak, slow to wrath for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only deceiving your own selves. For if any man be a hearer of the word, and not a doer he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass for he beholdeth himself and goeth his way and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whose looketh into the perfect law of liberty and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work this man shall be blessed in his deed. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the sixth chapter of that according to St John beginning at the twenty eighth verse

THEN said they unto Jesus What shall we do that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them This is the work of God that ye believe on Him Whom He hath sent For the Bread of God is He Which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. Then said they unto Him Lord, evermore give us this bread And Jesus said unto them I am the Bread of Life, he that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me, and him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out. For this is the Father's will which hath sent Me that of all which He hath given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day It is the spirit that quickeneth, the flesh profiteth nothing, the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the seventh chapter of the Book of the Prophet Daniel, beginning at the ninth verse

DANIEL said I saw in my vision by night, and the Ancient of Days did sit, Whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool, His throne was like the fiery flame and His wheels as burning fire A fiery stream issued and came forth from before Him, thousand thousands ministered unto Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him And behold, one like the Son of Man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of Days and they brought Him near before Him And there was given Him dominion and glory and a kingdom that all people, nations and languages should serve Him, His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed The saints of the most High also shall take the kingdom, and possess it for ever and ever And at that time shall Michael stand up the great Prince which standeth for the children of Thy people, and they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament but they that turn many to right counsel as the stars for ever and ever and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground and sprang up and bare fruit an hundredfold. He that hath ears to hear let him hear. And His disciples asked Him What might this parable be? And He said Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God but to others in parables that seeing they might not see and hearing they might not understand. The parable is this The seed is the word of God. Those by the wayside are they that hear then cometh the adversary and taketh away the word out of their hearts lest they should understand and be saved. They on the rock are they who when they hear receive the word with joy but these have no root which for a while believe and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they which when they have heard, go forth and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they which in an honest and good heart having heard the word, keep it and bring forth fruit with patience.

O LORD Christ, Who upon Mount Tabor didst show Thyself in Thy true glory unto Thy disciples grant that we Thy humble servants may also in due time ascend the holy mountain, and be transfigured into Thy likeness, O Thou great King of Glory to Whom be praise and adoration for evermore. R. Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the first chapter of the Second Epistle General of St Peter beginning at the sixteenth verse

We have not followed cunningly devised fables when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of His majesty For He received from God the Father honour and glory when there came such a voice to Him from the excellent glory This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with Him in the holy mount. We have also a more sure word of prophecy whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts.

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the third chapter of the Book of the Wisdom of Solomon, beginning at the first verse

THE souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die and their departure is taken for misery and their going from us to be utter destruction but they are in peace For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their hope full of immortality And having been a little chastised, they shall be greatly rewarded for God proved them, and found them worthy for Himself As gold in the furnace hath He tried them, and received them as a burnt offering They shall judge the nations and have dominion over the people and their Lord shall reign for ever They that put their trust in Him shall understand the truth, and such as be faithful in love shall abide with Him for grace and mercy is to His saints and He hath care for His elect

Empire Day

The Collect

We thank Thee, O most mighty Lord, for this great Empire which Thy hands have builded, may we who love it labour to uphold its honour by nobility of life, each seeking not advantage for himself, but working with true heart and fervent zeal to aid the common good, that peace and brotherhood may reign throughout the world, through Christ our Holy Lord R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the twelfth chapter of the First Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians, beginning at the twelfth verse

As the body is one and hath many members, and all the members of that body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ For by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles whether we be bond or free, and have been all made to drink into one Spirit For the body is not one member, but many, and the eye cannot say unto the hand I have no need of thee, nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you There should be no schism in the body, but the members should have the same care one for another And where one member suffers, all the members suffer with it, or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it Now ye are the body of Christ and members in particular

phets, which have been since the world began that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hands of all that hate us to perform the mercy promised to our forefathers and to remember His holy Covenant to perform the oath which He swore to our forefather Abraham, that He would give us that we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve Him without fear in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest, for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways to give knowledge of salvation unto His people for the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace

St. Alban's Day

The Collect

WE praise Thee O Lord, for the example and assistance given to us by Thy holy Martyr St. Alban and we pray Thee ever to bless with Thy love and protection the land in which he was the first to die for Christ's sake through the same Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

In countries where the Liberal Catholic Church has adopted St. Alban as its patron the following Collect shall be substituted for the foregoing

We praise Thee O Lord for the example and assistance given to us by Thy holy Martyr St. Alban, the Patron of our Church and we pray Thee that under his protection Thy Church in this land may continually serve Thee in all good works, through Christ our Lord. R. Amen

The Epistle and Gospel shall be the same as those appointed for the Feast of St. George

St. John Baptist's Day

The Collect

O CHRIST our Lord, Who as at this time sentest forth Thy servant John the Baptist to prepare Thy way before Thee, accept us now we pray Thee an worthy though we be as heralds of Thy glorious Coming that by devotion, steadfastness and gentleness we too may win men's hearts to Thee Whom we confess as Lord and Master now and evermore R Amen

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the fortieth chapter of the Book of the Prophet Isaiah beginning at the third verse

*THE voice of him that crieth in the wilderness Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God Every valley shall be exalted and every mountain and hill shall be made low and the crooked shall be made straight and the rough places plain And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. The grass withereth the flower fadeth but the word of our God shall stand for ever Behold the Lord God will come with strong hand, and His arm shall rule for Him behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him He shall feed His flock like a shepherd, He shall gather the lambs with His arm and carry them in His bosom and shall gently lead those that are with young a mighty salvation for us in the house of 'His servant David' as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hands of all that hate us to perform the mercy promised to our forefathers, and to remember His holy covenant that we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve Him without fear in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our life. And thou, child shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest, for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways to give knowledge of salvation unto His people for the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day spring from on high hath visited us to give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

St Peter and the Holy Apostles.

The Collect

WE thank Thee Lord, for the teaching and example of Thy holy Apostles and we pray that those to whom their wondrous power has descended may ever be filled with Thy wisdom and Thy love, that under their firm guidance Thy holy Church may ever joyfully serve the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, One God for evermore. R. Amen.

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the twelfth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles beginning at the fifth verse.

PETER therefore was kept in prison but prayer was made without ceasing of the Church unto God for him. The same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And behold, the Angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison, and he smote Peter on the side and raised him up saying Arise up quickly And his chains fell off from his hands And the Angel said unto him Gird thyself and bind on thy sandals, and so he did And he saith unto him Cast thy garment about thee and follow me And he went out and followed him and wist not that it was true which was done by the Angel, but thought he saw a vision When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city which opened to them of his own accord and they went out and passed on through one street and forthwith the Angel departed from him And when Peter was come to himself he said Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent His Angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews

The holy Gospel is taken from the sixteenth chapter of that according to St Matthew beginning at the thirteenth^a verse

WHEN Jesus came into the coasts of Casarea Philippi, He asked His disciples saying Whom do men say that I, the son of Man, am? And they said Some say that Thou art John the Baptist some Elias and others Jeremias or one of the prophets He saith unto them But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said Thou art Christ the Son of the living God And Jesus answered and said unto him Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona, for^b flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee but My Father Which is in heaven And I say also unto thee that thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build My Church and the gates of hell shall not prevaill against it And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

The Assumption of Our Lady

The Collect

O LORD Christ Who for her wondrous humility and purity hast exalted the holy Lady Mary among the hosts of heaven grant that we Thy people may so follow that her most noble example that we may at the latter end be found worthy to serve Thee even as do Thy holy Angels Thou Who livest and reignest in glory for evermore R Amen.

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the ninth chapter of the Book of the Wisdom of Solomon beginning at the first verse

O GOD of my fathers Who hast made all things with Thy word, give me wisdom, that sitteth by Thy throne and reject me not from among Thy children. For though a man be never so perfect among the children of men, yet if Thy wisdom be not with him he shall be nothing regarded. For wisdom was with Thee which knoweth Thy works and was present when Thou madest the world and knew what was acceptable in Thy sight and right in Thy commandments. O send her out of Thy holy heavens, and from the throne of Thy glory that being present she may labour with me that I may know what is pleasing unto Thee. For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall lead me soberly in my doings and preserve me in her power so shall my works be acceptable. For who can think what the will of the Lord is, and Thy counsel who hath known, except Thou give wisdom and send Thy Holy Spirit from above? So the ways of them which lived on the earth were reformed, and men were taught the things that are pleasing unto Thee and were saved through wisdom.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the first chapter of that according to St Luke beginning at the twenty sixth verse

AND in the sixth month the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph of the house of David and the Virgin's name was Mary And the Angel came in unto her and said Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee blessed art thou among women And when she saw him she was troubled at his saying and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be And the Angel said unto her Fear not Mary for thou hast found favour with God And behold, thou shalt bring forth a Son, and shalt call His name Jesus He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest and the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His father David And He shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever and of His kingdom there shall be no end The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God And Mary said Behold the handmaid of the Lord And he said unto her according to thy word.

The same Collect Epistle and Gospel as last service for seven days after

The Nativity of Our LadyThe Collect

WE thank Thee O God, for that most sweet and laudable pattern set before us by the holy Lady Mary mother of Jesus whom Thy holy Church hath ever held up unto her people as a bright ensample of purity and godly life and we pray that on this the Festival of her Nativity there may shine forth within us the light of ever-growing purity and holiness, through Christ our Lord. E. Amen.

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the eighth chapter of the Book of the Wisdom of Solomon, beginning at the first verse.

WISDOM reacheth from one end of the world to the other; mightily and sweetly doth she order all things. In that she is conversant with God, she hath magnified her nobility; yea, the Lord of all things Himself loved her. For she is privy to the mysteries of the knowledge of God, and a lover of His works. If riches be a possession to be desired in this life, what is richer than wisdom, that worketh all things? And if prudence work, who of all that are is a more cunning worker than she? If a man love righteousness, her labours are virtues; for she teacheth temperance and prudence, justice and fortitude, than which men can have nothing more profitable in their life. By means of her I shall obtain immortality, for she is the mother of fair love, and of patience and perseverance, and of holy hope. Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour, and shalt put her about thee as a crown of joy.

Here endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the first chapter of that according to St. Luke, beginning at the thirty-ninth verse.

MARY arose in those days, and went into the hill country, into a city of Juda, and entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth. And it came to pass that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, she was filled with the Holy Ghost, and she spake out with a loud voice and said Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Whence is this to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For lo! as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears the babe leaped in my womb for joy Blessed is she that believeth for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord And Mary said My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour For He hath regarded the lowliness of His handmaiden for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed For He that is mighty hath magnified me and holy is His Name

• St Michael and all Angels

The Collect *

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God with all our hearts we praise Thee for the great glory of Thy most holy Angels we thank Thee for their wonderful wisdom their supreme strength, their radiant beauty and as their resistless power is used always and utterly in Thy service so may we following zealously their resplendent example devote ourselves wholly to the helping of our brethren, through Christ our Lord R Amen.

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the seventh and eighth chapters of the Revelation of St John the Divine

I SAW the seven Angels which stood before God and to them were given seven trumpets And another Angel came and stood at the Altar having a golden censer and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden Altar which was brought be fore the throne And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints ascended up before God out of the Angel's hand.

And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying Amen, blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever Amen.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the eighteenth chapter of that according to St Matthew, beginning at the first verse

THEN came the disciples unto Jesus, saying Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child unto Him, and set him in the midst of them, and said Amen, I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in My Name receiveth Me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me it were better for him that a millstone were banged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences, for it must needs be that offences come but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones for I say unto you, that in heaven their Angels do always behold the face of My Father which is in heaven.

The same Collect Epistle and Gospel shall serve for six days after but on the seventh day that of the Third Sunday after Trinity shall be used.

All Saints' Day

The Collect

O ALMIGHTY God, Who hast knit together Thy servants in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of Thy Son, Christ our Lord may we so follow Thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to the unspeakable joys which Thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love Thee through Christ our Lord. R Amen

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the seventh chapter of the Revelation of St John the Divine beginning at the ninth verse

I BEHELD and lo a great multitude which no man could number of all nations and kindreds and people and tongues stood before the throne and before the Lamb clothed with white robes and palms in their hands and cried with a loud voice saying Salvation to our God Which sitteth upon the throne and unto the Lamb And all the Angels stood round about the throne and about the elders and the four beasts and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God saying Amen Blessing and glory and wisdom, and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be unto our God for ever and ever Amen And one of the elders said unto me what are these which are arrayed in white robes and whence came they? These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His Temple and He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them They shall hunger no more neither thirst any more neither shall the sun light on them nor any heat For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Gospel

The 101st Gospel is taken from the twenty fifth chapter of that according to St. Matthew, beginning at the thirty fourth verse

THEN shall the King say unto them on His right hand Come ye blessed of My Father inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was an hungred, and ye gave Me meat I was thirsty and ye gave Me drink, I was a stranger and ye took Me in, naked and ye clothed Me I was sick and ye visited Me I was in prison and ye came unto Me Then shall the righteous answer Him saying Lord, when saw we Thee an hungred, and fed Thee or thirsty and gave Thee drink? When saw we Thee a stranger and took Thee in, or naked and clothed Thee? Or when saw we Thee sick or in prison, and came unto Thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them Amen, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me

The same Collect Epistle and Gospel shall serve for seven days after except on the Holy Day of All Souls when the Collect alone shall be said after that of the Day

All Souls' Day

The Collect

O LORD Christ, Who hast dominion over the living and the dead, and dost hold all Thy people in the everlasting arms of Thy love we thank Thee for the joyous rest which Thou dost give to those who pass through the gateway of death to a fuller life with Thee and we pray Thee that as Thou didst preach to the spirits in prison, so may our earnest efforts avail to bring refreshment, light and peace to those who know Thee not as yet O Lord of the Living Spirit • Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost reignest one God for evermore R Amen.

The Epistle

The Epistle is taken from the fourth chapter of the First Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Thessal onians, beginning at the thirteenth verse

I WOULD not have you to be ignorant brethren, concerning them which are asleep that ye sorrow not even as others which have no hope For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words *

Armistice Day

The Collect

O Almighty God, the Sovereign Commander of all the world, in Whose hand are power and might which none is able to withstand we bless and magnify Thy glorious Name for the great peace and victory which Thou didst give us on this most happy day and we pray for wisdom to use the power entrusted to us to Thy glory to the honour of our King and country and to the benefit of all mankind through Christ our Holy Lord. R Amen.

The Epistle

The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle is taken from the twenty second chapter of the second book of the Prophet Samuel beginning at the second verse

The Lord is my rock my fortress and my deliverer the God of my rock in Him will I trust He is my shield my high tower and my refuge In my distress I called upon the Lord He delivered me from my strong enemy and from them that hated me The Lord was my stay and He brought me forth also into a large place Thou art my lamp O Lord the Lord will lighten my darkness His way is perfect the word of the Lord is tried He is a buckler to all that trust in Him He is my strength and my power Thou O Lord hast given me the shield of Thy salvation and Thy gentleness hath made me great Thou hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me Thou hast delivered me from the violent man for the Lord wrought a great victory that day

Here endeth the Epistle

Jesus said The hour is come that the Son of Man should be glorified. Amen Amen, I say unto you Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die it abideth alone, but if it die it bringeth forth much fruit He that loveth his life shall lose it, and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve Me let him follow Me and where I am, there shall also My servant be And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Me.

St. Andrew's Day

The Collect

WE praise Thee O Lord, for the example and assistance given to us by Thy holy Martyr St. Andrew and we pray Thee ever to bless with Thy love and protection the land of which he is the Patron through Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost throughout all ages of ages R Amen

The Epistle and Gospel shall be same as those appointed for the Feast of St. George

The Gospel

The holy Gospel is taken from the fifth chapter of that according to St. Matthew, beginning at the second verse.

JESUS taught His disciples, saying. Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for My sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad for great is your reward in heaven for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

CREEDS AND ACTS OF FAITH

The Nicæno Constantinopolitan Creed

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty Maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the alone born Son of God, begotten of His Father before all ages God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God begotten, not made being of one Substance with the Father by Whom all things were made Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven (Here all genuflect in reverence for the mystery of the incarnation) and was incarnate of the Holy Ghost and the Virgin Mary and was made man. (All rise again) And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate He suffered, and was buried And the third day He rose again according to the Scripture and ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of the Father And He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead Whose Kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, the Giver of Life Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets And we believe one holy catholic and apostolic Church We acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins And we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come Amen

*The Original Nicene Creed

We believe in one God the Father Almighty Maker of all things both visible and invisible .

*This is the original Creed of the Council of Nicæa A D 325 The present Creed called Nicene which is given just before this is the result of later additions most of which were made or rather approved at the Council of Constantinople in A D 381

And in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, begotten of the Father, alone born, that is, of the Substance of the Father, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten not made, being of one Substance with the Father, by Whom all things were made, both those in heaven and those in earth; Who for us men and for our salvation descended, (here all genuflect) was incarnate and was made man, (all rise again) suffered and rose the third day, ascended into the heavens, and cometh to judge the quick and the dead,

✠ And in the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Acts of Faith

I

* We believe in one God, the holy and all glorious Trinity, the Three Who yet are One, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, co equal, co eternal,

In God the Father, from Whom do come the worlds and all that is therein, seen or unseen,

And in God the Son most holy, alone born from His Father before all æons, not made but springing forth, being of the Substance of His Father, true God from the true God true Light from the true Light by Whom all forms were made, Who for us men came down from heaven, (here all bow low), and took the robe of matter (all stand erect again), yet riseth thence again in ever greater glory to a kingdom without end,

* And in God the Holy Ghost the Life giver, springing forth also from the Father and the Son, equal with Them in glory, Who revealeth Himself through His Angels

We acknowledge one holy catholic and apostolic Church, one communion of the saints, one baptism for the demission of sin, we look for the resurrection of the dead, ✠ and the life of the coming age Amen.

II

We believe that God is Love, and Power and Truth and Light that perfect justice rules the world that all His sons shall one day reach His Feet how ever far they stray We hold the Fatherhood of God the Brotherhood of man we know that we do serve Him best when best we serve our brother man. So shall His blessing rest on us  and peace for ever more Amen

III

We place our trust in God the holy and all glorious Trinity Who dwelleth in the Spirit of man.

We place our trust in Christ the Lord of love and wisdom first among many brethren, Who leadeth us to the glory of the Father and is Himself the Way the Truth and the Life

We place our trust in the Law of Good which rules the world we strive towards the ancient narrow Path that leads to life eternal we know that we serve our Master best when we serve our brother man. So shall His power rest upon us  and peace for ever more Amen.

Epistle, Gospel and Creed draw out especially the thought of the people, whereas the preceding sections have largely worked upon their devotion.

At the Offertorium another phase of the Liturgy is introduced. The bread and wine are now brought forward and offered in the service of God as firstfruits of the earth and tokens of our worldly offerings. In ancient times produce of various kinds was at this place offered for the support of the clergy and the poor and blessed. A little later, in the prayer, "We lay before Thee, O Lord" these elements are offered as a symbol of the sacrifice of ourselves to God & service. Very shortly, in the Prayer of Consecration, they will be offered as a channel for Christ's blessing and at yet a later stage as His most sacred Body and Blood to be used by us as an aid to unite ourselves with His will. Then comes the splendid appeal to the congregation to lift up their hearts and in company with the nine orders of Angels whose presence here is invoked to give "eucharist" or thanks to Almighty God—the Gyrum Corda and Preface followed by the Sanctus

All who are present must inevitably be uplifted by the radiation of His holy power, and those who receive Holy Communion are brought by this blessed privilege into close and intimate union with our Lord and Master. Rightly do we regard this service as the supreme act of Christian worship, and offer thanks to Him Who gave it. All the love and devotion which have so freely been poured out during the Service, and the infinite abundance of spiritual force which has been called down from on high in response, are gathered together by the directing Angel and shed abroad upon the world along with the benediction given by the Celebrant. Through the ceremony of the Holy Eucharist, each time it is celebrated, there passes forth into the world a wave of peace and strength, the effect of which can hardly be overrated, and this, which is indeed the primary object of the Service, is achieved at every celebration, whether the Priest be alone in his private oratory or ministering to a vast congregation in some magnificent cathedral. Therefore it offers to us an unequalled opportunity of becoming labourers together with God, of doing His true and laudable service by acting as channels of His wondrous power.

The Celebrant blesses him in the following words

May the Lord be in thy + heart and on thy + lips that through thy heart the love of God may shine forth and through thy lips His power be made manifest R Amen.

If the Celebrant be without assistants, let himself intone both the prayer and the blessing, substituting "my" for "thy" in the latter

THE GOSPEL

Deacon The Lord be with you

C And with thy spirit

As soon as the Gospel is announced all sing the following, making the sign of the cross with the right thumb upon the forehead lips and breast successively

Glory be to Thee O Lord

The Gospel ended all sing

Praise be to Thee O Christ

THE SERMON

We believe in one God the Father Almighty Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible

And in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the alone born Son of God begotten of His Father before all ages, God of God Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten not made being of one Substance with the Father by Whom all things were made Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven (here all gen flect a reference for the mystery of the Incarnation) and was incarnate of the Holy Ghost and the Virgin Mary and was made man (I rise again) And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate He suffered, and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father And He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead Whose Kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, the Giver of Life Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who speaketh by the Prophets And we believe one holy catholic and apostolic Church We acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins And we look for the resurrection of the dead  and the life of the world to come Amen.

P The Lord be with you

OFFERTORIUM

A hymn is usually sung here while the offertory is taken At the end of the hymn the people are seated, and the following sentences are intoned by the Priest

From the rising up of the sun even unto the going down of the same the Lord's Name shall be magnified, and in every place incense shall be offered unto His Name and a pure offering There shall be heard in this place the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the Lord

The Priest offers the host saying

We adore Thee O God, Who art the source of all life and goodness and with true and thankful hearts we offer unto Thee this token of Thine own life giving gifts bestowed upon us, Thou Who art the giver of all

• He pours wine and a little water into the chalice saying

According to immemorial custom O Lord, we now mix water with this wine praying Thee that we may evermore abide in Christ and He in us

He offers the chalice saying

We offer unto Thee O Lord this chalice with joy and gladness may the worship which we offer ascend before Thy Divine Majesty as a sacrifice pure and acceptable in Thy sight Through Christ our Lord. Pa Amen.

holy Angels encompass Thy people and breathe forth upon them the spirit of Thy blessing,

As he returns the censor to the thurifer or deacon, he says:

May the Lord enkindle within us the fire of His love and the flame of everlasting charity.

The Priests, clerics, choir and people are censured. The people stand as the thurifer approaches them, bow before and after being censured, and are seated. During the censuring of the choir and people the Priest recites the Lavabo in a low tone, raising his voice for the Gloria.

LAVABO

I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord: and so will I go to Thine Altar.

That I may show the voice of thanksgiving: and tell of all Thy wondrous works.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy house: and the place where Thine honour dwelleth.

My foot standeth right: I will praise the Lord, in the congregations.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever sha'll be: world without end. R. Amen.

The people stand.

ORATE FRATRES

P. Brethren, pray that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

G. May the Lord receive the sacrifice at thy hands, and sanctify our lives in His service. *

The people kneel.

P. We lay before Thee, O Lord, these Thy creatures of bread and wine, in + token of our sacrifice, of praise and thanksgiving: for here we offer and present unto Thee ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a holy and continual sacrifice unto Thee, that we, who are very members incorporate in the mystical body of Thy Son, which is the blessed company of all

THE PRAYER OF CONSECRATION*

P Wherefore O most loving Father we Thy servants do pray Thee through Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord to + receive to + purify and to + hallow this oblation which we make unto Thee. We desire to offer this holy Sacrifice first for Thy holy catholic Church that it may please Thee to grant her peace to watch over her to bring her to unity and to guide her throughout the world, likewise for Thy servants George our King† N our Presiding Bishop N our Bishop for all our Bishops clergy and faithful and for all here present whose faith and devotion are known unto Thee We do also call to mind all who in this transitory life are in trouble, sorrow need sickness or any other adversity (especially) Likewise do we offer it for all those Thy children whom it hath pleased Thee to deliver from the burden of the flesh (especially for) that, freed from earthly toil and care they may enjoy the felicity of Thy Presence evermore praising Thee in word and deed O God everlasting living, and true

‡[Uniting in this joyful Sacrifice with Thy, holy Church throughout all the ages we lift our hearts in adoration to Thee O God the Son consubstantial co eternal with the Father Who abiding unchangeable within Thyself didst nevertheless in the mystery of Thy boundless love and Thine eternal Sacrifice breathe forth Thine own divine life into Thy universe and thus didst offer Thyself as the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world, dying in very truth that we might live

*Throughout the Prayer of Consecration where crosses are to be made by the Priest they are made over the several elements collectively save where of the one and Holy or Bread is mentioned and on the other Blood or Chalice

†This of course will be varied out as the British Empire

‡The portion in brackets may be omitted.

Omnipotent all pervading by that self same Sacrifice Thou dost continually uphold all creation, resting not by night nor day working evermore through that most august Hierarchy of Thy glorious Saints Who live but to do Thy will as perfect channels of Thy wondrous power to Whom we ever offer heart felt love and reverence

Thou, O most dear and holy Lord, hast in Thine ineffable wisdom designed to ordain for us this Blessed Sacrament of Thy love that in it we may not only commemorate in symbol that Thine eternal Oblation, but verily take part in it and perpetuate thereby within the limitations of time and space which veil our earthly eyes from the excess of Thy glory the enduring Sacrifice by which the world is nourished and sustained.]

With his hands spread over the offerings he continues

Wherefore, O holy Lord Father Almighty, we pray Thee to look down on and accept these offerings, which we Thy servants and Thy whole household do make unto Thee in obedience to the command of Thy most blessed Son our Lord Jesus Christ

Which offerings do Thou, O Father deign with Thy Holy Spirit and Word to + bless + approve and + ratify that they may become for us His most precious + Body and + Blood

Who the day before He suffered took bread into His holy and venerable hands and with His eyes lifted up to heaven unto Thee God, His Almighty Father giving thanks to Thee He + blessed brake and gave it to His disciples saying Take and eat ye all of this for

THIS IS MY BLOOD.

As oft as ye shall do these things, ye shall do them in remembrance of Me.

After some moments of silent adoration, the following verse shall be sung very softly, all devoutly kneeling:

Thee we adore, O hidden Splendour, Thee,
Who in Thy Sacrament dost deign to be;
We worship Thee beneath this earthly veil,
And here Thy Presence we devoutly hail.

After a short pause all stand and sing the Adagio Hymn, as under:

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem.
Come and behold Him, Monarch of the Angels;
O come, let us adore Him; O come, let us adore Him;
O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

God of God, Light of Light,
Yet under earthly forms His Light He veils,
Very God, alone born of the Father;
O come, let us adore Him, etc.

Sing, choirs of Angels, sing in exultation;
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
Glory to God in the highest;
O come, let us adore Him, etc.

Yea, Lord, we greet Thee, throned on Thine Altar; Ever to Thee be highest glory given,
Word of the Father, Splendour everlasting;
O come, let us adore Him, etc. Amen.

The people again kneel

P. Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we Thy humble servants, bearing in mind the ineffable sacrifice of Thy Son, the mystery of His wondrous incarnation, His mighty resurrection, and His triumphant ascension, do here make before Thy Divine Majesty the memorial which our Lord hath willed us to make, and we do offer unto Thee this, the most precious gift which Thou hast bestowed upon us:

this pure + Host, this holy + Host this glorious + Host the holy + Bread of life everlasting and the + Chalice of eternal salvation.

This do we present before Thee in token of our love and of the perfect devotion and sacrifice of our minds and hearts to Thee and we pray that Thou wouldst command Thy holy Angel to bear our oblation to Thine Altar on high there to be offered by Him Who as the eternal High Priest, for ever offers Himself as the eternal Sacrifice

And as He hath ordained that the heavenly Sacrifice shall be mirrored here on earth through the ministry of mortal men to the end that Thy holy people may be knit more closely into fellowship with Thee we do pray for Thy servant who ministers at this Altar that, meetly celebrating the mysteries of the most holy + Body and + Blood of Thy Son, he may be + filled with Thy mighty power and bless

He makes the last cross + I o I nself

ing Likewise we pray Thee to sanctify Thy people here present with these Thy heavenly gifts and through these mysteries do Thou + hallow + quicken, and + bless them, that both in their hearts and in their lives they may show forth Thy praise and glorify Thy holy Name

He mak's with the Host the sign of the cross three times over the Chalice

All these things do we ask O Father in the Name and through the mediation of Thy most blessed Son, for we acknowledge and confess with our hearts and lips that + by Him were all things made yea, all things both in heaven and earth + with Him as the indwelling Life do all things exist and + in Him as the transcendent Glory all things live and move and have their being

Then horizontally twice between the Chalice and the breast

. To Whom with thee O mighty + Father in the unity of the Holy + Spirit, be ascribed all honour and glory, throughout the ages of ages R. Amen.

THE COMMUNION

*[P Let us pray

Instructed by the words of sacred Scripture, and following the tradition of holy Church from of old, we now say

All now sing or intone

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever Amen]

THE COMMEMORATION OF THE SAINTS

P Here do we give unto Thee, O Lord, most high praise and hearty thanks for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in holy Mary, the ever virgin Mother, and in all Thy glorious Saints from the beginning of the world, who have been, the choice vessels of Thy grace and a shining light unto many generations

Here the Priest crosses himself with the paten.

And we + join with them in worship before Thy great white throne whence flow all love and light and blessing through all the worlds which Thou hast made praying that by this action, ordained from of old, Thy + strength, Thy + peace and Thy + blessing, which Thou dost give us in this holy Sacrament, may be spread abroad upon Thy world, and as Thou, O Lord Christ, wast made known to Thy disciples in the breaking of bread, so may Thy many children know themselves to be one in Thee even as Thou art one with the Father R Amen.

THE SALUTATION OF PEACE

O Lord Jesu Christ, Who didst say to Thine apostles "Peace I leave with you My peace I give unto you," regard not our weakness, but the faith of Thy Church, and grant her that peace and unity which are agreeable to Thy holy will and commandment R Amen

This Salutation of Peace which follows is first given by the Priest to one of the clergy It is then passed from one to another in the sanctuary The last recipient turns towards the people and with outstretched arms sings the words to them (At Low Celebration the Priest himself faces the people and with uplifted arms, utters the words of salutation)

P The peace of the Lord be always with you.

P O Thou Who in this adorable Sacrament hast left us a living memorial and pledge of Thy marvelous love for mankind and dost therein graciously draw us into wondrous and mystic communion with Thee, grant us so to receive the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood that our souls may be lifted into the immensity of Thy love and that being filled with a high endeavour we may ever be mindful of Thine indwelling Presence and breathe forth the fragrance of a holy life R Amen

The Priest, clergy and servers receive Holy Communion

The people meanwhile may say privately the following prayer

Unto Thee, O Perfect One, the Lord and Lover of men, do we commend our life and hope For Thou art the Heavenly Bread, the Life of the whole world. Thou art in all places and endurest all things, the Treasury of endless good and the Well of infinite compassion.

After the Priest and those in the sanctuary have received Holy Communion, the Priest, with a Particle, blesses the people, as he says

+ Ye that desire to partake of the Body of the Lord, draw nigh and receive this most holy Sacrament.

*The people should come forward to the Communion rail and kneel **

As he administers the Holy Communion to each, the Priest says

The Body of our Lord Christ keep thee unto life eternal.

The Communion being ended the Priest says

Under the veil of earthly things now have we communion with our Lord Jesus Christ, soon with open face shall we behold Him, and rejoicing in His glory be made like unto Him Then shall His true disciples be brought by Him with exceeding joy before the presence of His Father's glory *

A SHORTER FORM FOR THE CELEBRATION OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Note—This shorter form may be used by Priests at their regular daily Celebration, at services for children, and whenever the fuller version is found too long for practical convenience. At his discretion the Priest may introduce passages from the longer Celebration, such as the Offertory sentence, the Minor Benedictions, and so forth.

THE INVOCATION

In the name of the Father,  and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. R. Amen.

ASPERGES

Receiving the aspergill he makes the sign of the cross over himself with it saying

May the Lord purify me that I may worthily perform His service.

Sprinkling the Altar in the middle, then the chancel to his left and to his right he continues

In the strength of the Lord do I repel all evil from this His holy Altar and sanctuary.

Turning to the people and sprinkling them with the same triple motion and from this House wherein we worship Him

Turning back to the Altar and resigning the aspergill and I pray our heavenly Father that He will send His holy Angel to build for us a spiritual Temple through which His strength and blessing may be poured forth upon His people. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Turning to the people the Priest says Brethren, let us now lay the foundation of our Temple

THE CANTICLE

He turns to the Altar and all sing this Canticle except that the Priest alone chants the first half of the first verse

Antiphon

Christ is our foundation

And our chief corner stone

1 We are no more strangers and foreigners but fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God

2 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone

3 In Whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord

4 In Whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit

5 Except the Lord build the house their labour is but lost that build it

6 The foundation of God standeth sure having this seal let everyone that nameth the Name of Christ depart from iniquity

*For Thou only art holy, Thou only art the Lord, Thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, $\frac{1}{2}$ art most high in the glory of God the Father Amen

P Let us pray

THE COLLECT

The Priest intones the Collect of the Day and the following Collect for peace

Teach us, O Lord to see Thy life in all men and in all the peoples of Thine earth, and guide our nation through its leaders to preserve Thy peace, that the menace of war be far from our days, through Christ our Lord.

THE EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

* may be omitted, if they are read, the ritual will be as follows

He offers the chalice

P We offer unto Thee O Lord, this chalice with joy and gladness may the worship which we offer ascend before Thy Divine Majesty as a sacrifice pure and acceptable in Thy sight Through Christ our Lord. R Amen.

THE SECOND CENSING

A hymn may be sung here while the offertory is being collected and during that hymn the Priest censes the oblations and the Altar in due and ancient form When the hymn is finished the Priest holds up the censer before the centre of the Altar saying

As this incense rises before Thee O Lord, so let our prayer be set forth in Thy sight Let Thy holy Angels encompass Thy people and breathe forth upon them the spirit of Thy blessing

As he returns the censer to the thurifer or deacon he says

May the Lord enkindle within us the fire of His love and the flame of everlasting charity .

He is himself censed as are afterwards the choir and people who stand for this ceremony bowing before and after The Priest dips his fingers into a bowl of water wipes them and says turning towards the people

The Priest continues

O Lord, these our oblations have served as tokens and channels of our love and devotion towards Thee;

but now we + break the link with us and with all lower things, and we pray Thee to + purify and to + hallow them as earthly channels of Thy wondrous power. We desire to offer this holy Sacrifice especially for Thy holy catholic Church, for George our King N our Presiding Bishop N our Bishop for all our Bishops, clergy and faithful, for those here present and for all who in this transitory life are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity (especially) Likewise do we offer it for all those Thy children whom it hath pleased Thee to deliver from the burden of the flesh (especially for) that, freed from earthly toil and care they may enjoy the felicity of Thy Presence evermore praising Thee in word and deed, O God, everlasting living and true

Wherefore O holy Lord, Father Almighty we pray Thee to look down on and accept as a channel these offerings and with Thy Holy Spirit and Word to + bless, + approve, and + ratify them that they may become for us His most precious + Body and + Blood.

Who the day before He suffered took bread into His holy and venerable hands and with His eyes lifted up to heaven unto Thee, God, His Almighty Father giving thanks to Thee He + blessed, brake and gave it to His disciples, saying Take and eat ye all of this for

THIS IS MY BODY

In like manner after He had supped, taking also this noble chalice into His holy and venerable hands again giving thanks to Thee He + blessed it and gave it to His disciples saying Take and drink ye all of this for

After some moments of silent adoration the following verse shall be sung very softly all devoutly kneeling

He makes with the Host the sign of the cross three times over the Chalice

All these things do we ask, O Father in the Name and through the mediation of Thy most blessed Son, for we acknowledge and confess with our hearts and lips that + by Him were all things made yea, all things both in heaven and earth + with Him as the indwelling Life do all things exist, and + in Him as the transcendent Glory all things live and move and have their being

The Priest kneels twice between the Chalice and his breast

To Whom with Thee O mighty + Father in the unity of the Holy + Spirit be ascribed all honour and glory throughout the ages of ages R Amen.

The Priest crosses himself with the paten

We praise and thank Thee holy Lord, for the glory of Thy Saints and we + join with them in worship before Thy great white throne whence flow all love and light and blessing through all the worlds which Thou hast made

O Son of God, Who shonest Thyself this day upon a thousand altars and yet art one and indivisible in token of Thy great Sacrifice we break this Thy Body

Here he breaks the Host in half over the Chalice and with a small part thereof makes the sign of the cross thrice over the Chalice and finally at the word one drops the Particle into the Chalice

praying that by this action, ordained from of old, Thy + strength Thy + peace and Thy + blessing which Thou dost give us in this holy Sacrament may be spread abroad upon Thy world and as Thou, O Lord, Christ wast made known to Thy disciples in the breaking of bread, so may Thy many children know themselves to be one in Thee, even as Thou art one with the Father. R Amen

The Priest faces the people and, with outstretched arms says

The peace of the Lord be always with you

G And with thy spirit

P. O Thou Who in this adorable Sacrament hast left us a living memorial and pledge of Thy marvellous love for mankind, and dost therein graciously draw us into wondrous and mystic communion with Thee, grant us so to receive the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood that our souls may be lifted into the immensity of Thy love, and that, being filled with a high endeavour, we may ever be mindful of Thine indwelling Presence and breathe forth the fragrance of a holy life R Amen

The Priest communicates in both kinds, and administers to the clergy and choir as usual He blesses the people with a Paten as he says

+ Ye that desire to partake of the Body of the Lord, draw nigh and receive this most holy Sacrament

As he administers the communion to each, the Priest says

THE PSALM OF GODLY LIFE

P Let us sing to the praise and glory of God the Psalm of Godly Life

A t p l o

The Lord upholdeth the righteous

And his inheritance shall endure for ever

1 Behold how good and joyful a thing it is brethren, to dwell together in unity

2 The integrity of the upright shall guide him the righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way

3 Righteousness tendeth to life and to him that soweth it there shall be a sure reward.

4 Glorious is the fruit of good labours and the root of wisdom shall never fall away

5 They shall show me the path of life in Thy Presence is the fullness of joy and at Thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore

6 I will behold Thy Presence in righteousness and when I wake up after Thy likeness I shall be satisfied with it

7 The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord and the righteous shall shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father

8 The Lord shall be their everlasting light and their God their glory

9 Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven

10 For every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and cometh down from the Father of Lights in Whom is no variableness neither shadow of turning

11 The path of the just is as the shining light shining more and more unto the perfect day

12 The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God and there shall no torment touch them.

13 In the sight of the unwise they seem to die and their departure is taken for misery but they are in peace

14 For God created man to be immortal and made him to be an image of His own eternity

All Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

The Lord upholdeth the righteous

THE SECOND PSALM OF PRAISE.

P Let us sing to the praise and glory of God the Second Psalm of Praise

Antiphon

Praise ye the Lord.

The Lord's Name be praised

1 O praise the Lord for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful

2 Great is our Lord, and great is His power yea, and His wisdom is infinite

3 O sing unto the Lord a new song let the congregation of saints praise Him

4 Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord for His Name only is excellent, and His praise above heaven and earth

All Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be world without end Amen.

Antiphon

THE PSALM OF WISDOM

P. Let us sing to the praise and glory of God the Psalm of Wisdom

Antiphon

From Thee cometh victory and wisdom

And Thine, O Lord is the glory

1 Blessed be the Name of God for ever and ever He giveth their wisdom unto the wise and knowledge to them that know understanding

2 He revealeth the deep and secret things He knoweth what is in the darkness and the light dwell with Him

3 Wisdom is the breath of the power of God and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the Almighty

4 Wisdom is the brightness of the everlasting light the unspotted mirror of the power of God, and the image of His goodness

5 Wisdom reacheth from one end of the world to
things

6 Being but one, she can do all things remaining in herself, she maketh all things new

7. Into a malicious soul wisdom shall not enter nor dwell in the body that is subject unto sin.

8. Wisdom entereth into holy sou's: she maketh them prophets and friends of God.

9. For God loveth him: that dwelleth with wisdom.

10. He that loveth wisdom loveth life: and they that seek her early shall be filled with joy.

11. He that holdeth her fast shall inherit glory: and wheresoever she entereth the Lord will bless.

12. Wisdom is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the order of the stars: being compared with the light, she is found before it.

13. They that serve her shall minister to the Holy One: and them that love her the Lord doth love.

14. Wisdom is the rose of Sharon: and the Lily of the valley.

15. She is more precious than rubies: and all the things that thou canst desire are not to be compared to her.

16. She is the mother of fair love: and of patience and perseverance, and of holy hope.

17. Her ways are ways of pleasantness: and all her paths are peace.

18. They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; but they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

All. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Antiphon . . .

The Lord's Name be praised.

1 O praise God in His holiness praise Him in the firmament of His power

2 Praise Him all ye Angels of His praise Him, all His host

3 Praise Him in His noble acts praise Him according to His excellent greatness

4 Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord

All Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall
be world without end. Amen.

The people rise

Antiphon

Praise ye the Lord.

THE LITTLE CHANTER

O Beloved, let us love one another for love is of God and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not God, for God is love. And this commandment have we from Him, that he who loveth God love his brother also

C Thanks be to God

Praise God from Whom all Blessings flow
 Praise Him all creatures here below
 Praise Him above ye heavenly Host

THE COLLECTS

P Let us pray

All kneel

The Collect of the Day is said followed by this Collect for Peace

Teach us O Lord, to see Thy life in all men and in all the peoples of Thine earth, and guide our nation through its leaders to preserve Thy peace that the menace of war be far from our days, through Christ our Lord. R Amen.

The following collects may be recited if desired but if Confession is to be said immediately afterwards they shall be recited in that office and not in this place

P O God, from Whom all holy desires all good counsels and all just works do proceed give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give both that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments and also that by Thee we being defended from the fear of all evil may pass this night in rest and quietness Through Christ our Lord R Amen

P Almighty God, the Protector of all who trust in Thee send forth Thy power to keep us this night both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in ourselves that so far as is expedient for us we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul Through Christ our Lord. R Amen.

P Almighty God, Who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee and dost promise that where two or three are gathered together in Thy Name, there art Thou in the midst of them Fulfil now O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth and in the world to come life everlasting R. LITANY

God the Father, seen of none,
God the co eternal Son,
God the Spirit—Three in One,
Hear us, Holy Trinity

2

Son of God and Prince of Light, Throned in glory, robed in might,
Morning Star, serene and bright,
Christ our Lord we hail Thee.

Captain of the Hosts of Light,
Overcoming sin's dark blight,
Ever glowing splendour bright,
Son of God, we hail Thee

Thou, before Whose purging ray
Mists of evil fade away,
Orb of everlasting day,

Thou, Whose wisdom all things planned,
Held by Whose almighty Hand
All things in their order stand,
We, Thy Church adore Thee

6

Thou, Whose life and strength pervade
Whatsoever Thou hast made
All Preserver strong to aid
• We, Thy Church adore Thee

7

Thou, Whose beauty like a star
Throbbing in the void afar,
• Only earth borne-clouds can mar,
We, Thy Church, adore Thee

8

Thou Whose universal might
Saints acclaim with mystic rite,
Clad in robes of dazzling light
Christ our Lord, we hail Thee

Thou, for Whom, in heavenly choir
Angel forms of living fire
Wake the everlasting lyre,
Christ our Lord, we hail Thee

Lord of Wisdom, from Whose lore
Wise men of earth may store
Riches new for evermore
We Thy Church adore Thee

11

Still in bounty Lord, bestow
Blessings on Thy Church below
Till her measure overflow
King of Glory hear us

12

King of Salem, Priest Divine,
Thou, Whose love hath sealed us Thine
Through Thy mystic Bread and Wine

13

Priest and Victim, Whom of old
Type and prophecy foretold,
Thee Incarnate we behold

Purged in vision through Thy grace
We by faith may see Thy Face
Feel Thee near in every place

15

Ruth divine that givest heed
Unto every cry of need
Healing balm to hearts that bleed
Help us holy Master

Healer of the souls distressed,
Happiness of all the blest,
Peace of those who long for rest

17

Sweet Physician, skilled to heal Every pang the soul can feel Thou that hearest each appeal
Help us holy Master

18

Lest by thought or action base
Ignorant we slight Thy grace
Lest we hide from us Thy Face
Help us holy Master

19

That our hearts may win release
That our hands from ill may cease
That our souls may know Thy peace

20

That from selfish lusts made free
Each at length clear-eyed may see—
See and tread the path to Thee
Help us holy Master

21

Till our pilgrimage complete
Rest shall come and comfort sweet
Friend of pilgrims at Thy Feet,
Son of God, we hail Thee

God the Father seen of none,
God the co-eternal Son,
God the Spirit—Three in One
We are Thine O Trinity

A time may be set apart at this place for medita

The following hymn is next sung a few moments pause being made if it follows directly upon Litany After the first verse the officiant again comes into the chancel and censers the Blessed Sacrament as before during which action the people sing the second verse but if there be no music pause is observed until after the censuring

The people respond kneeling

CLOSING HYMN

Closed is the solemn hour
The sacred rites are done
And lo! the music of Thy power
Thrills through us, every one.
O Master let that harmony
Sing through the lives we lead for Thee !

And now with reverent pace
Our strength renewed by Thine Devoted guardians of Thy Grace
Quit we this holy shrine
And pass into the silent night
To be the bearers of Thy light A

PRIME

As already indicated in the introduction to Vespers, Prime is one of the morning, and Complin one of the evening, Offices of the Church. The greater services, such as the Holy Eucharist, Vespers and Benediction, are intended principally to pour out spiritual strength upon the world, whereas these minor Offices may not unreasonably be regarded as designed especially for the benefit of those who take part in them.

CONFITEOR

All kneel, and say:

O Lord, Thou hast created man to be immortal, and made him to be an image of Thine own eternity; yet often we forget the glory of our heritage, and wander from the path which leads to righteousness. But Thou, O Lord, hast made us for Thyself, and our hearts are ever restless till they find their rest in Thee. Look with the eyes of Thy love upon our manifold imperfections, and pardon all our shortcomings, that we may be filled with the brightness of the everlasting light, and become the unspotted mirror of Thy power and the image of Thy goodness. Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

P. God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, bless, + preserve and sanctify you; the Lord in His lovingkindness look down upon you and be gracious unto you; the Lord ☩ absolve you from all your sins, and grant you the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. R. Amen.

[If there be no Priest, the ministrant, still kneeling, says the following instead of the Absolution:

May the Lord bless us, and ☩ absolve us from all our sins; and may His peace rest upon us this day and evermore.

G. Thanks be to God.]

1 O come, let^us sing unto the Lord let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

2 Let us come before His presence with thanks giving and shew ourselves glad in Him with psalms

3 The sea is His and He made it and His hands prepared the dry land

4 He is the Lord our God and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His Hand

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen

Antiphon

Ye shall stand every morning to thank and praise the Lord.

At morning and likewise at even.

THE LESSON

All are seated and the Epistle of the Day is read as a lesson by the Priest or minister or some one appointed by him

THE SECOND PSALM

After that is sung the following all stand

Antiphon .

The morning stars sang together

And all the sons of God shouted for joy

1 My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning O Lord I will direct my prayer unto Thee and look up

2 I will sing of Thy power and will praise Thy lovingkindness betimes in the morning

3 In the evening and morning and at noonday will I call and He shall hear my voice

4 The tenderness of the Lord is new every morning great O Lord, is Thy faithfulness

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall

Antiphon

The morning stars sang together

The people are seated and the Gospel of the Day is read as the second lesson

AN ACT OF FAITH

The people rise and all intone

We believe that God is Love and Power and Truth and Light that perfect justice rules the world that all His sons shall one day reach His Feet, how ever far they stray We hold the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of man we know that we do serve Him best when best we serve our brother man So shall His blessing rest on us  and peace for ever more Amen

Any of the Creeds or Acts of Faith given on p 166 et seq may be substituted for the above if desired

P Let us pray

All kneel If a minister leads the service he kneels with the people

First is intoned the Collect for the Day and then the following

P O Lord, our heavenly Father almighty and ev erlasting God, Who hast safely brought us to the be ginning of this day defend us in the same With Thy mighty power and grant that this day we may man fully strive against sin and selfishness, that all our doings may be ordered by Thy governance, to do al ways that which is righteous in Thy sight Through Christ our Lord R Amen

P. O Lord Christ, we Thy faithful soldiers dedicate this new born day to Thee praying that it may shine in Thy service as a pure pearl in the chaplet of our life, O Thou great King of Love to Whom be praise and adoration for evermore R Amen.

P Teach us, O Lord, to see Thy life in all men and in all the peoples of Thine earth and guide our nation through its leaders to preserve Thy peace, that the menace of war be far from our days, through Christ our Lord. R Amen

* THE OFFICE HYMN

All rise and sing

Now that the daylight fills the sky
We lift our hearts to Thee on high,
That Thou, in all we do or say,
Wilt keep us free from harm to-day

May we restrain our tongues from strife
And shield from anger's din our life
And guard with watchful care our eyes
From earth's absorbing vanities

May this day dedicate to Thee,
A day of joyous service be Forgetting self for love of man
May we fulfil Thy glorious plan

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye heavenly Host

1 The just man shall be as the light of the morning even a morning without clouds

2 As the tender grass springing out of the earth as clear shining after rain.

3 The righteous shall be clearer than the noons; he shall shine forth he shall be as the morning

4 His light shall break forth as the dawn his righteousness shall go before him, and the glory of the Lord shall be his reward.

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

Heaviness may endure for a night.

But joy cometh in the morning

P Let us pray

The people kneel

P Be with us Lord, throughout this day that all our work, begun continued and ended in Thee we may glorify Thy holy Name Who livest for ever and ever E Amen

They remain kneeling

P Breathe on us, O Spirit of God.

G In Thy strength we can do all things.

P May our hearts be filled with Thy love, . . .

G In Thy strength we can do all things

P Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

G In Thy strength we can do all things . . .

ministrant in charge—intones*

In the Name of the Father ✠ and of the Son,
and of the Holy Ghost R Amen

P Our help is in the Name of the Lord.

C Who hath made heaven and earth

P At morn and at even will we praise Him

C For our hearts rest ever in His love

All kneel and say

O Lord, Thou hast created man to be immortal, and made him to be an image of Thine own eternity yet often we forget the glory of our heritage and wander from the path which leads to righteousness. But Thou, O Lord, hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are ever restless till they find their rest in Thee. Look with the eyes of Thy love upon our manifold imperfections and pardon all our shortcomings, that we may be filled with the brightness of the ever lasting light, and become the unspotted mirror of Thy power and the image of Thy goodness. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

P God the Father God the Son God the Holy Ghost, bless + preserve and sanctify you the Lord in His lovingkindness look down upon you and be gracious unto you the Lord  absolve you from all your sins and grant you the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit R Amen.

[If there be no Priest the assistant still kneels & says the following instead of the Absolution]

May the Lord bless us and  absolve us from all our sins and may His peace rest upon us this night and evermore

THE FIRST PSALM

The people stand and the Psalm is sung 1 1 psalm

Thou art my lamp O Lord.

The Lord will lighten my darkness

1 Behold, the night falleth and darkness covereth the earth.

2 But Thy candle O Lord shineth upon my head and by Thy light I walk through the darkness

3 Thou hast brought us out of darkness and out of the shadow of death and broken our bonds in sunder

4 Yea the darkness is no darkness with Thee but the night is as clear as the day the darkness and the light to Thee are both alike

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall
be world without end Amen

Antiphon

Thou art my lamp O Lord

The Lord will lighten my darkness

All are seated and the Epistle of the Day is read as a lesson by the Priest or minister or some one appointed by him

After that is sung the following all standing

Antiphon

He hath called us out of darkness

Into His marvellous light

1 Who is there that walketh in darkness and hath no light?

2 Let him trust in the Lord and stay upon his Gbd.

Glory be to the Father and to the S^{on} and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

He hath called us out of darkness
Into His marvellous light

The people are seated and the Gospel of the Day is read as the second lesson

The people rise and all intone

We believe that God is Love and Power and Truth and Light that perfect justice rules the world that all His sons shall one day reach His Feet however far they stray We hold the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of man we know that we do serve Him best when best we serve our brother man. So shall His blessing rest on us  and Peace for evermore. Amen.

Any of the Creeds or Acts of Faith given on p 100 et seq may be substituted for the above if desired

THE COLLECTS

P Let us pray

All kneel If a ministrant leads the service he kneels with the people

The Collect for the Day is first said

P O God, from Whom all holy desires, all good counsels and all just works do proceed give unto Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give both that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and that by Thee we being defended from the fear of all evil may pass this night in rest and quietness Through Christ our Lord R. Amen

P. Almighty God, the Protector of all who trust in Thee, send forth Thy power to keep us this night both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in ourselves, that so far as is expedient for us we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul Through Christ our Lord R. Amen

P Teach us, O Lord, to see Thy life in all men and in all the peoples of Thine earth, and guide our nation through its leaders to preserve Thy peace, that the menace of war be far from our days, through Christ our Lord R. Amen.

THE OFFICE HYMN

All rise and sing

Glory to Thee, my God, this night
For all the blessings of the light,
Keep me, O keep me, King of Kings,
Beneath Thine own almighty wings

NUNC DIMITTIS

The people stand and sing

Antiphon

I will lay me down in peace and take my rest.

For it is Thou, Lord, only that makest me to dwell in safety

1 Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace according to Thy word.

2 For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation

3. Which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people

4 To be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

I will lay me down in peace and take my rest

For it is Thou, Lord, only that makest me to dwell in safety

P Let us pray

The people kneel

P Be with us in our homes O Lord, and let Thy holy Angels dwell therein, to preserve us in peace and let Thy blessing rest ever upon us O Thou Lord of love Who livest for ever and ever R Amen.

They remain kneeling

P Look, O Lord, upon this Thy family

C Into Thy Hands I commend my spirit.

P Protect us under the shadow of Thy wings,

C Into Thy Hands I commend my spirit

P Glory, be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

C Into Thy Hands I commend my spirit

THE BENEDICTION

P Unto God's gracious love and protection we commit you, the Lord  bless you and keep you, the Lord make His Face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you, the Lord lift up the light of His Countenance upon you and give you His peace this night and for evermore R Amen

[In the absence of a Priest the ministrant closes the service with the following words instead of the Benediction]

 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore R Amen.

HOLY BAPTISM

Baptism is a Sacrament by which the recipient is solemnly admitted to membership of Christ's holy Church and "grafted into His mystical body."

The Exorcism is intended to deaden the germs of evil in infants or to effect a preliminary purification in those more advanced in years.

The first Anointing is as indicated for the strengthening and safeguarding of the candidate and is followed immediately by the Baptism in the Name of the Trinity, and then by the second Anointing with holy chrism still further to strengthen him.

Where there is doubt about the validity or completeness of a former Baptism the Sacrament is readministered conditionally.

The pouring of the water symbolizes both the washing away of sin and the downpouring of power from on high. The font is usually placed near the entrance of the church to show that by Baptism we gain admission to the Church of God.

So far as is convenient holy Baptism should be administered publicly in the presence of a congregation.

FORM TO BE USED FOR INFANTS

THE INVOCATION

Presb In the Name of the Father  and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost R Amen

THE INITIATION

The child is presented as follows

Spo sor Reverend Father we present to you this child, praying that you will receive him into the fellowship of Christ's Church

P Brethren, our fair Father Christ in His great lovingkindness hath ordained that His mystic Bride our holy Mother the Church, shall guide and protect her children at every stage from the cradle to the grave To this end is the Sacrament of holy Baptism ordained that in His Name the Church may give welcome and blessing to him who is newly come into this world of pilgrimage, and that the soul may dwell in a body purified from the taint of evil, sanctified and set apart for the service of Almighty God

Addressing the sponsors and congregation

Therefore, brethren of Christ's catholic Church I pray you to join with me in this our holy rite where by this child shall be made partaker of these heavenly gifts and a member of His mystical body

Hear the words of the Gospel written by St Mark, in the tenth chapter at the thirteenth verse

They brought young children to Christ that He should touch them and His disciples rebuked those that brought them But when Jesus saw it He was much displeased and said unto them Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of God Amen, I

Let us pray

O God, Omnipotent and Omnipresent Whose power worketh in every living creature, Who alone art the source of all life and goodness, design to shed upon this Thy servant, who has been called to the rudiments of the faith, a ray of Thy light, drive out from him all blindness of heart, break all the chains of iniquity wherewith he has been bound open to him, O Lord, the gate of Thy glory, that being replenished with the spirit of Thy wisdom and strengthened by Thy mighty power, he may be free from the taint of evil desire and steadfastly advancing in holiness may joyfully serve Thee in the course Thou hast appointed for him Through Christ our Lord. E Amen.

THE EXORCISM

P In the Name which is above every name in the power of the + Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost, I exorcise all influences and seeds of evil, I lay upon them the spell of Christ's holy Church, that they may be bound fast as with iron chains and cast into outer darkness, that they trouble not this servant of God

He again places his hand on the head of the child, for He Who is the Lord of Love and Compassion hath deigned to call him to His holy grace and blessing and to the font of Baptism

The Priest then proceeds as follows

Ephphatha that is, Be thou opened.

Here the Priest makes the sign of the cross over the brow, the throat the heart and the navel of the child

Let thy mind and thy heart be opened to the most holy Spirit of the living God, that thy whole nature may be dedicated for ever to His service, so mayest thou have power to receive the heavenly precepts and to be such in thy conduct that thou mayest be a pure temple of the living God

He stretches out his right hand towards the child, and says

Do Thou, O Lord, with Thy overabiding power, watch over this Thy chosen servant, whom we dedicate to Thy service, that, using well the beginnings of Thy glory and heedfully observing Thy holy laws, he may be found worthy to attain to the fullness of the new birth Through Christ our Lord. R Amen.

The Priest places the end of his stole upon the child's shoulder, and says

Come into the temple of God, that thou mayest have part with Christ unto life eternal

THE FIRST ANOINTING

The Priest takes upon his right thumb a little of the oil of catechumens At the first two crosses the Priest touches respectively the child's breast or throat and the nape of his neck, making a small cross at each with the oil, he then makes two crosses respectively before and behind the child, reaching to the entire length of the body

P In the Name of Christ our Lord I ++ anoint thee with oil for thy safeguarding, may His holy Angel + go before thee and + follow after thee, may he be with thee in thy downsitting and thine uprising and keep thee in all thy ways

THE BAPTISM*

While the godparents hold the child over the font, the Priest pours some of the consecrated baptismal water over the head and forehead of the child thrice At the same time he pronounces the words

N, I baptize thee in the Name of the + Father, and of the + Son and of the Holy + Ghost Amen

* If the Baptism be sub conditione the formula to be used is found in the form of Baptism for Children

THE ANOINTING WITH CHRISM

The Priest takes upon his thumb some of the sacred chrism and anointing the child on the top of the head in the form of a cross says

With Christ's holy chrism do I + anoint thee that His strength may prevent thee in thy going out thy coming in, and may guide thee into life everlasting

THE RECEPTION

With his thumb still moist with chrism the Priest makes a cross upon the child's brow at the last clause he lays his hand upon the infant's head

I receive this child into the fellowship of Christ's holy Church and do + sign him with the sign of the cross in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ our Lord, to acknowledge Him when He shall come, and manfully to fight under His banner against sin and selfishness and that he shall continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant throughout the ages of ages R. Amen.

A white silk handkerchief is brought and the Priest having blessed it places it upon the shoulders of the child saying

Receive from holy Church this white vesture as a pattern of the spotless purity and brightness of Him Whose service thou hast entered to-day and for a token of thy fellowship with Christ and His holy Angels that thy life may be filled with His peace

Delivering a lighted candle to the child the Priest says

Take this burning light, enkindled from the fire of God's holy Altar for a sign of the ever burning light of thy spirit. God grant that hereafter His love shall so shine through thy heart that thou mayest continually enlighten the lives of thy fellowmen.

The Priest places his hand on the head of the child saying

N. Go in peace and may the Lord be with thee R. Amen.

THE CHARGE TO SPONSORS

P Ye who have brought this child here to be baptized, seeing that now he is regenerate of water and the Holy Spirit and grafted into the mystical body of Christ's Church remember that there lies upon you a duty not lightly to be cast aside. It is your part to see that so soon as he is old enough to understand he is taught God's holy will and commandment, as it was spoken by our Lord Himself when He said: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind and with all thy strength. This is the first and great commandment and the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Also he shall be taught the doctrine of the holy catholic Church in which he has this day been admitted and shall be brought in due course before the Bishop to be confirmed by him.

FORM TO BE USED FOR CHILDREN

This form is to be used for children of four or five and upwards who are of reasonable age to understand the service.

In the case of both adults and children the charge continues as follows

In this Sacrament of Confirmation the Church gives you both the opportunity to enrol yourselves in Christ's army and the strength to quit yourselves like men.

But if you enter His most holy service take heed that you are such soldiers as He would have you be Strong must you be (as the lion) * yet gentle brother also. Remember that the power of God which you are now about to receive from my hand, will ever work within you for righteousness inclining you unto a noble and upright life. Strive therefore earnestly that your thoughts your words and your works shall be such as befit a child of Christ and a knight dedicated to His service. All this shall you zealously try to do for Christ's sweet sake and in His most holy Name.

THE INTERROGATIONS

All rise • and the Bishop addresses the candidates as follows

Will you then strive to live in the spirit of love with all mankind, and manfully to fight against sin and selfishness?

C and dates I will

Will you strive to show forth^d in your thoughts your words and your works the power of God which shall be given to you?

C I will

The candidates kneel and the Bishop blesses them as follows

May the  blessing of the Holy Ghost come down upon you and may the power of the Most High preserve you in all your ways. R. Amen

The following hymn is sung all kneel g

VENI CREATOR

Come Thou Creator Spirit blest
And in our souls take up Thy rest
Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid
To fill the hearts which Thou hast made

Thou in Thy sevenfold gifts art known;
Thee, Finger of God's Hand we own,
The promise of the Father, Thou
Who dost the tongue with power endow

Kindle our senses from above,
And make our hearts o'erflow with love,
With patience firm and virtue high
The weakness of our flesh supply

Far let us drive our tempting foe,
And Thine abiding peace bestow;
So shall we not, with Thee for guide,
Turn from the path of life aside

O may Thy grace on us bestow
The Father and the Son to know,
And Thee through endless times confessed,
Of both eternal Spirit blest

All glory while the ages run
Be to the Father and the Son,
Who gave us life, the same to Thee.

Receive the Holy Ghost for the sweet savour of a godly life, whereunto I do + sign thee with the sign of the cross, and I confirm thee with the chrism of salvation. In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen

At the words I do sign thee the Bishop makes the sign of the cross with the chrism upon the forehead of the neophyte. He makes the sign of the cross three times over the head of the neophyte as he recites the Names of the Holy Trinity. After a momentary pause the Bishop again lays his hand upon the head of the neophyte saying

Therefore go thou forth my brother in the Name of the Lord, for in His strength thou canst do all things

The Bishop touches the neophyte lightly on the left cheek saying

Peace be with thee

The neophyte rises bows reverently to the Bishop and is led back to his seat

When all have been confirmed the following hymn is sung

HYMN

O Master I have promised
To serve Thee to the end
Be Thou for ever near me
My Helper and my Friend
I shall not fear the battle
If Thou art by my side
Nor wander from the pathway
If Thou wilt be my Guide

O let me feel Thee near me
The world is ever near
I see the sights that dazzle
The tempting sounds I hear
My foes are ever near me Around me and within
But in Thy holy Presence
• I shield my soul from sin.

O let me hear Thee speaking.
In accents clear and still Above the storms of passion
The murmurs of self will,
O speak to reassure me
To hasten or control,
O speak sweet words of counsel,
Thou Guardian of my soul.

O Master, Thou hast promised
To all who follow Thee
That where Thou art in glory
There shall Thy servants be,
And Master I have promised
To serve Thee to the end
May I find strength to follow
My Master and my Friend.

O let me see Thy foot marks
And in them plant mine own,
My hope to follow duly
Is in Thy strength alone
O guide me call me, draw me
Uphold me to the end
And then in bliss receive me,
My Master and my Friend. Amen.

B Blessed are the pure in heart

C For they shall see God

B Trust ye in the Lord for ever

C For He is our Rock of Ages

B The Lord be with you

C And with Thy spirit

B Let us pray

The Bishop extends his hands towards the newly confirmed and says

O Lord Christ Who didst give the Holy Spirit to Thine apostles, and didst ordain that by them and their successors He should be given to the rest of the faithful, we render Thee hearty thanks for this Thine inestimable benefit now bestowed upon us

We offer unto Thee the lives which Thou to day hast blessed that they whom Thou hast thus accepted as soldiers in Thy Church militant here on earth may so bear themselves as true and faithful knights in Thy service that they may be found worthy hereafter to stand before Thee in the ranks of the Church triumphant O Thou great King of Glory, to Whom be praise and adoration from men and from the Angel host R Amen

The Bishop blesses all persons confirmed as follows

God the + Father God the + Son God the + Holy Ghost bless, preserve and sanctify you the Lord in His lovingkindness look down upon you and be gracious unto you the Lord lift up the light of His Countenance upon you and give you His peace now and for evermore R Amen.

May the Holy Ones Whose pupils you aspire to be come show you the Light you seek, give you the strong aid of Their compassion and Their wisdom There is a peace that passeth understanding, it abides in the hearts of those who live in the Eternal; there is a power that maketh all things new; it lives and moves in those who know the Self as One May that peace brood over you, that power uplift you, till you stand where the One Initiator is invoked, till you see His ✠ Star shine forth R. Amen.

If the sacrament of Confirmation is administered during the Celebration of the Holy Eucharist, or in connection with any other service, the second benediction given above shall not be used. It may be used only when the Confirmation is an entirely separate service.

HOLY MATRIMONY

Christ did not institute marriage, but the Sacrament blessing such marriage. This is intended to help the parties to live together in a state of love and mutual aid. When they have pledged their love and fidelity to each other in the presence of Christ, the Priest blesses them in His Name.

The ring, which is the symbol of their spiritual union, is also blessed.

The Priest must be careful to acquaint himself with the legal requirements concerning marriage in his own particular country and before performing any marriage to satisfy himself that it is free from impediment or illegality especially when either of the contracting parties is of foreign birth or under age.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE

The bridegroom and the bride (seated) with their attendants stand before the Altar rails.

THE INVOKATION

Priest. In the Name of the Father I and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. R. Amen.

Turning to the people the Priest addresses them as follows.

Dearly beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God and in the face of this congregation to join together this man and this woman in holy Matrimony which is an honourable estate not by any to be enterprised nor taken in hand unadvisedly, lightly or wantonly, but reverently discreetly, advisedly and soberly in the sight of God.

Into which estate these two persons come now to be joined. Therefore if any man can show any just cause why they may not lawfully be joined together let him now speak or else hereafter for ever hold his peace

No impediment being alleged, the Priest questions the man and woman separately concerning their consent to marry

P (to the man) Wilt thou, N., take N here present for thy lawful wife according to the rite of our holy Mother the Church?

The bridegroom answers I will.

P (to the woman) Wilt thou, N., take N here present for thy lawful husband according to the rite of our holy Mother the Church?

The bride answers I will.

The bridegroom places the ring upon a salver held before him by an acolyte. The priest sprinkles the ring with holy water in the form of a cross, and then blesses it saying

Bless + O Lord, and + hallow this ring that she who shall wear it may ever keep true faith unto her husband and so abiding in Thy peace and in conformity to Thy holy will may ever live with him in love unchanging Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

WEDDING HYMN

The people stand but the newly married pair kneel while the hymn is sung

The voice that breathed o'er Eden
That earliest wedding day
The primal marriage blessing—
It hath not passed away

Still in the pure espousal
Of Christian man and maid
The Holy Three are with us
The threefold grace is said

For dower of blessed children,
For love and faith a sweet sake
For high mysterious union
Which naught on earth may break

On Thee O loving Father
Thy humble servants wait
Their future life together
To Thee they consecrate

O Christ the King of glory
Whom Angel hosts obey
• Keep these Thy faithful soldiers
In love and truth alway

I join you together in marriage in the Name of the Father + and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen

Covering their joined hands with the end of his stole, he adds

Those whom God hath joined together, let no man seek to put asunder

Then shall the Priest speak unto the people

Forasmuch as N and N have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving of a ring and by joining of hands, I declare to you that they be man and wife together, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost E. Amen.

THE GOSPEL

The holy Gospel is taken from the fifteenth chapter of that according to St John beginning at the first verse

I am the true vine and My Father is the husbandman. Every branch in Me that beareth not fruit He taketh away and every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. COMMUNIO

The eye of the Lord is upon them that love Him even upon them that rest on His lovingkindness.

The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord and the righteous shall shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father

For every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and cometh down from the Father of Lights in Whom is no variableness neither shadow of turning

Children under seven are not subjects for confession, since it is the tradition of the Church, that they are not capable of serious and responsible sin. Above that age and until they are responsible agents they may, in the Liberal Catholic Church make auricular confession (save in emergency) only with the consent of one or other of the parents

The person desiring Absolution kneels at a prie dieu in the church, beside which the Priest is seated

THE INVOCATION

Suppliant (crossing himself) In the Name of the Father,  and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Father give me your blessing for I have sinned

Priest The Lord be in thy + heart and on thy + lips, that thou mayest rightly confess thine offences

THE CONFESSION

Suppliant I confess before God Almighty Father Son, and Holy Spirit and to you, Father that I have sinned in thought in desire in word and deed Especially I have

For these and all my other offences which I can not now remember I am heartily sorry firmly purpose amendment most humbly ask remission of Almighty God, and of you, Father absolution and the benefit of spiritual counsel and advice

It is not expected that those instantaneous cures which are commonly (though wrongly) called miraculous will often occur at these Services. They may and they do happen in certain cases, but we are not yet sufficiently conversant with the method of working of these stupendous powers to be able to predict results. Many patients especially chronic cases feel considerable temporary improvement but gradually relapse and slip back either partially or entirely. Such patients should try again. Where there is a slight amelioration, only temporary at the first attempt, a second may well carry it further; a third a fourth, a fifth a sixth may carry it much further still. Even the Christ Himself had to apply His treatment twice in the case of the man born blind.

If a patient is not restored to health even after repeated trials it must not be thought that Christ cannot cure that the Holy Spirit cannot cure it should be remembered that the channels are human frail and imperfect and it may well be that for any one of a dozen reasons the divine force does not flow through this Priest or that in just the way that will cure a particular patient. The Priest will do his best to help, the patient will do his best to prepare himself to be helped what will come of it is in higher hands than ours—in the hands of Christ the Healer and the King

 goes to his left and to his right, he continues*

In the strength of the Lord do I repel all evil from this holy Altar and sanctuary

Then turning to the people and sprinkling them with the same triple motion

and from this House wherein we worship Him

Turning back to the altar and resigning the aspergill and I pray our heavenly Father that He will send His healing Angel to minister unto these Thy servants here present, that they may be restored to health of mind and body Through Christ our Lord R. Amen.

CONFITEOR

All kneel, and say together

O Lord, Thou hast created man to be immortal and made him to be an image of Thine own eternity yet often we forget the glory of our heritage and wander from the path which leads to righteousness. But Thou, O Lord, hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are ever restless till they find their rest in Thee Look with the eyes of Thy love upon our manifold imperfections and pardon all our shortcomings that we may be filled with the brightness of the everlasting light and become the unspotted mirror of Thy power and the image of Thy goodness Through Christ our Lord Amen

Immortal Love for ever full,
 For ever flowing free
 For ever shared, for ever whole
 A never ebbing sea

Our outward lips confess the Name
 All other names above
 Love only knoweth whence it came
 And comprehendeth love

We need not climb the heavenly steep
 To bring the Lord Christ down Alike within the lowest deep
 Is He of heaven the Crown
 But warm, sweet, tender even yet
 A present help is He And faith has still its Olivet
 And love its Galilee

The healing of His seamless dress
 Is by our beds of pain
 We touch Him in life's throng and press
 And we are whole again

Through Him the first fond prayers are said
 Our lips of childhood frame
 The last low whispers o'er our dead
 Are uttered in His Name

Alone O Love ineffable
 Thy holy Name is given
 A thousand saints Thy glories tell
 Who in that Name have striven

Lord Christ, of Love and Joy the Sun,
 Undying praise to Thee
 With Father and with Spirit One
 Through all eternity Amen.

READING FROM SCRIPTURE

P Hear the words of the Apostle James Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the Church and let them pray over him anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord And the prayer of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall raise him up, and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Pray for one an other that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much

All kneel while the following appeal is sung

MY CREATOR

Come Thou Creator Spirit blest
 And on our souls take up Thy rest
 Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid,
 To fill the hearts which Thou hast made

Great Paraclete to Thee we cry
 O highest gift of God most high
 O living Fount, O Fire O Love
 And sweet anointing from above

Thou in Thy sevenfold gifts art known
 Thine Finger of God a Hand we own
 The promise of the Father Thou
 Who dost the tongue with power endow

 And make our hearts overflow with love
 With patience firm and virtue high
 The weakness of our flesh supply

Far let us drive our tempting foe
 And Thine abiding peace bestow
 So shall we not with Thee for guide

THE UNCTION.

The Priest descends from the Altar and goes to the place in the chancel at which he is to administer Holy Unction

P Let us pray

The people kneel

O Lord, Who hast given unto man bodily health and vigour wherewith to serve Thee we pray Thee to free Thy servants from their sickness so far as may be expedient for them, and by the might of Thy + blessing to restore unto them full health both outwardly in their bodies and inwardly in their souls. Through Christ our Lord. P Amen

The people are seated. Those who desire to be anointed are brought to the Priest one by one and kneel upon a cushion. The Priest now says over each one

In the Name which is above every name, in the power of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost I exorcize all influences of evil, that thou mayest be rightly purified to receive this Sacrament of Holy Unction.

Then kneeling upon his knees some of the holy oil for the sick the Priest anoints the person in the form of a cross upon the forehead saying

In the Name of our Lord Christ and invoking the help of the holy Archangel Raphael, I + anoint thee with oil, that thou mayest gain refreshment, both of soul and body

The Priest proceeds to anoint in the same manner as before but in silence the centre of the forehead at the top of the head the front of the throat and the nape of the neck. He then places both hands upon the head of the person with the definite intent to heal saying

Christ the Son of God, look down upon thine afflicted

tion, and heal thee of all thine infirmities. May the Light of His Love enfold thee forever *

If a Bishop is conducting the service he may at this point touch the person with his cross

When all desiring the sacrament of Holy Unction have been anointed the Priest cleanses his hands and turning to the people says

As with this visible oil your bodies are outwardly anointed so may Almighty God, our heavenly Father grant of His infinite goodness that your souls may be anointed inwardly with the Holy Ghost Who is the Spirit of strength relief and gladness. And may He so replenish you with the spirit of His Wisdom and strengthen you with His mighty power that you may persevere in the way of holiness and ever serve Him joyfully in the course that He hath appointed for you. Through Christ our Lord. R Amen.

[The Priest turns to the Altar and says

O God, Who in the wonderful sacrament of the Altar has left us a living memorial of Thine eternal Sacrifice grant us we beseech Thee so to venerate the sacred mystery of Thy Body and Blood that we may ever perceive within ourselves the power of Thine indwelling life and thus by the glad pouring out of our lives in sacrifice may know ourselves to be one with Thee and through Thee with all that lives who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit God, throughout all ages of ages R.

Amen

HYMN

Great Master Whose Name is the Healer
 O enter this poor heart of mine
 And make it for ever Thy dwelling
 A home wherein all things are Thine
 O Son of the Father eternal,
 Be with me, a Friend and a Guest,
 Abide in Thine own human mansion
 Its Joy and its Hope and its Rest.

Leave in me no darkness unlighted, Unwarmed by Thy Truth's holy fire
 No thought which Thou canst not inhabit
 No purpose Thou dost not inspire
 Shut in into silence, my midnight
 Is dawn if Thy Presence I see,
 When I open my doors to Thy coming
 Lo' all things are radiant with Thee

O what is so sweet as to love Thee
 And live with Thee always in sight?
 Lord, enter this house of my being
 And fill every room with Thy Light.
 All honour and praise to the Father
 All honour and praise to the Son
 All honour and praise to the Spirit,
 The Three Who forever are One

Amen.

P Let us pray

We who have been refreshed with Thy heavenly gifts do pray Thee O Lord, that Thy grace may be so grafted inwardly in our hearts that it may continually be made manifest in our lives, through Christ our Lord E. Amen.

THE BENEDICTION

The Priest turns to the people

Unto God's gracious love and protection we commit you the Lord. I bless you and keep you the Lord make His Face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you the Lord lift up the light of His Countenance upon you and give you His peace, now and for evermore E. Amen.

If there be two Priests present the work may be divided between them. The patients may be arranged along the Chancel rail, a considerable space being left between them, and the Priests may pass from one to another, precisely as at the administration of the Holy Eucharist. The first Priest may pronounce the exorcism anoint the patient and lay his hands upon him the second Priest may repeat the laying on of hands, and may then administer the Holy Communion before the patient leaves his place at the rail. In that case the Communion will precede the prayer, "As with this visible oil." If there be more than two Priests the others may come between the first and second abovementioned each of them simply laying his hands on each patient, and using only the formula "Christ the Son of God, etc."

HYMN

The sick man should now make confession of his offences reciting the Confiteor or if he feel his conscience sufficiently troubled with any weighty matter making a special confession (but without the usual form and preliminaries). If the patient be very weak the Confiteor may be said on his behalf by the Priest or another, or it suffices that he make a mental act of aspiration.

O Lord, Thou hast created man to be immortal and made him to be an image of Thine own eternity, yet often we forget the glory of our heritage, and wander from the path which leads to righteousness. THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD

The funeral rites of the Church may be grouped into two divisions, the first including those offices foremost in importance, whose purpose it is to surround the liberated soul with peace and spiritual power. Of these the offering of the Holy Sacrifice for the repose of the soul is the most important and efficacious. The other and less important part of the rite consists in the hallowing of the grave and the consigning into it of the ashes or the cast-off body. To this must be added the work of giving comfort and assurance to the relatives and friends.

This work of giving help and peace to the departed person is inevitably hindered if we surround him with feelings of depression and unhappiness. Every effort should therefore be made to put aside our own very natural sense of sorrow and loss and to think rather of the happiness and peace of the departed soul. In proportion as we can accomplish this do we also gain comfort and strength for ourselves.

re I Host The Host may be placed in a spoon and given with a little wine or water

*Be not deceived God is not mocked for what soever a man soweth that shall he also reap

For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting

And let us not be weary in well doing for in due season we shall reap if we faint not

As we have therefore opportunity let us do good unto all men.

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God and there shall no torment touch them

In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die and their departure is taken for misery and their going from us to be utter destruction but they are in peace

For God created man to be immortal and made him to be an image of His own eternity

To this end I will call upon you to join with me in the recitation (or singing) of the Te Deum (or part of the twenty-third psalm).

TE DEUM LAUDAMUS •

Antiphon

The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away.
Blessed be the Name of the Lord.

1. We praise Thee, O God: we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.

2. All the earth doth worship Thee: the Father everlasting.

3. To Thee all Angels sing aloud: the heavens and all the powers therein.

4. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim: continually do

15 Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father 16 Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father

17 Thou art Alpha and Omega Thou first and last of all

18 Offspring and root of David Thou bright and morning Star

19 Day by day we magnify Thee

20 And we worship Thy Name ever world without end

21 Thou Who from Both dost come O God the Holy Ghost

22 Thee too O Paraclete we worship and adore

23 Thou art the Fount of life the living Fire of love

24 Three in One most holy Lord and God,

25 Co equal co eternal before beginning and with out an end

26 We Thy servants live in Thee and all we have is Thine

27 We bless Thee we magnify Thee most joyous ly we serve Thee

28 O mighty glorious Trinity let all the people praise Thee

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall
be world without end Amen

1. The Lord is my Shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

2. He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3. He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for His Name's sake.

4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

P. O God, in Whose unspeakable love the souls of the departed find rest and peace, in Thy Name we + absolve from every bond of sin Thy servant who has cast off this garment of flesh. May Thy holy Angels bear him in their tender care, that he may enter the brightness of the everlasting light and find his peace in Thee Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen

The following Collects are recited, unless a special Requiem Eucharist is to be celebrated. In that event, the Eucharist begins, and the Collects will be said in the usual place therein. In the case of children, the words "this Thy child" are used instead of "this Thy servant."

P. The Lord be with you •

C And with thy spirit

P. Let us pray

Almighty God, Who hast dominion over both the living and the dead and dost hold all Thy creation in the everlasting arms of Thy love, we pray Thee for the peace and repose of Thy servant, that he, being dead unto this world, yet ever living unto Thee, may find in Thy continued and unceasing service the perfect consummation of happiness and peace Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen

P. Likewise, O Lord, we pray Thee for those who love Thy servant, those whom Thou hast called to sacrifice the solace of his earthly presence, do Thou, O Lord, comfort them with the balm of Thy loving kindness, that, strengthened by Thee and resting upon the surety of Thy wisdom, they may put aside their thoughts of sorrow and grief, and pour out upon him only such thoughts of love as may help him in the higher life of service to which Thou hast now called him. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Epistle, Gospel and Communion from the Requiem Eucharist may follow here if desired

THE BURIAL

The procession bearing the coffin goes to the grave. Before the coffin is lowered the grave is sprinkled with holy water and censed.

[In case of cremation, the urn containing the ashes is sometimes buried in a grave, sometimes deposited in a niche. In the former case the same formalities are observed as with a coffin. In the latter, the niche is treated as the grave, save that of course earth is not thrown therein.]

The following prayer is said by the Priest

O God, Who in Thy providence hast appointed a wondrous ministry of Angels we pray Thee to + hallow this grave, and send down Thy holy Angel from heaven to + bless and sanctify it. Through Christ our Lord R. Amen.

THE SECOND CHARGE

The coffin is then lowered as the Priest says

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of His great love to take unto Himself our dear brother hence departed, we therefore commit this his cast-off body to the ground, earth to earth (here some earth is cast upon the coffin by the Priest or someone standing by), ashes to ashes, dust to dust, that in that more glorious spiritual body which now he weareth, he may be free from earthly chains to serve God as he ought. For I say unto you Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord for the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seem to die and their departure is taken for misery and their going from us to be utter destruction, but they are in peace. For God created man to be immortal, and made him to be an image of His own eternity. The Lord sitteth above the waterfloods, the Lord remaineth a King for ever. The universe is His temple, wisdom strength end beauty are, about His throne as pillars of His works; for His wisdom is infinite, His strength is omnipotent, and His beauty shines through the whole universe in order and symmetry. The heavens He has stretched forth as a canopy, the earth He has planted as His footstool, He crowns His temple with stars as with a diadem, and from His hands flow all power and glory. The sun and the moon are messengers of His will, and all His law is concord. If we ascend up into heaven, He is there, if we go down into hell, He is there also. If we take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there also His hand shall lead us, and His right hand shall hold us. In His almighty care we rest in perfect peace, and equally in His care rests this our loved one, whom He has deigned to draw nearer to the vision of His eternal beauty.

Ever praising Him therefore, in firm but humble confidence we call upon Him and say

O Father of Light, in Whom is no darkness at all, we pray Thee to fill our hearts with calm and peace, and to open within us the eyes of the soul, that we may see by faith the radiance and the glory that Thou art pouring upon us Thy servants. For Thou ever givest us far more than we can ask or think, and it is only through our feebleness and faithlessness that we ever need crave anything from Thine omnipotence. But Thou knowest well the weakness of the human heart, and in Thy limitless love Thou wilt make allowance for our human love when we beseech Thee to grant eternal rest unto this our dear brother and that light perpetual may shine upon him. We thank thee that in Thy loving providence Thou hast drawn him from the unreal towards the Real, from the darkness of earth into Thy glorious light, through the gates of death into a splendour beyond our comprehension. Our loving thought shall follow and surround him, O take Thou this our gift of thought, imperfect though it be, and touch it with the eternal Fire of Thy love so that it may become for him a guardian Angel to help him on his upward way. Thus through Thy loving kindness may we in deep humility and reverence become fellow workers with Thy boundless power, and may our weakness be supported by Thine infinite strength, that we, with this our dearly beloved brother, may in due time attain unto the wisdom of the Spirit Who with the Father and the Son liveth and reigneth, God throughout all ages of ages.

E. Amen.

The following prayer may be added

*P. Almighty God, in Whose light do live the souls of them that depart hence in the Lord, and with Whom the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity, we give Thee hearty thanks, for that it hath pleased Thee to deliver this our brother out of the miseries of this mortal world, and do pray Thee that we may be found worthy, together with all those that are departed in the true faith of Thy holy Name to stand before Thee hereafter in the ranks of Thy glorious Church triumphant. Through Christ our Lord.
E. Amen.

P. ✠ May the souls of all the departed through the love of God rest in peace. E. Amen.

P. ✠ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us all evermore. E. Amen.

Antiphon

God is our hope and strength.

A very present help in trouble

1 Lord, Thou has been our refuge from one generation to another

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made Thou art God from everlasting and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction again Thou sayest Come again ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5 The days of our age are threescore years and ten and though men be so strong that they come to four score years, yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow so soon passeth it away and we are gone

6 So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

THE EPISTLE

The Epistle is taken from the fifteenth chapter of the First Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians beginning at the fifty first verse

Behold I show you a mystery, there is a natural body and there is a spiritual body for this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written Death is swallowed up in victory O death where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord

THE CONFERRING OF MINOR ORDERS

The degrees from Cleric to Acolyte inclusive may be conferred apart from the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, but only in the morning except in the case of Cleric which may be given at any hour. If however they are given during the Eucharist, the ordination to the degree of Cleric shall take place after the Introit and to the other four degrees after the Kyrie

THE ORDINATION OF CLERICS

At the appointed time those about to be made Clerics are summoned by a Priest as follows

Let those who are to be ordained to the Office of Cleric come forward

The ordinands rise from their seats and advance a few paces towards the Bishop bearing lighted candles in their hands. They bow to him the candles are then taken from them and they are seated while the Bishop charges them as follows

Those who in ancient days desired to dedicate their lives to the service of Christ's holy Church were admitted as a preliminary step to this Order of Cleric. Being set apart from the life of the world, they were admonished to put away worldly distractions and secular desires, the abandonment of which as typified by outer adornment of the person, was indicated by the shaving of hair from the head and the relinquishment of secular garb.

You, who now come before us, are likewise minded to dedicate yourselves to the service of Christ, and desire to enter this ancient Order that you may receive help and instruction in preparing yourselves for the life of service. In these later days it is no longer necessary to be tonsured or to wear a special dress outside of the church but none the less is it true that he who wishes faithfully to serve the Christ must set himself apart from the world in that considerations of Christ's work must take pre-eminence over the fulfilment of merely personal desires.

In this grade of Cleric you set before yourselves a great and glorious ideal--to become fellow workers with God to co-operate in His Plan for the perfecting of His creation. For this you must both learn self-control and acquire additional powers. Instead of allowing your body to direct and enslave you, you should endeavour to live for the soul. Wherefore as a first step you must learn in this grade of Cleric to control, and rightly to express yourselves through the physical body as in the next stage that of Door-keeper it will be your duty to control, and rightly to develop the emotions that whatever power in them lies may be used for the service of God. In the grade of Reader you are taught to take in hand the powers of the mind and devote these also to God's service. Having thus diligently laboured at the training of the body the emotions and the mind you enter upon a higher phase of your work and in the Order of Exorcist you develop more definitely the power of the will that you may conquer evil in in the Minor Orders you will have unfolded many powers within yourselves, and with those powers rightly developed and trained will be able to offer acceptable service to Him in Whose service alone is perfect freedom.

In this Order of Cleric then, you must learn self-control with regard to the body. It must be trained to habits of accuracy and neatness; it must be kept in perfect health and cleanliness and you must see that it devotes its energies to God's service, not in disorderliness and selfishness, but in harmony and rhythm. In your gesture in your manner and your speech, strive to show forth the ideal of beauty never forgetting that our physical bodies are the temple of the Holy Ghost. Moreover as you learn to respect your own body so must you scrupulously respect the bodies of others, picturing them ever as the temple of the eternal Beauty.

The charge being ended the ordnands kneel before the Bishop who rises and says

Let us pray

O Lord Christ, Who art ever ready to receive and to strengthen the earnest aspirations of Thy children, look down in Thy love upon these Thy servants, who desire to become worthy to serve Thee as Clerics in Thy holy Church. Sanctify + them, O Lord, with Thy heavenly grace, that growing continually in virtue they may rightly practise the duties of their office and so be found acceptable in Thy sight, O Thou great King of Love, to Whom be glory for ever and ever. E. Amen

The ordnands kneel before the Bishop in succession. He paces his right hand on the head of each as he says:

In the Name of Christ our Lord, I admit thee to the Order of Cleric.

The Bishop places a surplice on each of the ordnands saying to him

I clothe thee with the vesture of holiness, and do admonish thee diligently to develop the powers that are in thee, that thy service may be of good effect

Having ordained the several candidates, he blesses the new Clerics in the following words, unless they are immediately to receive another Order

The blessing of God Almighty, the + Father, the + Son, and the Holy + Ghost come down upon you, that you may rightly fulfil that which to-day you have undertaken. R Amen.

THE ORDINATION OF DOORKEEPERS

At the appointed time those about to be made Doorkeepers are summoned by a Priest, as follows

Let those who are to be ordained to the Office of Doorkeeper come forward.

of noble ideals. Thus may you, in these days discharge the duties of service which marked the work of our earlier brethren.

In this degree you learn control of the emotions and passions, as before you learned to master the crude instincts of the physical body. There are those who have thought of emotion as necessarily evil and have taught others to uproot it from the nature. Not for you is it to think thus. God has given us the power to feel emotion, and it, too, is a power which can become mighty in His service. At whatever stage a man's emotions may be they represent the working of the divine power within him, and should not be suppressed, but raised and consecrated to the service of God. If through carelessness or selfishness the emotions have been allowed to become self-centred, it is our duty not to kill them out, but to purify and raise them to substitute for devotion to our own pleasure devotion to God and humanity to put aside as far as may be of fection for self for the affection that gives, caring nothing for any return. Not to ask love but to give love. Hence it is your task as Doorkeepers to train your emotions, laying them as a gift on Christ's holy Altar that they too may be used in His service.

The charge being ended the ordained kneel before the Bishop who rises and says

Let us pray

O Lord Christ, Who art ever ready to receive and to strengthen the earnest aspirations of Thy children, look down in Thy love upon these Thy servants who desire to become worthy to serve Thee as Doorkeepers in Thy holy Church. Sanctify $\frac{1}{2}$ them. O Lord with Thy heavenly grace that growing continually in virtue they may rightly practise the duties of their office and so be found acceptable in Thy sight, O Thou great King of Love to Whom be glory for ever and ever. R. Amen.

*The ordinands kneel before the Bishop in succession
He places his right hand on the head of each as he says*

In the Name of Christ our Lord, I admit thee to the Order of Doorkeeper

The Bishop hands a key and a bell to each ordinand in turn saying

Like as he who bears the key throwe open the church for the use of all mankind, so shalt thou throw open the doors of thy heart for the service of thy brethren. And as he who rings the bell summons men to divine worship so by the force of good example shalt thou also summon men to the service of God.

Each ordinand locks and unlocks the door of the church and rings the bell thrice

Having ordained the several candidates he blesses the new Doorkeepers in the following words unless they are immediately to receive another Order

*The blessing of God Almighty the + Father the functions, but it is still of the essence of his office that he dedicate the gifts of his mind to the glory of God. You have learned in the preceding Orders that you should control the physical body and train the emotions for service; and you will have seen from experience that in so far as your affection has been bestowed upon others you have greatly helped to develop affection in them. It is now your duty at once to train your own mind and to influence for good the minds of others. As you have had to conquer and control wrong tendencies of emotion, so now is it also necessary to discipline your thought; for just as you know that the physical body is not yourself, nor your emotions, however glorious and beautiful they may be, so also the mind is not you. Your thought is a power, splendid and great, given to you for the service of God: it also has to be your servant and not your master. It needs careful training, and that training is the especial purpose of this step which you are about to take. You will find yourselves prone to wandering thought; this you must conquer. You must develop within yourselves the power of concentration, that you may study effectively and communicate the results of that study to others.

As you had to learn to purify emotion, so also must your mind be pure. As you learned to perceive the necessity for physical cleanliness, or to throw off with repugnance the lower emotion, so also must you thrust away unworthy thought, remembering that all thought is unworthy that is impure, selfish, mean or base; such, for example, as would seek for flaws instead of gems in thinking of the character or work of another. All such thought is impure beside the white light of the thought of the Christ, Who is our pattern and perfect example. Wherefore as Readers it is your duty to train and develop the powers of your mind, to study and fit yourselves that you may help to train and develop the minds of others.

The charge being ended the ordinands kneel before the Bishop, who rises and says

Let us pray

O Lord Christ Who art ever ready to receive and to strengthen the earnest aspirations of Thy children, look down in Thy love upon these Thy servants who desire to become worthy to serve Thee as Readers in Thy holy Church Sanctify + them, O Lord with Thy heavenly grace that growing continually in virtue they may rightly practise the duties of their office and so be found acceptable in Thy sight O Thou great King of Love to Whom be glory for ever and ever R. Amen

The ordinands kneel before the Bishop in succession He places his right hand on the head of each as he says

In the name of Christ our Lord I admit thee to the Order of Reader

The Bishop lays a book to each ordinand saying

Study diligently the Sacred Science that thou mayest the better be able to devote thy mind and all its powers to the service of God

Having ordained the several candidates he blesses the new Readers in the following words unless they are immediately to receive another Order

The blessing of God Almighty the + Father the + Son and the Holy + Ghost come down upon you that you may rightly fulfil that which to day you have undertaken R. Amen

the r hands They bow to him the candles are then taken from them and they are sealed while the Bishop charges the as follows

It was the duty of the Exorcist in the ancient Church to cast out devils to warn the people that non-communicants should make room for those who were going to communion, and to pour out the water needed in divine service. The Book of Exorcisms was handed to him with the words: Take and commit this to memory and receive the power to lay hands on demoniacs whether they be baptized or catechumens. The candidate was admonished that as he cast out devils from the bodies of others he should rid his own mind and body of all uncleanness and wickedness lest he be overcome by those whom he drove out of others by his ministry. For then only would he be able safely to exercise mastery over the demons in others when he should first have overcome their manifold wickedness within himself.

Such exorcism as is now performed in the Church is undertaken only by those who have been ordained Priest, and even for them a special authorization is usually required. Also with the passage of time the other duties attaching to the Office of Exorcist have fallen into abeyance. Moreover our conception of these matters is different in some respects from that entertained in former times. Men of old thought of temptation as being due to the attacks of demons from without. But in truth this is not generally so. There lies behind each one of us a past which since we are growing in grace must have been less desirable than the present. There are habits very instincts, built into the bodies which rise against us when we try to live the higher life. This which we try to conquer is not a devil of great power attacking us from outside nor is it even inherent wickedness in ourselves. It is the consequence and relic of earlier action permitted in days of ignorance. In this grade of Exorcist it is your duty by strenuous effort to develop the power of the will, and by its exercise to cast out from yourselves the evil spirit of separateness and selfishness. Having learned to control your own evil habits you will have greater power to help others to cast out the evil from themselves not only by example but by precept and even by direct action on your part. In olden time it was often true and still in rare cases remains true that through weakness or by persistence in evil men allowed their bodies to become obsessed or partially controlled by evil spirits. To some especial power and authority are given to hold unclean spirits in check and to cast out this evil influence from the bodies of others. There are some too who possess the gift of healing and are able by the virtue flowing from them to alleviate suffering and soothe afflictions of the body this gift may likewise be strengthened in the Order of Exorcist indeed, in ancient times the Exorcist was regarded as a healer in the Church.

Wherefore dearly beloved sons strive diligently in this new office to which you are called to exercise mastery over yourselves that you may the more effectively help others to gain a similar mastery over their weakness.

The charge being ended the ordinands kneel before the Bishop who rises and says

Let us pray

O Lord Christ, Who art ever ready to receive and to strengthen the earnest aspirations of Thy children, look down in Thy love upon these Thy servants who desire to become worthy to serve Thee as Exorcists in Thy holy Church. Sanctify them, O Lord, with Thy heavenly grace that growing continually in virtue they may rightly practise the duties of their office and so be found acceptable in Thy sight. O Thou great King of Love, to Whom be glory for ever and ever. E. Amen.

The ordinands kneel before the Bishop in succession He places his right hand on the head of each as he says

In the Name of Christ our Lord I admit thee to the Order of Exorcist

The Bishop lends a sword and a book to each ordinand and saying

Take this sword for a symbol of the will, and this book for a symbol of knowledge whereby, thou shalt be strong in the warfare of the spirit

Having ordained the several candidates he blesses the new Exorcists in the following words unless they are immediately to receive another Order

The blessing of God Almighty the + Father, the + Son, and the Holy + Ghost come down upon you, that you may rightly fulfil that which to-day you have undertaken E. Amen.

THE ORDINATION OF ACOLYTES

At the appointed time those about to be made Acolytes are summoned by a Priest as follows

Let those who are to be ordained to the Office of Acolyte come forward

The ordinands rise from their seats and advance a few paces towards the Bishop bearing lighted candles in their hands They bow to him the candles are then taken from them and they are seated while the Bishop charges them as follows

It was the duty of the Acolyte in olden times to carry the candlestick, to light the tapers and lamps of the church, and to present wine and water for the Eucharistic offering These duties are no longer confined to the Acolyte but are usually discharged by lay boys or men therefore, as in the case of the previous Orders we treat the duties as symbolical and invest them with a moral significance, Where the Acolyte served before the Altar of the church, you now serve before the altar of the human heart on which each man must truly offer himself as a sacrifice to God. You will have noticed that in the former degrees the training consisted partly in the cultivation of your own powers but also in learning to exercise those powers for the helping of others. Assuredly this training through which you have passed were vain did it not lead you for Christ's sake to consecrate your powers to the wider interests of humanity. Remember the words of the Christ: how He said "Whosoever will be great among you let him be your minister and whosoever will be chief among you let him be your servant even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto but to minister. Wherefore as you are about to offer yourselves to Him to be enrolled in the fellowship of those who seek to be in very truth spiritual servers of the world do you endeavour in singleness of heart to perform the office you now undertake. For then only will you meetly present wine and water to be used at the Sacrifice of God when by the continual practice of unselfishness you shall have offered yourselves as an acceptable sacrifice to God.

man. It is our duty to see that Light in everyone, however dimly it may burn however veiled and darkened it may appear to our ordinary perception. And having learned thus to recognize the Light both in ourselves and in others we may help them to cause that radiance of their inner Divinity to shine forth in its pristine glory and splendour till the Light within becomes one with the universal Light without. To this end, indeed, are we constantly admonished in the words of the Christian scriptures. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father Who is in heaven.

They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, but they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. Let your loins be girded about and your lights burning. Again, the Apostle Paul says. In the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom shine ye as lights in the world. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness and let us put on the armour of light. For ye were sometimes darkness but now are ye light in the Lord walk as children of light.

This degree of Acolyte is intended to help you to quicken your spiritual faculties, and especially the intuition through which the light of the divine love and wisdom may lighten your understanding. As you fulfil worthily your ministry by helping others, so shall you be helped by those Great Ones, Whose ears are never deaf Whose hearts are never closed against the world They love.

O Lord, with Thy heavenly grace that growing continually in virtue they may rightly practise the duties of their office and so be found acceptable in Thy sight, O Thou great King of Love, to Whom be glory for ever and ever R Amen

He places his right hand on the head of each saying*

In the Name of Christ our Lord I admit thee to the Order of Acolyte

The Bishop hands a candlestick with lighted candle to each ordinand saying

As thou dost bear this visible light so shalt thou ever shed around thee the brightness of the divine Light

The Bishop hands a chalice to each ordinand saying

See to it that thou dost pour out thy life in union with the great Sacrifice by which the world is maintained

THE ORDINATION OF SUBDEACONS

The Bishop celebrates the Holy Eucharist, using the following special Collect:

THE COLLECT

Almighty everlasting God, by Whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is made holy and governed, do Thou pour forth Thy sanctifying grace into the hearts of these Thy servants, who are about to be numbered among the Subdeacons of Thy Church, that with pure heart and open mind they may faithfully receive Thy blessing from on high. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Collect of the Day and the Collect for Peace follow here.

The Collects being ended, the Bishop takes his seat upon a foldstool before the Altar. The ordinands come forward bearing lighted candles. The Bishop charges them as follows:-

Dearly beloved sons, this Order of Subdeacon is a grade of probation for the Greater Orders of Deacon and Priest. It gives to those who receive it greater strength and steadfastness of purpose, to the end that with singleness of heart they may dedicate their lives to Christ in His holy Church. So great, indeed, is the responsibility laid upon those who in these Greater Orders become Christ's representatives, that a season of trial in this preparatory grade of the Subdiaconate is oftentimes appointed, wherein they who aspire to so sublime an estate may test themselves if need be, more especially if they be young in body or in experience of matters ecclesiastical, that they enter not lightly or unadvisedly upon so solemn an undertaking.

His kingdom upon earth are now moved in your hearts to devote, yourselves still further to His service and to that of your brethren. On this purpose we invoke the Divine blessing and with the help and ready concurrence of the faithful here assembled, shall now proceed in the exercise of our office to bring you as a holy oblation into the Presence of Christ not doubting that at the latter end you, having the witness of faithful service will shine pure and lustre as jewels in the crown of our Master

The Bishop rises and addresses the congregation as follows

Let us then pray dearest brethren, that Almighty God in His great lovingkindness and watchful care over His Church may bestow a plentiful grace on these Acolytes now about to be raised to the Order of the Subdiaconate

Source of strength, of knowledge clear Wisdom, godliness sincere Understanding counsel, cheer
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Source of courage love and peace,
Patience pureness faith's increase Hope and joy that cannot cease
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Spirit guiding us aright,
Spirit making darkness light,
Spirit of resistless might
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Thine is an unchanging love
Higher than the heights above
Lord, life-giver holy Dove
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Come to aid the souls who yearn
More of truth Divine to learn,
And with deeper love to burn
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Keep us in the narrow way
Warn us when we go astray
Fill us with Thy glorious Ray
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

May we from temptation turn,
Secrets of Thy kingdom learn,
Feel Thy Fire within us burn
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Help us nobly to endure,
Keep us faithful, keep us pure,
Ever wiser stronger truer
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

and paten to each ordinand who touches it with the right hand while the Bishop says

Take heed to that the ministry whereof is committed to thee I admonish thee so to demean thyself in thy ministry as to be commendable in the sight of God

The Bishop touches the amice which is upon the neck of each ordinand saying

Take the amice by which restraint of the tongue is signified In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen

The Bishop places the maniple on the left arm of each saying

Take the maniple by which is meant the fruit of good works In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen

THE ORDINATION OF DEACONS

The Bishop celebrates the Holy Eucharist at which the following special Collect and Epistle are used

THE COLLECT

Almighty everlasting God by Whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is made holy and governed do Thou pour forth Thy sanctifying grace into the hearts of these Thy servants who are about to be numbered among the Deacons of Thy Church, that with pure heart and open mind they may faithfully receive the gift of the Holy Spirit Through Christ our Lord. R Amen

THE EPISTLE

The Epistle is taken from the fourth chapter of the Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians, beginning at the seventh verse

But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ And He gave some apostles and some prophets and some evangelists and some pastors and teachers for the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry for the edifying of the body of Christ till we all come in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ That we therefore be no more children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine but, speaking the truth in love may grow up into Him in all things Who is the head even Christ from Whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth accord ing to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

Here endeth the Epistle

The Epistle being ended the Bishop takes his seat upon a stool set before the Altar. The ordinands come forward bearing lighted candles and a Priest appointed for the purpose presents them to the Bishop, saying

Right Reverend Father our holy Mother the Church catholic prays that you would ordain these Subdeacons here present to the charge of the Diaconate

And if Knowest thou them to be worthy?

P. As far as human frailty allows me to judge I do both know and attest that they are worthy of the charge of this office

B Thanks be to God.

The ordinands are then seated and the Bishop charges the clergy and people as follows

Dearly beloved brethren, these Subdeacons here before you are presented for the Order of the Diaconate to be irrevocably set apart for the service of Christ by the gift of God's most holy Spirit. Mindful of the sacred trust reposed in us we have sought to ensure that only such as may be profitable to Christ's holy Church be thus presented yet for further precaution it is seemly that we should enquire if any know cause or just impediment why these persons should not be admitted to the exercise of the Deacon's office. If then any of you know aught against them in the Name of God and for the benefit of This Church, let him boldly come forward and speak, howbeit let him be mindful of his own estate

After a pause, the Bishop addressing himself to the ordinands charges them as follows

Dearly beloved sons, who are now about to be raised to the Order of Deacon, do you endeavour to receive it worthily and blamelessly to fulfil its duties when you have received it. * It appertains to the Deacon to minister at the Altar to read or intone the Gospel, to preach and in the absence of the Priest to baptize Wherefore dearly beloved sons, as now you are charged to minister to the flock of Christ be you raised above all unworthy propensities which war against the soul be seemly courteous in demeanour and full of noble desires and of love for God and man, as befits the ministers of Christ and stewards charged to dispense the mysteries of God. And as you now have a share in offering and dispensing the Body and Blood of the Lord as Holy Writ has it Be ye clean, ye that bear the vessels of the Lord. Be it your care to set forth to others, by living deeds, the gospel your lips will proclaim to them that of you it may be said How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings that publisheth peace

Should the Sacrament have been conferred during the same service this Litany will already have been sung and will not therefore be repeated

God the Father seen of none
 God the co-eternal Son
 God the Spirit, with Them One
 Hear us, Holy Trinity

God Eternal, mighty King
 Unto Thee our love we bring
 Through the world Thy praises ring
 We are Thine O Trinity

Christ the Lord of Life and Light
 Ruler of the starry height
 Fount of glory infinite
 Thee we worship Master

Mighty Lord, we hail Thee here,
 Recognize Thy Presence dear
 Feel and know that Thou art near Keeping thus Thy promise

Though Thy face we cannot see
 As of old in Galilee
 Strong in faith we worship Thee
 Ever present Master

From our fathers we have heard
 Of the gift Thy Hand conferred
 We have proved Thy holy word
 Be that gift outpoured.

Though Thy form from earth hath gone Thine Apostles handed on Sacramental benison
 Be that blessing with us

We this power would now convey
 Strengthen Thou our hands, we pray
 Pour Thy might through us to-day
 Hear us, Holy Master

Monarch at Thy Feet we kneel,
 For Thy servants we appeal Fill their hearts with holy zeal *
 In Thy service Master

Thou of holy Church the Head
 Mystic power upon them shed,
 By Thy love may they be led
 Hear us, Holy Master

Link in mystic bond with Thee
 These Thy Deacons may they be
 From the world and self not free
 By Thy power O Master

May they stand before Thy Face
 Filled with love and heavenly grace
 Grant them with Thy saints a place Near Thee Lord and Master

*The three verses which follow are sung by the Bishop

The people are seated

The Bishop rises, and with hands extended towards the ordinands, who kneel before him, says the following prayer

O Lord Christ, the Fountain of all goodness Who by the operation of the Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders in Thy Church and for its greater enrichment and perfecting dost pour down Thy gifts abundantly upon men, we pray Thee to + open to Thy heavenly grace the hearts and minds of these Thy servants who are about to be numbered among the Deacons of Thy Church, that through them Thy power may abundantly flow for the service of Thy people For our part, as men lacking the divine insight, and ignorant of the supreme judgment we have enquired into their lives to the best of our ability But what to us is unknown cannot escape Thee, O Lord nor are hidden things concealed from Thee Thou penetratest all secrets, Thou art the Searcher of hearts Thou wilt test their lives by Thy heavenly judgment, wherein Thou dost ever prevaill Wherefore we pray Thee O Lord and heavenly Master, to hallow and strengthen with Thy mighty + blessing these whom we now set apart to the end

Great Paraclete, to Thee we cry,
O highest gift of God most high,
O living Fount, O Fire, O Love,

Thou in Thy sevenfold gifts art known,
Thee, Finger of God's Hand, we own,
The promise of the Father, Thou
Who dost the tongue with power endow

Kindle our senses from above,
And make our hearts o'erflow with love,
With patience firm and virtue high
The weakness of our flesh supply

Far let us drive our tempting foe,
And Thine abiding peace bestow,
So shall we not, with Thee for guide,
Turn from the path of life aside

O may Thy grace on us bestow
The Father and the Son to know,
And Thee through endless times confessed
Of both eternal Spirit blest.

All glory while the ages run
Be to the Father and the Son,
Who gave us life, the same to Thee,
O Holy Ghost, eternally Amen.

faithful performance of this ministry May that power ever flow forth in their actions and kindle their speech, may they be resolute and steadfast in the service of their brethren so that, having always the witness of a good conscience they may continue strong and stable in Christ, pillars in the temple of our God, Thon Who with the Father and the Son livest and reignest, God throughout all ages of ages R Amen

The Bishop is seated and vests each new Deacon with a white stole, which is placed over the left shoulder and fastened under the right arm He makes the sign of the cross over the heart of each new Deacon, as he says

Take thou the white + stole for a symbol of thine office, remembering that as for the service and love of man thou dost exercise the power which now is in thee, so will it flow through thee in ever greater fullness and glory *

The Bishop vests each new Deacon with a dalmatic saying

The Lord clothe thee with the vesture of gladness and ever encompass thee with the dalmatic of justice In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen

The Bishop delivers to each new Deacon the Book of Gospels, saying

Take thou authority to read the Gospel in the Church of God, both for the living and the dead. In the Name of the + Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen

He rises, and blesses them in this wise

O Christ, the Lord of Love Who by the heavenly and earthly service of Angels which Thon orderest, dost shed over all the elements the efficacy of Thy will, pour out on these Thy servants of the fullness of Thy + blessing that in the fellowship of those glorious Angels they may minister worthily at Thy holy Altars, and being endowed with heavenly virtue and grace they may ever be watchful and zealous in the service of Thy Church Thou Who reignest for ever and ever R. Amen.

One of the newly ordained Deacons reads the Gospel

THE GOSPEL

The Holy Gospel is taken from the fifth and chapter of that according to St. Luke beginning at the third verse

And He spake this parable unto them, saying What man of you, having an hundred sheep if he lose one of them doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders rejoicing And when he cometh home he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them Rejoice with me for I have found my sheep which was lost I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance

The Holy Evangelist is continued to its close

IN THE PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

In the Prayer of Consecration the following clause is inserted after the words for all our Bishops clergy and faithful

Especially for these whom in Christ a holy Name we have admitted to the Order of the Diaconate

THE ORDINATION OF PRIESTS

THE COLLECT

Almighty, everlasting God, by Whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is made holy and governed, do Thou pour forth Thy sanctifying grace into the hearts of these Thy servants, who are about to be numbered among the Priests of Thy Church that with pure heart and open mind they may faithfully receive Thy blessing from on high. Through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

The Epistle is taken from the fifth chapter of the First Epistle General of St Peter, beginning at the first verse

The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed. Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof not by constraint but willingly, not for filthy lucre but of a ready mind, neither as being lords over God's heritage but being ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. The God of all grace Who hath called us unto His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. To Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Here endeth the Epistle

but heavy burden of the Priesthood, to charge you how great is the dignity and responsibility of this office and how weighty are the duties to be performed by those ordained thereto. It appertains to the Priest to offer sacrifice, to bless, to preside, to loose and to bind, to anoint, to preach and to baptize.

Wherefore, dearly beloved sons, whom the award of our brethren has chosen that you may be consecrated to this office as our helpers after solemn premeditation only and with great awe is so sublime an office to be approached and great indeed must be the care with which we determine that they who are chosen to represent our Blessed Lord and to preside in His Church commend themselves by great wisdom by worthiness of life and the persevering practice of justice and truth. Do you then, dearly beloved sons, keep these things in remembrance and let the fruit thereof be seen in your walk and conversation, in chaste and holy integrity of life in continually abounding in all manner of good works. Strive without ceasing to increase within yourselves the perfection of heavenly love that having your hearts filled with the love of God and of man you may be almoners of Christ's blessing and bearers of His love to the hearts of mankind. Forget never how great a privilege is yours to bring the little ones to Him through the gateway of baptism and to lift the heavy burden of the sorrow and sin of the world by the grace of absolution. Consider attentively what you do imitate those things which in the Church of God it is your duty to handle and to transact. And forasmuch as you will now be called upon to offer the Holy Sacrifice before the throne of God, and to celebrate the sacred mysteries of the Lord's love, be earnest in ridding your members of all imperfections. Ye whose duty it is to offer unto God the sweet incense of prayer and adoration let your teaching be a spiritual remedy unto God's people let your words of blessing and consolation be their help and strength, let the sweet savour of your life be a fragrance in the Church of God.

Thus both by word and deed may, you fashion the temple of God, so that neither shall we appear blame worthy before the Lord, who in His Name shall thus advance you, nor ye who shall thus be advanced *but rather may we all find acceptance and abundant recompense for this day's act, which of His infinite goodness and lovingkindness may He deign to grant

The ord hands rise

B Will you thus strive to use worthily the powers entrusted to you ?

Ordinands I will

B The Lord keep you in all these things well beloved sons, and strengthen you in all goodness.
R Amen.

The Bish'p rises and addresses the people as follows

Let us pray dearest brethren, that Almighty God, in His great lovingkindness and watchful care over His Church, may bestow a plentiful grace on these Deacons now about to be raised to the Order of the Priesthood.

 We are Thine O Trinity

O Lord Christ, the Fountain of all goodness, Who by the operation of the Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders in Thy Church, and for its greater enrichment and perfecting dost shed Thy gifts abundantly upon men, do Thou pour forth Thy sanctifying grace upon these Thy servants, who are about to be numbered among the Priests of Thy Church. May their hands be strong to achieve, may wisdom guide and direct their lives, may the beauty of holiness sanctify them and shed a spiritual fragrance about their path, so that in all their works begun, continued and ended in Thee, they may show forth the abundance of Thy power and glorify Thy holy Name, O Thou great King of Love, to Whom be praise and adoration from men and from the Angel host R. Amen.

In silence the Bishop lays both hands on the head of each ordinand. The same is done after him successively by all the Priests present. When this is over both the Bishop and the Priests having their right hands extended towards the ordinands, the Bishop says the following:

O Lord Christ, Whose strength is in the silence, grant that these Thy servants whom now Thou dost join unto Thyself in the holy bond of the Priesthood may henceforward minister faithfully of the priestly power to those who ask in Thy Name R. Amen

R. Let us pray, dearest brethren, that Almighty God may multiply the gifts of the Spirit in these His servants for the work of the Priesthood we pray Thee O Lord, to + open to Thy heavenly grace the hearts and minds of these Thy servants who have been raised to the Priesthood that through them Thy power may abundantly flow for the service of Thy people. May they be earnest and zealous as fellow workers in our Order and thus prove themselves worthy of the sacred charge committed unto them. And, as by a spotless blessing they now shall change for the service of Thy people bread and wine into the most holy Body and Blood of Thy Son, may they be ever watchful that they keep the vessel of their ministry pure and undefiled. May every kind of righteousness spring forth within them and may their hearts be so filled with compassion for the multitude that they may forget themselves in the love of others. Thus steadfast in that Thy most joyous service may the radiance of Thy love and Thy glory shine ever more brightly in their hearts till they rise unto mature spiritual manhood unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ when their lives shall be hid with Christ in God. R Amen whatsoever they + bless may be blessed, and whatsoever they consecrate may be consecrated and hallowed, in the Name of our Lord Christ. R. Amen.

The Bishop closes the hands together, palm to palm, and they are bound together with a white linen strip. The Bishop delivers to each new Priest a chalice containing wine and water, with a paten and a host upon it, saying

Take thou authority to offer sacrifices to God, and to celebrate the Holy Eucharist both for the living and for the dead. In the Name of the Lord. R. Amen.

The Bishop and the Priests cleanse their hands. The Celebration is continued one of the newly ordained Priests going to the Altar and reading the Gospel as follows

THE GOSPEL

The holy Gospel is taken from the twentieth chapter of that according to St John, beginning at the nineteenth verse, and from the twenty-eighth chapter of that according to St Matthew, beginning at the eighteenth verse

The same day at evening being the first day of the week when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews came Jesus, and stood in the midst and saith unto them Peace be unto you. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus unto them again Peace be unto you as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and saith unto them Receive ye the Holy Ghost. Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them, and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

Jesus spake unto them, saying All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and lo I am with you alway even unto the consummation of the age

Just before the Offertorium the new Priests kneel before the Bishop and each presents to him a lighted candle as a visible token of gratitude for the gift received and of the sacrifice of their lives for Christ's work. Thereafter the new Priests recite with the Bishop the remainder of the Holy Eucharist word for word taking particular care to say simultaneously with him the Words of Consecration with due intention to consecrate

In the Prayer of Consecration the following clause is added after the words for all our Bishops clergy and faithful :

Especially for these whom in Christ's holy Name we have admitted to the Order of the Priesthood.

The Bishop charges them thus e

Dearly beloved sons, as what 'you have to handle is not without its mischances, I warn you that you do most diligently attend to the course of the Holy Eucharist, and especially to that which regards the consecration, the breaking and communion of the Host. Be you also careful that in everything which appertains to the administration of the Sacraments of Christ's holy Church, you do adhere to the form set forth by lawful authority and presume not to depart therefrom in any detail. e

He blesses the new Priests kneeling before him, as follows

The blessing of God Almighty the + Father the + Son, and the Holy + Ghost, come down upon you, that you may be blessed in the priestly Order and in the offering of sacrifice to Almighty God, to Whom belong honour and glory to the ages of ages. R. Amen.

The Bishop is again seated upon the foldstool and addresses the new Priests as follows

Dearly beloved sons, consider attentively the Order you have taken and be ever mindful of the sacred trust reposed in you. Since it hath pleased our Lord to call you thus closer to Himself forget not the service of your brethren, which is the golden pathway to His most glorious Presence. Freely ye have received, freely give.

The Communion is sung and the Holy Eucharist is continued to its close -

THE CONSECRATION OF A BISHOP

At the conclusion of the Asperges the Consecrator takes his seat upon the foldstoil the assistant Bishops and Bishop Fleet rise and taking the hand of the latter, the senior assistant Bishop addresses the Consecrator in these words

Most Reverend Father our holy Mother the Church catholic prays that you would raise this Priest here present to the charge of the Episcopate

 God the Spirit, with Them One
 Hear us Holy Trinity

God Eternal, mighty King
 Unto Thee our love we bring
 We are Thine O Trinity

Christ the Lord of Life and Light
 Ruler of the starry height
 Fount of glory infinite
 Thee we worship Master

Recognize Thy Presence dear
Feel and know that Thou art near,
Keeping thus Thy promise

Though Thy Face we cannot see
As of old in Galilee
Strong in faith we worship Thee,
Ever present Master

From our fathers we have heard
Of the gift Thy Hand conferred
We have proved Thy holy word,
Be that gift outpoured,

Though Thy form from earth hath go
Thine Apostles handed on Sacramental benison,
Be that blessing with us

We this power would now convey,
Strengthen Thou our hands, we pray
Pour Thy might through us to-day,
Hear us, Holy Master

Monarch, at Thy Feet we kneel
For Thy servant we appeal,
Fill his heart with holy zeal
In Thy service, Master

Just before this the Consecrator rises receives the 2^d^o and turns towards the prostrate Bish p Elect The assistant Bishops do likewise Together they chant these 14th verses blessing him at the appointed places

We beseech Thee hear our prayer
Bless + Thy servant prostrate there Hold him in Thy loving care
Hear us Holy Trinity

Hear Thy servants as they pray
Help Thy chosen one to-day Bless + and + hallow him for aye
Hear us, Holy Trinity

Pour Thy lovingkindness great
On Thy chosen candidate
Bless + him + hallow + consecrate
Hear us, Holy Trinity

The Bishops kneel and the following verse is read
God the Father seen of none
God the Co-eternal Son,
God the Spirit with Them One,

dignity to which we are about to raise him he may shine resplendent with all manner of heavenly virtue
 O Thou great Shepherd and Bishop of the souls of men to Whom be praise and adoration from men and from the Angel host E Amen

All kneel as the Veni Creator is sung

Come Thou Creator Spirit blest,
 And in our souls take up Thy rest
 Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid,
 To fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

Great Paraclete to Thee we cry
 O highest gift of God most high

 Turn from the path of life aside.

The people remain kneeling The Consecrator and the assistant Bishops rise, they lay both hands upon the head of the Bishop Elect, and together say slowly and distinctly the words of consecration

Receive the Holy Ghost for the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God

After a pause, with hands extended over the new Bishop, the Consecrator continues with the following prayer, the assistant Bishops likewise extending their hands, and, as already indicated, accompanying him in a low voice

O God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, most blessed and adorable Trinity, Who wert and art and art to come, as Thou hast now bestowed upon this Thy servant of Thine awful power, and hast deigned to consecrate him as Thy representative and a teacher of Thy people, + open we pray Thee, his heart and mind to Thy heavenly grace, that he may handle wisely that which he has received and being ever mindful of Thee he may exercise his sacred power to the honour and glory of Thy holy Name Fulfil in Thy chosen Bishop the perfection of Thy service, and, having entrusted him with the supreme dignity, do Thou sanctify him with unction from above

The head of the newly made Bishop is then bound with a long napkin and the Consecrator anoints him with Holy Chrism in token of his authority and dignity as a prince of the Church saying, to him

May thy head be anointed and consecrated with heavenly blessing in the pontifical Order so that the power which thou dost receive from on high may flow forth from thee in ever greater abundance and glory In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen

The Consecrator, again extending his hands, says

The people remain kneeling. The Consecrator and the assistant Bishops rise, they lay both hands upon the head of the Bishop Elect, and together say slowly and distinctly the words of consecration.

After a pause, with hands extended over the new Bishop the Consecrator continues with the following prayer, the assistant Bishops likewise extending their hands, and as already indicated, accompanying him in a low voice

O God the Father God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, most blessed and adorable Trinity, Who wert and art and art to come, as Thou hast now bestowed upon this Thy servant of Thine awful power, and hast daigned to consecrate him as Thy representative and a teacher of Thy people + open, we pray Thee his heart and mind to Thy heavenly grace, that he may handle wisely that which he has received and, being ever mindful of Thee he may exercise his sacred power to the honour and glory of Thy holy Name. Fulfil in Thy chosen Bishop the perfection of Thy service and having entrusted him with the supreme dignity, do Thou sanctify him with unction from above

The head of the newly made Bishop is then bound with a long napkin and the Consecrator anoints him with Holy Chrism in token of his authority and dignity as a prince of the Church saying, to him

Thou Who art Wisdom, Strength and Beauty, show forth Thy glory in this Thy servant. Let Thy wisdom dwell in his mind and enlighten his understand ing, that in judgment he may be true and a wise counsellor unto his people discerning, in all spiritual knowledge. May he be strong and of a good courage sustaining his people in the face of darkness and dependency, a tower of strength to them that falter on the way. Let the beauty of holiness shine forth in his conversation and his actions. Do Thou fill him, O Lord, with reverence and make him devout and steadfast in Thy service. May gentleness adorn his life, that he may win the hearts of men and open them to the light of the Holy Spirit. Above all, may he be so filled with Thy love that he may touch the hearts of men with the fire from heaven and bring them from the darkness of ignorance into Thy marvellous Light. Thou Who livest and reignest, O Trinity of Might and Wisdom and Love one holy God throughout all ages of ages. R. Amen.

The Consecrator being seated, anoints the hands of the new Bishop with the Holy Chrism. He says

May these hands be consecrated and hallowed for the work of the pontifical Order by this anointing with the holy chrism of sanctification. In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost. R. Amen.

to bless the pastor & staff pectoral cross and ring Taking the staff in his hands he says

* Eternal Triune God, before Whose great white throne seven flaming Spirits stand, Whom yet Thou dost send forth through all the world, + pour out upon this staff Thy sevenfold fire that it may be a rod of power for the ruling and strengthening of Thy Church Through Christ our Lord R Amen

Hold up the cross between his hands he says

Almighty God, Who of Thine own most holy will didst offer Thyself as a sacrifice for all the world and hast by that limitation of Thyself hallowed the sign of the cross and made it for ever Thine own, let the seven Rays of Thine ineffable glory + shine through this sacred symbol that this holy cross may ever be a radiant sun to him who weareth it, and a fount of light and benison to all Thy faithful people O Thou Who reignest from the cross for ever R Amen.

He holds the ring between his joined hands and says

O Christ, pure Lord of Love Whom Angel hosts obey touch Thou with sacred fire this ring which in Thy Name we + bless, that he who wears it shall ever show Thy love and purity and all who touch it shall know Thy healing grace R Amen.

The new Bishop's hands are washed the napkin is removed from his head and he cleanses his hands The Consecrator presents the staff to the new Bishop say ing

Receive this staff and wield thy power with care as shepherd of Christ's flock By virtue of the sevenfold fire of God the Holy Ghost be thou all things to all men giving more strength unto the strong yet showing gentleness unto the weak full of wisdom for the wise and for the devout full of deep devotion Yet as the seven flashing colours of the bow make but one pure white ray so shall thy sevenfold power be all the one great power of love

JESUS said unto His disciples I will pray the Father and He shall give you another Comforter that He may abide with you for ever even the Spirit of Truth Whom the world cannot receive because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him, but ye know Him for He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you I will not leave you comfortless I will come to you Yet a little while and the world seeth Me no more but ye see Me because I live ye shall live also The Comforter Which is the Holy Ghost, Whom the Father will send in My Name He shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you not as the world giveth give I unto you Let not your heart be troubled neither let it be afraid

t the faldstool The mitre and gloves of the new Bishop are held before the Consecrator and he blesses them The three Bishops place the mitre on the head of the newly consecrated Bishop the Consecrator saying

Receive this mitre, wherewith I crown thee for the service of that our most dear Lord, Who although He be God and man, yet He is not two but one Christ and as in Himself He doth indissolubly unite two natures so mayest thou in thyself for ever join the attributes of wisdom and of love.

The Consecrator with the aid of the assistant Bishops puts the gloves on the hands of the new Bishop This being accomplished the Consecrator rises and says

Do Then, we pray Thee O Lord, fulfil in Thy servant that which is betokened by these visible emblems so that the virtue which in these garments is prefigured by sheen of gold, by flashing of gems and cunning of varied embroidery may continually shine forth in his life and actions R. Amen

4 To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry

5 Holy Holy Holy Lord God of Hosts

6 Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of Thy glory

7 The glorious company of the apostles praise Thee

8 The goodly fellowship of the prophets praise Thee

9 The noble army of martyrs praise Thee

10 The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee

11 The Father of an infinite majesty

12 Thine honourable true and only Son

13 Also the Holy Ghost the Comforter

14 Thou art the King of Glory O Christ

15 Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father

16 Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father

17 Thou art Alpha and Omega Thou first and last of all

18 Ourspring and root of David Thou bright and morning Star

19 Day by day we magnify Thee

20 And we worship Thy Name ever world without end

21 Thou Who from Both dost come O God the Holy Ghost

22 Thee too O Paraclete we worship and adore

23 Thou art the Fount of Life the living Fire of love

24 Three in One most holy Lord and God

25 Co equal co eternal before beginning and with 27 We bless Thee we magnify Thee, most joyously we serve Thee

28 O mighty, glorious Trinity let all the people
praise Thee

Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Antiphon

The light of the Lord leadeth him
Who giveth wisdom to the godly

When the procession returns to the sanctuary the new Bishop is seated on the throne or fold-stool the Consecrator standing upon the right hand and the assistant Bishops upon the left. The Consecrator turns to the people and says

The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit

Con Let us pray

O God, the Shepherd and Ruler of all the faithful, look down in Thy lovingkindness on this servant of Thine who has now become a pontiff and ruler in Thy Church grant him, we pray Thee, O Lord, both by his ministration and by word and example, so to profit those over whom he is placed that, together with the flock committed to his care he may continually increase in the knowledge of Thy mysteries.
Through Christ our Lord. R.*Amen.

P. Who hath made heaven and earth.

B. (turning to the people). The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of His Son, Christ our Lord, and the blessing of God Almighty, the + Father, the  Son, and the Holy + Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. R. Amen.

THE HOMAGE

The newly consecrated Bishop then pays homage to the Consecrator according to the ancient tradition of the Church. He advances by three stages from the epistle side of the sanctuary towards the Consecrator, genuflecting each time and saying "Ad Multos Annos" ("unto many years"), finally receiving from the Consecrator the salutation of peace. This concluded, the procession leaves the chancel. *

A FORM OF ADMISSION TO THE LIBERAL CATHOLIC CHURCH

To be used when conditional re-baptism or Confirmation is not administered.

The Priest stands at the entrance to the sanctuary the candidate standing before him

Priest In the Name of the Father  and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost R Amen.

Candidate Reverend Father I desire to be admitted into the fellowship of the Liberal Catholic Church.

P Wilt thou strive to live in the spirit of love with all mankind, and manfully to fight against sin and selfishness?

Can I will.

P Wilt thou strive to show forth in thy thoughts, thy words and thy works the power of God which is in thee?

Can. I will

growing continually in virtue he may serve before Thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of his life and thus*may be found worthy to obtain the riches and the neverfading glory of Thy kingdom, O Thou great Master of the hearts of men, to Whom be praise and adoration for evermore R Amen

The Priest lays his hand upon the head of the new member, raising it only to make the sign of the cross, and says

P The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, + the Son, and the Holy Ghost rest upon thee, that thou mayest faithfully serve before Him all the days of thy life R Amen

P The Lord keep thee in all these things, well beloved son, and strengthen thee in all goodness R Amen.

The Priest says the following prayer with hands extended towards the candidate

O Lord Christ, Who art ever ready to receive and to strengthen the earnest aspirations of Thy children, look down in Thy love upon this Thy servant who desires to minister as a Singer in Thy holy Church. Sanctify + him, O Lord, with Thy heavenly grace, and so fill his heart with heavenly music that his life may resound with Thy praise R Amen

The Priest lays his hand upon the candidate's head, raising it only to make the sign of the cross, and says

The blessing of God Almighty the Father, + the Son, and the Holy Ghost come down upon thee, that thou mayest rightly fulfil that which to day thou hast undertaken R Amen.

THE ADMISSION OF A SERVER

The Priest stands at the foot of the Altar steps, the candidate standing before him.

Priest. In the Name of the Father,  and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. R. Amen.

P. You should understand that in being admitted as a Server in the Church a great privilege is being given to you. The Altar of a Church is the throne of God, and a centre of most powerful spiritual influence. You are admitted to the sanctuary, or specially sacred part of the Church, immediately around the Altar, and it is part of your duty and privilege to be a channel of this spiritual influence, and to help to pour it out upon the people.

Therefore you take upon yourself certain responsibilities, of which you should ever try to be mindful. You must be scrupulously clean in your person. You must follow attentively the services, that your thoughts may be fixed upon high and holy things, and that you may be in readiness to carry out punctually and accurately whatever work is entrusted to you. Remember that your best, and only your best, must be offered to God. Therefore be punctual and regular in your attendance at Church, and never allow yourself to perform any action carelessly and negligently, without proper thought. Your actions should be the outcome of thoughts of devotion and reverence, so that whatever you do shall be done beautifully, and as perfectly as may be. Try to enter into the spirit of service, remembering that "even the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister." So shall you find joy and peace in the service of God's holy Church, and the hand of Christ be laid upon you in tender love and blessing.

The candidate kneels before the Priest

P Wilt thou strive earnestly to practise these duties?

Candidate I will.

P The Lord keep thee in all these things well beloved son, and strengthen thee in all goodness R Amen.

The Priest says the following prayer with hands extended towards the candidate

O Lord Christ, Who art ever ready to receive and to strengthen the earnest aspirations of Thy children, look down in Thy love upon this Thy servant who desires to minister as a Server in Thy holy Church Sanctify + him O Lord, with Thy heavenly grace that growing continually in virtue he may rightly practise the duties of his office and so be found acceptable in Thy sight, O Thou great King of Love and Wisdom, to Whom be glory for ever and ever R Amen.

The Priest lays his hand upon the candidate's head raising it only to make the sign of the cross and says

The blessing of God Almighty the Father + the Son, and the Holy Ghost come down upon thee that thou mayest rightly fulfil that which to day thou hast undertaken R Amen

THE INVOCATION AND BLESSING OF THE WATER

The Priest blesses the water as follows

* I exorcize thee creature of water by the living + God by the holy + God, by the omnipotent + God that thou mayest be purified from all evil influence in the Name of Him Who is Lord of Angels and of men, Who filleth the whole earth with His majesty and glory R Amen

P O God, Who for the helping and safeguarding of men dost hallow the water set apart for the service of Thy holy Church send forth Thy light and Thy power upon this element of water which we + bless and + hallow in Thy holy Name Grant that whosoever uses this water in faithfulness of spirit may be strengthened in all goodness and that every thing sprinkled with it may be made holy and pure and guarded from all assaults of evil Through
Christ our Lord. R Amen

The Priest casts the salt three times on the water cross wise as he says the following

Let salt and water mingle together in the Name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen

The following versicles are said upon the casting of the salt upon the water

P The Lord be with you

C And with thy spirit

P O God, the Giver of invincible strength, and King of irresistible power Whose splendour shines throughout the whole of creation we pray Thee to look upon this Thy creature of salt and water to pour down upon it the radiance of Thy + blessing and to + hallow it with the dew of Thy lovingkindness that wherever it shall be sprinkled and Thy holy Name shall be invoked in prayer every noble aspiration may be strengthened, every good resolve service In the power of the + Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R Amen.

•The Bishop takes upon his thumb some of the Oil of the Sick, and therewith makes the sign of the cross four times upon the outside of the upper half of the bell, first upon the north side, then (passing by the east) upon the south, then on the west side, and finally upon the east, saying

In the Name of the Most High and invoking the aid of the holy Archangel Raphael I anoint this bell for the healing of Christ's faithful followers, that whithersoever its sound may penetrate it may bear help and strength both to soul and body, through Christ the Lord of heaven and earth R Amen

emly dedicate this bell may its sound peal forth ever to the praise of God and the blessing of man

Making five large crosses in the air over the whole bell he continues

May it be + hallowed and + consecrated to God's service for ever in the Name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R. Amen.

The Thymyama is then thrown upon the glowing charcoal in the brazier and the latter is placed upon a stool under the bell The Bishop intones

As the sweet savour fills this bell and rises up before Thee so pour Thou down, O Holy Spirit, the dew of Thy all powerful blessing upon it and upon us Thy servants, Thou Who livest and reignest with the Father and Son, one God throughout the ages of ages
R. Amen.

† A Hymn may be sung while the Bishop cleanses his hands When it is ended he pronounces this blessing

Unto God's gracious love and protection I commit you the Lord bless you and keep you the Lord make His Face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you the Lord lift up the light of His Countenance upon you, and give you His peace and His blessing now and for evermore. R. Amen.

THE BLESSING OF OBJECTS IN GENERAL

THE EXORCISM

Priest In the Name of God I exorcise all influences of evil that they may be banished and driven

The newly consecrated oil is carried in procession to the sacristy

THE BLESSING OF THE HOLY CHRISM

The Bishop blesses the balsam and oil respectively as follows

The Blessing of the Balsam

In the Name of our Lord Christ, I + consecrate and + hallow this balsam, that everything touched therewith may burn with His purity, before Whose splendour the Angels veil their faces R. Amen.

The Blessing of the Oil

In the Name of our Lord Christ I + consecrate and + hallow this oil now set apart for the making of holy chrism that it may bestow upon those who receive it of the fullness of spiritual strength R. Amen

The balsam and oil are now mixed and the Bishop extending both hands over the oil continues

Let us pray

O Lord Christ, the Fountain of all goodness, Who dost pour down Thy gifts abundantly upon men, and for their strengthening dost hallow and set apart these earthly things as a channel of Thy marvellous power, send forth we pray Thee Thy + blessing up on this holy chrism that whatsoever persons or things shall be anointed therewith may receive of the fullness of spiritual consecration Let Thy heavenly blessing descend upon those who are signed by this chrism with the sign of Thy holy service, that, guarding well their spiritual heritage they may shed around them the fragrance of a godly life O Thou Great Shepherd and Ruler of the souls of men to Whom we honour and glory for evermore R. Amen

LAYING THE FOUNDATION STONE OF A CHURCH

A temporary wooden cross should be erected on the spot where the Altar is intended to stand, and holy water should be freshly made just before the Service according to the usual formula

A plumb line, a level, a mason's square and trowel should be provided.

When the procession reaches the site of the Altar, the Bishop intones the intonation

In the Name of the Father ✠ and of the Son
and of the Holy Ghost R Amen.

Taking the aspergill, which has been dipped in newly blessed holy water, he sprinkles thrice the site of the Altar, saying

In the strength of the Lord do I repel all evil from this place which we are about to dedicate to His service.

The Bishop breathes three times in the form of a cross over the chrism. The Priests who are present breathe over it in turn in the same way, and it is then carried in procession to the sacristy.

*The Bishop proceeds with the Holy Eucharist. After the Ite Missa Est has been sung he exhorts the Priests faithfully to guard the chrism and holy oils and not to presume to administer them otherwise than according to the usage of our Church.*

The Bishop breathes three times in the form of a cross over the chrism. The Priests who are present breathe over it in turn in the same way and it is then carried in procession to the sacristy.

The Bishop proceeds with the Holy Eucharist. After the Ite Missa Est has been sung he exhorts the Priests faithfully to guard the chrism and holy oils and not to presume to administer them otherwise than according to the usage of our Church.

The deacon tries it with the level, and replies Right Reverend Father, the stone is level.

The Bishop tests it with the square and says
 I declare this stone to be well and truly laid.

He continues

Let us pray

Almighty God and Loving Father without Whom nothing is strong nothing is holy, look down in the might of Thy power upon this creature of stone, that it and this place, which we have dedicated to Thy service and consecrated to Thy work may become radiant with the Light of Thy undying Fire

During the prayer which follows the Bishop anoints with chrism the cross carved on the face of the stone

Wherefore do we + bless and + hallow this stone as the foundation of Thy Church to the glory of God to the perfecting of humanity and in honour of *His glorious Martyr the holy St In the name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost. R Amen.

BLESSING AND LAYING OF THE FOUNDATION STONE

The procession moves to the foundation stone and the following versicles are sung

B Our help is in the Name of the Lord.

C Who hath made heaven and earth.

B Let us bless the Lord.

C Henceforth and for evermore

B Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost

C As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

The Bishop takes the aspergill and sprinkles the stone with holy water saying

B Let us pray

O Christ our holy Lord, Son of the Living God, Who art the one Foundation and the chief Corner stone of Thy Church, we pray Thee to + purify + to accept and + to establish this stone to be placed in the foundations of Thine abiding place May the incense of true worship joyous and unafraid, ever arise with in these walls and to that end we ask for strength to serve Thee better for power to love Thee more * for greater light to give unto our brethren, O Thou great Ruler of the hearts of men, to Whom be praise for evermore R. B Let us pray

G Lord Christ in Whose presence all desire dies save the desire to be like Thee we pray Thee to send down into our hearts and minds a ray of Thy loving kindness that those who worship here may ever be gentle in speech pure in thought and kind in action, that they may be bearers of thy love and joy to all their brethren, O Thou Who art the Master and Friend of all that lives R. Amen

Turning to the people the Bishop pronounces the benediction

The peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God and of His Son, Christ our Lord and the blessing of God Almighty the + Father the + Son, and the Holy + Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always R. Amen

THE CONSECRATION OF A CHURCH

The clergy and acolytes enter the chancel singing a hymn and group themselves around the Altar, which is uncovered and unadorned

THE INVOCATION

Bishop In the Name of the Father ✠ and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost R. Amen

A short address appropriate to the occasion may be given by the Bishop or by one of the clergy appointed for the purpose or the homily which follows may be read

It is the immemorial custom of holy Church to consecrate the building in which her services are permanently to be held and it is for this purpose that we are met together to day. Our first step in this ceremony is to endeavour to purify the mental atmosphere of the building by the use of holy water and of incense so that worldly thought and influence may be banished from it and our thoughts during our first procession should be devoted to that end. Having performed the ritual of purification, we call upon Almighty God to consecrate and to hallow all its various parts to the purposes in His service for which they are destined, and to that end we anoint with holy oil certain special centres of influence. In that second procession of consecration our minds should be strongly fixed upon the idea that this Church shall be not only a place free from selfish or worldly thought, but definitely an active centre of good and holy thought—not merely free from evil, but actively good. When this great act of consecration has been duly performed, we at once begin our first Service—the highest and holiest Service that we know—the Holy Eucharist which Christ Himself ordained. In the course of this celebration the third procession will take place and the sacred Host will be borne round the Church as a crowning benediction. During that time our hearts should be filled with deepest adoration to our Lord and with heartiest thankfulness for His wondrous love. Remember then, these three keynotes of the different portions of the Service—first purification, secondly consecration, and thirdly adoration and thankfulness.

THE PURIFICATION

B Let us pray

All kneel

B O God, omnipotent and omnipresent, Who dost deign especially to hallow and to dwell within those places set apart for Thy worship we pray Thee so to purify this temple by the influence of Thy Holy Spirit, that no evil thought may enter herein. Through Christ our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, one God throughout all ages of ages. R Amen.

tre, and encircles the church, the Bishop sprinkling the walls. Meantime a hymn is sung by all.

The procession returns to the chancel

THE CONSECRATION

B Let us pray

All kneel

B God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, + accept, + hallow and + bless this place to the end, whereunto we have separated it, even to be a sanctuary of the Most High, and a Church of the Living God. The Lord with His favour graciously regard our work, and so send down His spiritual benediction and grace, that it may be unto Him the house of God, and unto His people worshipping therein the gate of heaven. R Amen.

The Consecration of the Altar

The people are seated. The Bishop goes to the Altar, and with his thumb makes the sign of the cross with chrism upon the five crosses carved upon the Altar stone (or upon the Altar itself if it be made of stone). He then anoints the cross of the tabernacle (or the Altar cross) with chrism and says

O God, Whose wisdom mightily and sweetly ordereth all things, look down, we pray Thee upon the handiwork of Thy servants and fill this house with heavenly wisdom, that they who serve Thee here may be so filled with the Spirit of wisdom and love that they may constantly labour to raise Thy people from the darkness of ignorance to the light of Thy holy truth.

Many a blow and biting sculpture
 Polished well those stones elect
 In their places now compacted
 By the heavenly Architect
 Who therewith hath willed for ever
 That His Palace should be decked

The Bishop anoints the cross with chrism and says

O Thou great Master Builder Who hast laid the foundations of the universe in order and symmetry grant that Thy people may so mould and polish the rude material of their natures that they may be found just and accurate in Thy sight.

Wherefore do we + consecrate and + hallow this temple to the glory of God, to the perfecting of humanity and in honour of His glorious Martyr the holy St In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R. Amen

The fourth verse of the hymn is sung as the procession moves to the cross in the west

Christ is made the sure Foundation
 Christ the Head and Corner stone, Chosen of the Lord and precious Binding all the Church in one Holy Zion's help for ever manity and in honour of His glorious Martyr the holy St. In the Name of the + Father and of the + Son, and of the Holy + Ghost R. Amen

The seventh verse of the hymn is sung as the procession moves to the cross in the centre

Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
What they ask of Thee to gain
What they gain from Thee for ever
With the Blessed to retain,
And hereafter in Thy glory
Evermore with Thee to reign.

The Pulpit anoints this cross with chrism and says

O God, the Rock of Ages, the strength of all them that put their trust in Thee we pray Thee graciously to regard our work and to fill this house with Thine almighty power that they who worship here may be girded with strength for Thy holy service.

Wherefore do we + consecrate and + hallow this temple to the glory of God, to the perfecting of humanity and in honour of His glorious Martyr the holy St. In the Name of the + Father and of

ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with Me from the beginning By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another

At the end of the hymn Adesto Fideles following the consecration the Host is placed within the monstrance by the deacon

THE PROFESSION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

ye also shall bear witness because ye have been with Me from the beginning By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples if ye have love one to another

At the end of the hymn Adexte Fideles, following the consecration the Host is placed within the monstrance by the deacon

THE PROCESSION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

The people kneel

The procession forms (the Bishop carrying the monstrance over which a canopy must be held) and moves through the body of the church as the Litany is sung alternately If it be convenient a Cantor appointed by the Bishop may sing the first third fifth and other verses bearing odd numbers the even verses being sung by the choir and the people

THE LITANY

God the Father seen of none
 God the co eternal Son
 God the Spirit—Three in One
 Hear us Holy Trinity

Thou, before Whose purging ray
Mists of evil fade away
Orb of everlasting day

Son of God, we hail

5

Thou, Whose wisdom all things planned,
Held by Whose almighty Hand
All things in their order stand.

We Thy Church, adore Thee.

6

Thou, Whose life and strength pervade
Whatsoever Thou hast made
All Preserver strong to aid,

We Thy Church adore Thee.

Thou Whose beauty like a star
Throbbing in the void afar
Only earth born clouds can mar

We Thy Church adore Thee.

8

Thou, Whose universal might
Saints acclaim with mystic rite
Clad in robes of dazzling light

Christ our Lord, we hail Thee

9

Thou for Whom, in heavenly choir
Angel forms of living fire
Wake the everlasting lyre,

Christ our Lord, we hail Thee

10

Lord of Wisdom, from Whose lore
Wisest men of earth may store

We Thy Church adore Thee

11

Blessings on Thy Church below,
Till her measure overflow,
King of Glory, hear us

12

King of Salem, Priest Divine
Thou, Whose love hath sealed us Thine
Through Thy mystic Bread and Wine,
We, Thy Church, adore Thee

13

Priest and Victim, Whom of old
Type and prophecy foretold,
Thee Incarnate we behold,
Son of God, we hail Thee

Purged in vision through Thy grace
We by faith may see Thy face
Feel Thee near in every place,
Christ our Lord we hail Thee

15

Ruth divine that givest heed
Unto every cry of need,
Healing balm to hearts that bleed
Help us, Holy Master

16

Healer of the souls distressed,
Happiness of all the blest
Peace of those who long for rest,
We, Thy Church, adore Thee

18

Lest by thought or action base
Ignorant, we slight Thy grace
Lest we hide from us Thy Face,
Help us Holy Master

19

That our hearts may win release
That our hands from ill may cease
That our souls may know Thy peace

20

That from selfish lusts made free,
Each at length, clear-eyed may see—
See and tread—the path to Thee
Help us Holy Master

21

Till our pilgrimage complete
Rest shall come and comfort sweet,
Friend of pilgrims at Thy Feet
Son of God, we hail Thee

22

God the Father seen of none
God the co eternal Son
God the Spirit—Three in One

OCCASIONAL PRAYERS

FOR A SCHOOL

PROSPER with Thy blessing O Lord, the work of this school, that they who here pursue the knowledge of earthly things may not fail to add thereto that increase of heavenly wisdom without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before Thee, through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

O LORD CHRIST, Who hast taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth, grant unto us strength so to cast aside selfishness and pride, that

FOR ALL CONDITIONS OF MEN

O GOD the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we pray Thee for all sorts and conditions of men; that Thou wouldst be pleased to make Thy ways known unto them, Thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for Thy holy Church universal that it may be so guided and governed by Thy good Spirit that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally we commend to Thy fatherly goodness all those who are in any ways afflicted or distressed, in mind, body or estate (especially those for whom our prayers are desired) that it may please Thee to comfort and relieve them, according to their several necessities giving them patience under their sufferings and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. Through Christ our Lord R. Amen.

Of the Holy Ghost As on Whitsunday or any of the other six Sundays of special devotion to the Holy Spirit

Of the Most Holy Sacrament As on Corpus Christi or Maundy Thursday

ADDITIONS

THE BLESSING OF A HOUSE

After the Priest has formally entered the house and given the word of peace, he turns and draws a line with holy water before the door, and says

We pray Thee O Lord, so to bless this door way by Thy mighty power that those who enter through it may leave behind them all unworthy thought and feeling that Thy children who dwell in this house may ever serve Thee in peace and holiness of life, through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

He then goes to all the other entrances to the house and draws a line of holy water before each repeating the same prayer After this he proceeds to sprinkle and cense the rooms as prescribed

Let it be noted that the Eucharist of the Presanctified to be used on Good Friday and Holy Saturday shall commence with the Asperges in the Shorter Form but omitting the words

He will send His holy Angel to build for us a spiritual temple through which
